Did you know?

Did you know that dental hygiene principles were recorded a thousand years ago by a Middle Eastern doctor?

It's true! About 1100 AD the Persian physician Abulcasis wrote about plaque and tartar on teeth, how infection was transferred to the gum tissue, and recommended scraping the teeth with small tools, much like we do today.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. We're here to help!

“Engineer It!” at the Bandon library

BANDON – The Bandon Public Library presents “Engineer It! Exploring Ancient Technologies.”

This free program will be held from 10:30-11:30 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 5, in the Bandon Public Library’s Sprague Room.

Presented by the University of Oregon’s Museum of Natural and Cultural History and sponsored by Bandon Library Friends and Foundation, “Engineer It!” is a one-hour experience with a museum educator targeted for families with elementary-age children.

Following a short presentation, activity tables will be available offering touchable artifacts and some hands-on engineering challenges including boat designing, shelter building and fishing tool activities.

Native Americans have always used science and engineering to create effective tools, clothing, homes and more, and passed this knowledge down through generations.

Try your own skills while discovering technologies designed by Oregon’s first engineers.

Contact Julie Tipton, children’s librarian, at 541-347-3221 for more information.

Vendors needed for Cranberry Festival

BANDON – Sign up for the Bandon Cranberry Festival and join the longest-running festival on the Oregon Coast. Artisans, crafters and food vendors are invited to share their talents and sell their goods at the festival market Sept. 9 and 10.

The festival draws the largest attendance of any Bandon community event. And 2016 was a record-setting year - roughly 15,000 residents and visitors attended festival events through the weekend. Cranberry Festival activities and outdoor vendor market areas are centered in Bandon’s Historic Old Town, on the Coquille River waterfront.

Visit bandon.com/cranberry-festival for festival details, vendor applications and lodging information, or call the Bandon

Chamber of Commerce at 541-347-9616.

Vendor booths feature food, beverages, art and hand-crafted products. Vendor products are juried, and the number of entries is limited. Booth prices vary by product type and electricity is available by advance request.

Not-for-profit organizations serving Oregon’s South Coast residents are invited to take advantage of complimentary booth space at the Bandon Cranberry Festival in exchange for providing a family friendly game or activity.

All booths must be staffed from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Set-up is welcome Friday evening, Sept. 8. Space is available on a first-come, first-served basis, so sign up early.

Shipwrecks of Curry County talk on July 29

NORTH BEND - North Bend author Hannah Contino will give a free talk about her new book “Shipwrecks of Curry County,” which was published in July by Arcadia Press. Contino’s presentation takes place at 1 p.m. Saturday, July 29, at the North Bend Public Library.

Historically, mariners considered the Oregon coast one of the most dangerous in the world. In 1852, explorers discovered gold in the rivers and along the beaches in Curry County. The area contained many potential dangers to ships, including unpredictable weather, frequent fog, and submerged rocks and reefs. There have been many shipwrecks in this coastal region.

During the talk, the audience will learn about the dangers that early mariners had to overcome, and the author will give insight into some of the major shipwrecks in the Curry County. Program highlights include information about the tanker Larry Doheny (torpedoed by a Japanese submarine during WWII, the Cottoneva (whose propeller remains on display outside the Port Orford Visitor Center, and the Mary D. Hume (the would-be museum ship that sank at a dock).

Contino has been a researcher at the Coos Historical Museum, and is the author of Shipwrecks of Coos County.

This program is free and open to the public.

‘Wizard of Oz’ coming to Sprague

BANDON – “The Wizard of Oz” is coming to Bandon for 12 performances starting Thursday, Aug. 10, and concluding on Sunday, Aug. 27.

“The Wizard of Oz” is a heartwarming tale of magic and fantasy, good and evil and family and friendship. Based on L. Frank Baum’s novel and the 1939 film, this musical adaptation of “The Wizard of Oz” was originally produced by the Royal Shakespeare Company in London in 1987 with music by Harold Arlen and lyrics by E.Y. Harburg. The score is full of tunes from the timeless film such as “We’re Off To See the Wizard,” “If I Only Had A Brain,” “The Merry Old Land of Oz,” and, of course, the classic “Over The Rainbow.”
