Coast Guard Air Station thanked by Daughters of the American Revolution

By BECKY GIGER
News Editor

The Coast Guard is an integral part of the community of Coos Bay and North Bend. The Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) recognized this significance by presenting the North Bend CG Air Station for their 50 years of serving our area. On Tuesday, August 13th the Coos Bay Chapter of DAR Regent Karry Johnson and member Susan Peck presented Captain Bustamente with a plaque to commemorate and thank the base for serving our nation.

The Coast Guard Air Station has been serving the area since September 28, 1974. The base area of responsibility (AOR) encompasses 220 miles of shoreline extending from Pacific City, Oregon, south to the California border, west to the 50nm offshore and east to the I-5 corridor.

The local DAR chapter felt that the fifty years of service to our area needed to be recognized, "for their unwavering dedication to protecting our shores and waterways, ensuring the safety of maritime commerce, saving lives at sea and land and serving our nation with courage and distinction since 1974."

The Coos Bay chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution was established in 1917. DAR is a lineage-based women's service organization founded in the United States in 1890. They are dedicated to promoting historic preservation, education and patriotism. All members are required to trace their lineage back to the individuals who helped play a role in winning the American independence during the Revolutionary War.

The local chapter explains that "DAR fosters a sense of patriotism and national pride. Members participate in patriotic activities, events, and ceremonies that celebrate American heritage and honor those who have served in the military."

Local youth performing in 'Little Mermaid Jr'

By BREE LAUGHLIN
The World

A group of young performers are ready to take their audience under the sea with a musical production of 'The Little Mermaid Jr.'

Almost 50 children have been participating in the Little Theater on the Bay Stars summer youth program. They have been honing their acting and singing skills for three hours a day, five days a week over the summer.

The Little Mermaid Jr. performances are a culmination of all their hard work.

"I'm so proud of the willingness to try new things, the focus and the effort they are bringing every single day," said director Aymee Pedder.

Pedder is joined by Assistant director Jessica Crooks and Music Director John Adamson for the Little Mermaid Jr. production. The musical has been adapted for young people to be able to perform in an hour.

The Theater director said she is excited to present the Little Mermaid story because it is one that the kids know well, and one that audiences know too.

Youth in the Little Theater on the Bay Stars summer program will be performing 'The Little Mermaid Jr.' on Aug. 28 through 31 at the Liberty Theater in North Bend.

"They get to know their characters, read the lines and explore the notion that everyone doesn't fit in all the time and it's okay. You will find your people eventually. That's my favorite part of the story of The Little Mermaid," Pedder said. The theater director is inviting the community to join in the fun watching the young actors and actresses perform.

"There's nothing more delightful than 50 children singing songs, performing and having a great time," Pedder said. "Their faces light up the stage. We don't even need the stage lights," she said.

Apprentice program supports Coos Bay firefighters

By BECKY GIGER
News Editor

The Coos Bay fire department recognizing staff shortages within the department recently moved forward to join with the new Oregon Firefighter Apprenticeship Program created by the Oregon State Firefighters Council (OSFFC) in collaboration with the Bureau of Labor and Industries (BOLI).

Luke Taylor, President of the Coos Bay Professional Firefighters Association spoke at the August 6 city council board meeting to explain this new program. "It is no secret that our profession is dangerous. It is also no secret that understaffed fire departments make the situation worse."

Taylor explained to the board what Coos Bay is currently facing in relation to staffing. Coos Bay currently employees two career firefighters on each engine which qualifies as minimum staffing requirements. The firefighters must follow Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) requirements including the two in and two out policy, which requires that if at least two employees enter the Immediately Dangerous to Life or Health (IDLH) atmosphere they must be supported by two more outside the dangerous area.

In other words, two firefighters must remain outside a building if two enter the building during a fire. With only two firefighters on the truck this Local anglers will be pulling back into the California Street Boat Ramp in North Bend after Mayor Jessica Engelke with representatives from the U.S. Coast Guard, North Bend Fire and Rescue and North Bend Police gathered for a ribbon cutting to reopen the boat ramp.

The August "Walk with the Mayors," on Monday August 19 began at noon with a large crowd gathering around the dock area. The event celebrated the reopening of the boat ramp followed by a special check presentation. The check given to the city by the Bay Area

Animals Don't Get Labor Day Off

Labor Day often brings to mind long weekends, barbecues, and the close of summer. But it's also an opportunity to make compassionate choices. Each day, over 23 million land animals and 150 million sea animals are killed in the U.S. for food. The worldwide numbers are even more staggering. Choosing to eat animals, and their byproducts, harms our health and contributes to the climate crisis. This Labor Day, why not opt for a cruelty-free celebration? Our daily dietary choices save the lives of thousands of animals each year. Plant-based burgers, sausages, and hot dogs are widely available, and most sides are already vegan. Top off your meal with delicious dairy-free desserts.

Let's celebrate a kinder, healthier holiday for all this year.

Sincerely,
Clyde Bustamante

Summer camp instructors want youth taking part in the program to gain a love for theater arts.

Pedder aims to also teach them to have a respect for the space that they occupy, a respect for themselves and a respect for others over the course of the summer camp.

This involves an appreciation for hearing and responding -- "knowing when to hold your tongue when it is not necessary to speak and to speak up with it is important to speak up, learning how to use your voice appropriately," Pedder said.

The Little Theater on the Bay has been offering their youth LTOB Stars summer program for four years. It has been growing consistently, attracting youth back that have already participated, and involving new youth who want to perform.

"You can't help but be proud of the sheer amount of effort they put in from day one," Pedder said.

She encourages community members to support them.

"They need to be able to taste the fruits of their labor with the applause and the reaction of the audience. So come and be a part of it. Come and be a part of the magic," Pedder said.

The LTOB Stars summer youth production of 'The Little Mermaid Jr.' will be held on Wednesday Aug. 28 through Saturday, Aug. 31. Shows on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will be held at 7 p.m. and the Saturday show will be held at 2 p.m.

Oregon sees job growth, continued employment challenges

STAFF REPORT

Country Media, Inc.

Oregon's seasonally adjusted nonfarm payroll employment rose by 8,500 jobs in July, following a revised decline of 700 jobs in June, according to the Oregon Employment Department.

Gains, loses

July's gains were largest in professional and business services (+2,300 jobs); health care and social assistance (+2,000); government (+1,800); and construction (+1,400).

Declines in July were largest in leisure and hospitality (-700 jobs) and retail trade (-500).

Professional and business services added 2,300 jobs in July, following a drop of 1,700 in June. The July gain was led by the addition of 2,000 jobs in the component industry administrative and waste services.

Despite the one-month increase, professional and business services cut 2,900 jobs, or -1.1%, in the past 12 months, with each of its three component industries also declining by close to 1% since July 2023.

Health care and social assistance expanded rapidly, adding 2,000 jobs in July and 16,300 jobs over the past 12 months. Social assistance grew by 7,500 jobs, or 10.3%, in 12 months.

Meanwhile, the health-care component industries each added more than 2,000 jobs since July 2023: nursing and residential care facilities (+3,500 jobs, or 6.6%); ambulatory health care services (+3,700 jobs, or 3.7%); and hospitals (+2,300 jobs, or 3.9%).

Despite gains in health care and a few other industries, several industries cut jobs over the past year.

Four major industries declined by at least 1,000 jobs since July 2023: retail trade (-6,600 jobs, or -3.2%); financial activities (-1,300 jobs, or -1.3%); professional and business services (-2,900 jobs, or -1.1%);

and manufacturing (-1,900 jobs, or -1.0%).

Oregon's unemployment rate was 4.1% in both June and July and has been in a tight range between 4.0% and 4.2% since October 2023. The U.S. unemployment rate rose from 4.1% in June to 4.3% in July.

Fall sports schedules for South Coast

JOHN GUNTHER
For The World

The season for many of the high school teams on the South Coast begins with first competitions this week, starting a two-month stretch building up to league and state playoffs and championships.

Below are the varsity schedules for the area's schools, as listed on the Oregon School Activities Association website (osaa.org) or, in the case of cross country, athletic.net. Schedules may change slightly throughout the season.

In a few cases, athletes for one school compete with another in soccer, and are schedules are listed for the host school (Myrtle Point and Coquille have joint teams that play in Coquille and Bandon soccer players compete with Pacific). Both the Pacific and Gold Beach soccer programs are coed teams that play against other boys teams.

For specific game times, people can check osaa.org. For locations of cross country meets and meet times, check athletic.net.

Dates marked with asterisks denote league contests.

Cheryl Ann Richmond (Pereira)

September 26, 1944 – July 6, 2024

Cheryl Ann Richmond, a beloved matriarch whose love and dedication to her family was the cornerstone of her life, passed away on July 6, 2024, surrounded by her cherished loved ones after a courageous battle with cancer. Born on September 26, 1944, in San Francisco, Cheryl moved with her family to Santa Clara in 1948, where she spent her formative years.

Cheryl was the treasured daughter of Lorrean and Frances Pereira and grew up alongside her siblings Jerry Pereira, Larry Pereira, Gail Waits, and Donna Reynolds. She attended St. Clare's Catholic School and Santa Clara High School, graduating in 1962. On January 30, 1965, she married the love of her life, Ralph Howard Richmond Jr., and together they built a beautiful family with three children, Lori, Ralph III, and Nicole Richmond.

A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Cheryl's heart was always with her family. She is survived by her three children, twelve grandchildren, and eighteen great-grandchildren, each of whom brought immense joy to her life. Cheryl's home was a haven of love, laughter, and warm memories, a place where her nurturing spirit and boundless affection could always be felt.

Cheryl's career included positions at Pacific Bell and Fred Meyer, but her true passion was her family. She retired to dedicate more time to her children, traveling across Oregon for their Gold Coast Swim Team swim meets and working alongside her husband and in-laws at Ireland's Rustic Lodges in Gold Beach, Oregon. Cheryl was also a cherished volunteer in the Sumner School Library, where she inspired many children to find a love for reading and served as the homeroom Mom. Her commitment to the community extended to her roles as a leader for the Girl Scouts, Blue Birds, and the Lioness Club.

Cheryl's adventurous spirit took her to places far and wide, with some of her most treasured memories being her travels to Australia and New Zealand with her beloved husband. She found joy in exploring new places and sharing those experiences with her family.

Cheryl was preceded in death by her parents; her in-laws, Ralph Sr. and Wilma Richmond; her husband, Ralph Jr.; her brother, Jerry and his wife Virginia, Sandra Pereira, and Linda Nicosia. She leaves behind not only her immediate family but also dear friends and extended family members including Sherri Acosta, Maralynn Falkenstrom, Tracy Ogle, Sharon Richmond, Will Smith, Jeanna Mihevc, Bill & Terri Richmond, Alice Kelley, and Kay Pereira.

Cheryl's legacy is one of unwavering love, dedication, and kindness. Her life was a testament to the power of family and the beauty of a life well-lived. She will be deeply missed but forever remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Rest in peace, Cheryl Ann Richmond. Your love and light will continue to shine in the hearts of your family and friends forever.

Family is planning a Celebration of Life on September 28th to celebrate Cheryl's 80th Birthday.

Thomas Reid Graham

September 14, 1931 – August 2, 2024

On August 2, 2024, our beloved Dad, Thomas "Tom" Reid Graham passed away at home just shy of his 93rd birthday. Tom was born in Portland, Oregon on September 14, 1931.

The Grahams moved to Empire, Oregon when Tom was young. Tom told many stories about his days as a "dirty little Empire boy." He and his pals would swim at Chicksee Creek Falls, or float the bay to the North Spit to play in the dunes. Tom attended Empire Grade School and enjoyed many reunions with classmates. Also, as a young boy, Tom built a shed (club house) from discarded materials. He later continued building several homes and many woodworking projects. Tom's building interests were shared with his son and grandsons who all became professional contractors.

Tom briefly left Empire to live in Portland with his grandmother and graduated Woodstock Elementary School. Returning to North Bend, Tom met his forever love, (TGWB) Wanda "Kotch" Boynton, at the Liberty Theater. She caught his eye while selling popcorn at the concession stand. They were inseparable and graduated North Bend High School, class of 1949. As a Bulldog, Tom participated in sports and held the bamboo pole vault record for many years. Tom and Kotch married November 25, 1949 and celebrated 73 years together before Kotch's passing January 18, 2023.

As newlyweds, the Grahams lived in Alleghany, Oregon where Tom worked for Weyerhaeuser Corporation. Helping to construct Kelly Lookout was one of his proudest accomplishments. His son Scott and daughter Terri were born during those years.

In 1955, the family moved to North Bend and Tom became a paid fireman for North Bend Fire Department. Tom was an adept "shade tree mechanic," always tinkering on cars. Becoming a self-employed owner of a Richfield gas station was a natural fit. His next employment opportunity was manager of Empire Fuel Company. Tom's final career move was manager of Coos Head Builders Supply.

Tom participated in the community in many capacities. He was on the North Bend City Council for 16 years, a volunteer fire captain, Rotary Club, Security Bank board member, NBHS Quarterback Club and was elected to NBHS Hall of Fame. He became Master of the North Bend Masonic Lodge No. 148 (a calling of his Scottish father's heritage). Tom had a beautiful tenor voice and sang with the Gold Coast Chorus, with the Sea Clefs Barbershop quartet, and in Little Theater on the Bay productions of South Pacific, The King and I (with Kotch) and in the quartet for The Music Man. Music was always present in the home.

In the 1960's, Tom's family was one of the few to have a sand buggy. Days were spent roaming and camping the dunes between Hauser and the North Jetty. Encounters with other people were rare in those days.

As the center of his family, Tom was loved very much and will be greatly missed. He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother David Graham, and wife Wanda Graham.

Tom is survived by son Scott (Jackie) Graham; daughter Terri (Jim) Fox; grandsons Mike (Tanya) Graham and Jim Graham; granddaughter Cami (Ryan) Henderson; great-grandsons Jackson and Jace Henderson; sister Kathy (Terry) Weisner; sister-in-law Sunny Graham; and many nieces, nephews, and great-nieces and nephews.

Tom's family is grateful for caregiver Cindy's years of love and care as well as caregiver Suzi's brief care.

Donations in Tom's memory may be made to South Coast Hospice, 1620 Thompson Road, Coos Bay, Oregon 97420; Liberty Theater, PO Box 404, North Bend, Oregon 97459; and North Bend Volunteer Fire Department, 1880 McPherson Avenue, North Bend, Oregon 97459.

Friends and family are encouraged to sign the online guestbook at www.coosbayareafunerals.com and www.theworldlink.com. Arrangements are under the care of North Bend Chapel, 541-756-0440.

Harley Herbert Brimhall

January 11, 1941- July 4, 2024

"Back then, if you went to or watched the motorcycle races, you knew who Harley Brimhall was... he was the one winning most of 'em."

Harley Herbert Brimhall was born Jan 11, 1941, in Coquille, Oregon to Alvin Sr. & Ruby (Waits) Brimhall. He went to school in Bridge until transferring to Coquille to finish his high school years, graduating from Coquille in 1960.

Harley loved engines and speed, and he soon became Coos Bay's top motorcycle operator. He participated in motorcycle races all over Oregon, earning him several state titles including Oregon State 650 Motorcycle Champion. He amassed truckloads of trophies from his racing. He also went to school for engine repair and received multiple certifications, including Volkswagen and Porsche.

While working at Vollstedt Volkswagen, Harley got lunch at a nearby restaurant where he fancied a beautiful spitfire redhead waitress. He married Peggy Luscombe on March 23, 1973, in Nevada. They became coast-to-coast long haul truck drivers, both receiving many Safe Driver awards over the years and seeing all continental states. They enjoyed trips to Alaska and antiquing in each state until they retired in 1998.

Though Harley had no biological children, he really enjoyed his new family with Peggy. As soon as the grandkids arrived, he would ride his motorcycle into town to get more ice cream and chocolate milk. Then he would come back and make sure a lawnmower or tractor was in working order for them to drive around. He taught his grandsons about motorcycles, motors, and how to drive. Through the years, family gatherings always ended up with a story involving Harley's many ideas and inventions, and everyone would be in awe at how much food he could put together on his plate and would soon be found passed out on a recliner. He also loved his dogs as his kids, and boy were they also spoiled.

Harley passed away on July 4, 2024. He is survived by stepson Scott & Linda Walton of Coos Bay, grandchildren: Angela & Ravi Thomas, William & Becky Walton, Luke & Amy Walton, and Jed & Jessica Walton, great grandchildren: Alexi, Omari, Wayde, Will, Wesson, Rory, and Keanu, and great-great grandchildren: Nayeli, Imani, and Romeo. He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews including Judy, Tracey, Howard, John, Lisa, Pat, and Ronda.

Harley was preceded in death by his wife Peggy, stepdaughter Susie, his parents, and siblings Harold, Ethel, Alvin Jr, Howard and Bill.

John "Wayne" Dennis

July 8, 1942- August 14, 2024

John "Wayne" Dennis, a lifelong resident of Coos Bay and North Bend, passed away peacefully. Wayne spent his years dedicated to his community and family, most notably through his ownership and operation of JD&D Auto Sales until his retirement. Known for his warm spirit and friendly demeanor, Wayne built lasting relationships with many throughout his career.

Wayne had a deep love for the outdoors, finding joy in fishing and hunting, as well as the thrill of a good game of golf or racquetball. His passion for life extended beyond his hobbies; he was a devoted father and grandfather, leaving behind a loving family who will miss him dearly.

He is survived by his children and grandchildren, who will carry on his legacy of strength, kindness, and a love for life.

Wayne's memory will be cherished by all who knew him.

Inspections in the amount of: $45.00 5. Attorney Fees and Costs in the amount of: $1,335.00 6. Together with the interest thereon at the rate 8.5000000% subject to adjustment until paid all accrued late charges thereon; and all trustee's fees, foreclosure costs and any sums advanced by the beneficiary pursuant to the terms of said deed of trust. The principal sum of $35,582.83 together with the interest thereon at the rate 8.5000000% subject to adjustment 09/20/2023 until paid; plus all accrued late charges thereon; and all trustee's fees, foreclosure costs and any sums advanced by the beneficiary pursuant to the terms of said deed of trust. Whereof, notice hereby is given that the undersigned trustee will on 11/27/2024 at the hour of 1:00 PM, Standard of Time, as established by Section 187.110, Oregon Revised Statutes, at the main entrance to the Coos County Courthouse, 250 North Baxter Street, Coquille, OR 97423, County of Coos, State of Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the interest in the said described real property which the grantor had or had power to convey at the time of the execution by him of the said trust deed, together with any interest which the grantor or his successors in interest acquired after the execution of said trust deed, to satisfy the foregoing obligations thereby secured (and the costs and expenses of sale, including a reasonable charge by the trustee). Notice is further given that any person named in Section 86.778 of Oregon Revised Statutes; has the right to have the foreclosure proceeding dismissed and the trust deed reinstated by payment to the beneficiary of the entire amount then due (other than such portion of said principal as would not then be due had no default occurred), together with the costs, trustee's and attorney's fees and curing any other default complained of in the Notice of Default by tendering the performance required under the obligation or trust deed, at any time prior to five days before the date last set for the sale. In construing this, the masculine gender includes the feminine and the successor in interest to the grantor as well as any other person owing obligation, the performance of which is secured by said trust deed; the words "trustee" and "beneficiary" include their respective successors in interest, if any. Pursuant to Oregon Law, this sale will not be deemed final until the Trustee's deed has been issued by Prime Recon LLC. If any irregularities are discovered within 10 days of the date of this sale, the trustee will rescind the sale, return the buyer's money and take further action as necessary. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. Also, please be advised that pursuant to the terms stated on the Deed of Trust and Note, the beneficiary is allowed to conduct property inspections while there is a default. This shall serve as notice that the beneficiary shall be conducting property inspections on the referenced property. Without limiting the trustee's disclaimer of representations or warranties, Oregon law requires the trustee to state in this notice that some residential property sold at a trustee's sale may have been used in manufacturing methamphetamines, the chemical components of which are known to be toxic. Prospective purchasers of residential property should be aware of this potential danger before deciding to place a bid for this property at the trustee's sale. NOTICE TO RESIDENTIAL TENANTS The property in which you are living is in foreclosure. A foreclosure sale is scheduled for 11/27/2024 (date). The date of this sale may be postponed. Unless the lender that is foreclosing on this property is paid before the sale date, the foreclosure will go through and someone new will own this property. After the sale, the new owner is required to provide you with contact information and notice that the sale took place. The following information applies to you only if you are a bona fide tenant occupying and renting this property as a legitimate rental agreement. The information does not apply to you if you own this property or if you are not a bona fide residential tenant. If the foreclosure sale goes through, the new owner will have the right to require you to move out. Before the new owner can require you to move, the new owner must provide you with written notice that specifies the date by which you must move out. If you do not leave before the move-out date, the new owner can have the sheriff remove you from the property after a court hearing. You will receive notice of the court hearing. PROTECTION FROM EVICTION IF YOU ARE A BONA FIDE TENANT OCCUPYING AND RENTING THIS PROPERTY AS A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTINUE LIVING IN THIS PROPERTY AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE FOR: • 60 DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU ARE GIVEN A WRITTEN TERMINATION NOTICE, IF YOU HAVE A FIXED TERM LEASE; OR • AT LEAST 30 DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU ARE GIVEN A WRITTEN TERMINATION NOTICE, IF YOU HAVE A MONTH-TO-MONTH OR WEEK-TO-WEEK RENTAL AGREEMENT. If the new owner wants to move in and use this property as a primary residence, the new owner can give you written notice and require you to move out after 30 days, even though you have a fixed term lease with more than 30 days left. You must be provided with at least 30 days' written notice after the foreclosure sale before you can be required to move. A bona fide tenant is a residential tenant who is not the borrower (property owner) or a child, spouse or parent of the borrower, and whose rental agreement: • Is the result of an arm's-length transaction; • Requires the payment of rent that is not substantially less than fair market rent for the property, unless the rent is reduced or subsidized due to a federal, state or local subsidy; and • Was entered into prior to the date of the foreclosure sale. ABOUT YOUR TENANCY BETWEEN NOW AND THE FORECLOSURE SALE: RENT YOU SHOULD CONTINUE TO PAY RENT TO YOUR LANDLORD UNTIL THE PROPERTY IS SOLD OR UNTIL A COURT TELLS YOU OTHERWISE. IF YOU DO NOT PAY RENT, YOU CAN BE EVICTED. BE SURE TO KEEP PROOF OF ANY PAYMENTS YOU MAKE. SECURITY DEPOSIT You may apply your security deposit and any rent you paid in advance against the current rent you owe your landlord as provided in ORS 90.367. To do this, you must notify your landlord in writing that you want to subtract the amount of your security deposit or prepaid rent from your rent payment. You may do this only for the rent you owe your current landlord. If you do this, you must do so before the foreclosure sale. The business or individual who buys this property at the foreclosure sale is not responsible to you for any deposit or prepaid rent you paid to your landlord. ABOUT YOUR TENANCY AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE The new owner that buys this property at the foreclosure sale may be willing to allow you to stay as a tenant instead of requiring you to move out after 30 or 60 days. After the sale, you should receive a written notice informing you that the sale took place and giving you the new owner's name and contact information. You should contact the new owner if you would like to stay. If the new owner accepts rent from you, signs a new residential rental agreement with you or does not notify you in writing within 30 days after the date of the foreclosure sale that you must move out, the new owner becomes your new landlord and must maintain the property. Otherwise: • You do not owe rent; • The new owner is not your landlord and is not responsible for maintaining the property on your behalf; and • You must move out by the date the new owner specifies in a notice to you. The new owner may offer to pay your moving expenses and any other costs or amounts you and the new owner agree on in exchange for your agreement to leave the premises in less than 30 or 60 days. You should speak with a lawyer to fully understand your rights before making any decisions regarding your tenancy. IT IS UNLAWFUL FOR ANY PERSON TO TRY TO FORCE YOU TO LEAVE YOUR DWELLING UNIT WITHOUT FIRST GIVING YOU WRITTEN NOTICE AND GOING TO COURT TO EVICT YOU. FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT A LAWYER. If you believe you need legal assistance, contact the Oregon State Bar and ask for the lawyer referral service. Contact information for the Oregon State Bar is included with this notice. If you do not have enough money to pay a lawyer and are otherwise eligible, you may be able to receive legal assistance for free. Information about whom to contact for free legal assistance is included with this notice. OREGON STATE BAR, 16037 S.W. Also, please be advised that pursuant to the terms stated on the Deed of Trust and Note, the beneficiary is allowed to conduct property inspections while there is a default. This shall serve as notice that the beneficiary shall be conducting property inspections on the referenced property. Without limiting the trustee's disclaimer of representations or warranties, Oregon law requires the trustee to state in this notice that some residential property sold at a trustee's sale may have been used in manufacturing methamphetamines, the chemical components of which are known to be toxic. Prospective purchasers of residential property should be aware of this potential danger before deciding to place a bid for this property at the trustee's sale. NOTICE TO RESIDENTIAL TENANTS The property in which you are living is in foreclosure. A foreclosure sale is scheduled for 11/13/2024 (date). The date of this sale may be postponed. Unless the lender that is foreclosing on this property is paid before the sale date, the foreclosure will go through and someone new will own this property. After the sale, the new owner is required to provide you with contact information and notice that the sale took place. The following information applies to you only if you are a bona fide tenant occupying and renting this property as a residential dwelling under a legitimate rental agreement. The information does not apply to you if you own this property or if you are not a bona fide residential tenant. If the foreclosure sale goes through, the new owner will have the right to require you to move out. Before the new owner can require you to move, the new owner must provide you with written notice that specifies the date by which you must move out. If you do not leave before the move-out date, the new owner can have the sheriff remove you from the property after a court hearing. You will receive notice of the court hearing. PROTECTION

FROM EVICTION IF YOU ARE A BONA FIDE TENANT OCCUPYING AND RENTING THIS PROPERTY AS A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTINUE LIVING IN THIS PROPERTY AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE FOR: • 60 DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU ARE GIVEN A WRITTEN TERMINATION NOTICE, IF YOU HAVE A FIXED TERM LEASE; OR • AT LEAST 30 DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU ARE GIVEN A WRITTEN TERMINATION NOTICE, IF YOU HAVE A MONTH-TO-MONTH OR WEEK-TO-WEEK RENTAL AGREEMENT. If the new owner wants to move in and use this property as a primary residence, the new owner can give you written notice and require you to move out after 30 days, even though you have a fixed term lease with more than 30 days left. You must be provided with at least 30 days' written notice after the foreclosure sale before you can be required to move. A bona fide tenant is a residential tenant who is not the borrower (property owner) or a child, spouse or parent of the borrower, and whose rental agreement: • Is the result of an arm's-length transaction; • Requires the payment of rent that is not substantially less than fair market rent for the property, unless the rent is reduced or subsidized due to a federal, state or local subsidy; and • Was entered into prior to the date of the foreclosure sale. ABOUT YOUR TENANCY BETWEEN NOW AND THE FORECLOSURE SALE: RENT YOU SHOULD CONTINUE TO PAY RENT TO YOUR LANDLORD UNTIL THE PROPERTY IS SOLD OR UNTIL A COURT TELLS YOU OTHERWISE. IF YOU DO NOT PAY RENT, YOU CAN BE EVICTED. BE SURE TO KEEP PROOF OF ANY PAYMENTS YOU MAKE. SECURITY DEPOSIT You may apply your security deposit and any rent you paid in advance against the current rent you owe your landlord as provided in ORS 90.367. To do this, you must notify your landlord in writing that you want to subtract the amount of your security deposit or prepaid rent from your rent payment. You may do this only for the rent you owe your current landlord. If you do this, you must do so before the foreclosure sale. The business or individual who buys this property at the foreclosure sale is not responsible to you for any deposit or prepaid rent you paid to your landlord. ABOUT YOUR TENANCY AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE The new owner that buys this property at the foreclosure sale may be willing to allow you to stay as a tenant instead of requiring you to move out after 30 or 60 days. After the sale, you should receive a written notice informing you that the sale took place and giving you the new owner's name and contact information. You should contact the new owner if you would like to stay. If the new owner accepts rent

from you, signs a new residential rental agreement with you or does not notify you in writing within 30 days after the date of the foreclosure sale that you must move out, the new owner becomes your new landlord and must maintain the property. Otherwise: • You do not owe rent; • The new owner is not your landlord and is not responsible for maintaining the property on your behalf; • You must move out by the date the new owner specifies in a notice to you. The new owner may offer to pay your moving expenses and any other costs or amounts you and the new owner agree on in exchange for your agreement to leave the premises in less than 30 or 60 days. You should speak with a lawyer to fully understand your rights before making any decisions regarding your tenancy. IT IS UNLAWFUL FOR ANY PERSON TO TRY TO FORCE YOU TO LEAVE YOUR DWELLING UNIT WITHOUT FIRST GIVING YOU WRITTEN NOTICE AND GOING TO COURT TO EVICT YOU. FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT A LAWYER. If you believe you need legal assistance, contact the Oregon State Bar and ask for the lawyer referral service. Apprentice makes it impossible for firefighters to enter the building to fight a fire until another department arrives.

“They are going to do the best that they can to slow that fire down, but they still have to wait to make entry unless someone is inside,” Taylor expanded during the meeting. The OSHA regulation has a stipulation that they can supersede this rule if a life is known to be within the structure.

This new program can help alleviate this problem with adding more firefighters to Coos Bay. The Oregon Firefighter Apprenticeship Program has been running in Clackamas, Jackson County, Klamath Falls, and The Dalles and has just recently expanded to Corvallis, Coos Bay and Umatilla County.

The primary purpose of this program is to establish training sites for firefighter apprentices in Oregon to relieve the shortage of trained firefighters and EMT’s. The apprenticeship program also allows for those choosing a career in the fire service another option. It presents the potential for them to be recruited as an unskilled, entry level worker, that can gain skills and nationally recognized credentials while being able to provide for their families. This opens up the opportunity for those that may not have otherwise been able to do so.

In addition to offering a new, low-barrier entry point into the fire service, the apprentice program will provide major benefits to the fire department and the community. By adding two additional trained firefighters to the daily staffing pool, the fire department will be closer to meeting industry standard staffing levels of four personnel per engine. The grant funding will pay for wages, benefits, and training for the apprentices, as well as uniforms and equipment needed on the job.

The proposed apprentice program is funded for two years, after which the apprentices will gain their journey-level firefighter status that will make them strong candidates for full time employment at any fire department or fire district in the state.

Currently there is no funds to continue to employ these apprentices after they finish their two-year program, the goal of the Coos Bay fire department is to try and retain at least three through other means to help continue to see the fire department be better staffed to support the local need. “I don’t know if we can collect every pop can we can to make it happen,” insisted Taylor, “but we are willing to try.”

Coos Bay Mayor Joe Benetti agreed with Taylors sentiment that it’s important to try to increase current numbers of firefighters in Coos Bay, “I would be willing to go out and collect cans also.” The council voted unanimously to approve the grant for the program.

OBITUARIES

Mark Charles Santos

May 27, 1987- August 12, 2024

Mark Santos was born May 27, 1987 in San Jose, California to Dennis and Carla Santos.

He grew up the majority in North Bend, Oregon. His childhood was filled with joy and adventure as he explored his neighborhood on his bike, played basketball, super Nintendo and spent time with his family. He has always had a love for animals. When kittens would be in the neighborhood, he would always feed and pet them. He always took his childhood dog on fun adventures too.

A proud Bearcat, Bullpup, and Bulldog, Mark excelled academically and was on the honor roll many times throughout his time in school; sometimes even with a 4.0. He was an active participant in various sports and activities such as playing saxophone in the school jazz band, playing football, wrestling and youth group. Mark played his saxophone during concerts, parades and other community activities. Mark was always strong and loved being on the football team with his friends. He loved representing his school and always felt that it was a great day to be a bulldog.

Mark’s warmth and humor made him a beloved figure among peers throughout his life. His ability to tell captivating stories, a talent inherited from his father, brought joy to those around him. Mark worked alongside his father in the family business, Jump 4 Fun, from his teenage years until recently. He also pursued other roles, including mechanic, retail and sales worker, and cook. He loved to cook in the restaurants as well as at home and enjoyed trying out new recipes. As a mechanic, Mark was known for his generosity and willingness to help others, always ready to lend a hand with car troubles. His curiosity and knack for tinkering began early, reflecting a lifelong love of taking things apart and putting them back together. He met many new people while doing these jobs and made many new friends as he knew no stranger. Everybody loved him.

Exploring the woods was one of his favorite pastimes. He enjoyed being outdoors more than anything else. He loved talking with friends around a fire, hunting, swimming, panning for gold with his dad, camping and cooking on an open fire, off-road adventures or just sitting and enjoying the day. His life may have been cut short but his unwavering spirit, his kind heart and the joy he brought into the lives of those around him will be remembered and cherished forever.

Mark Charles Santos is survived by his loving mother, Carla Santos; his sister, Lori McCasland and brother-in-law, Arron McCasland; his brother, Aaron Lyon; his nephew, Owen Humbert; and his nieces, Maddison and Kora McCasland. Mark also leaves behind a wide circle of aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends who were like family to him. Mark was a cherished son, brother, nephew, uncle and friend. He will be missed deeply by his family and friends.

A duo-celebration of life for him and his father will be held on a later date.

Priscilla “Pati” Joanne (Kellner) deRonden-Pos

November 19, 1939 - August 14, 2024

A Funeral Mass for Priscilla “Pati” Joanne (Kellner) deRonden-Pos, 84, of Coos Bay, was held at 11am, Tuesday, August 20 at Saint Monica Catholic Church, 357 S. 6th Street, officiated by Rev. Rick LeFaivre. A reception followed in the Parish Hall.

Priscilla was born November 19, 1939 in Minneapolis, MN to Joseph Richard “Dick” Kellner and Helen Henrietta Hengel. She died August 14, 2024 in Coos Bay, from complications of dementia.

Pati grew up in the San Francisco area, graduating from Lowell High School in 1956. She did secretarial work at Metropolitan Life Insurance company in SF and enjoyed an active social life, including joining a bowling league, where she met the brother of a co-worker. She married that handsome fisherman, Lionel deRonden-Pos, on July 2, 1960 and they had 3 children over the next 5 years. Pati was a devoted wife for 42 years, and a loving mother and grandmother. She had a passion for volunteering and being involved in a variety of groups and clubs. She was very social and outgoing, and loved her various groups of “lunching lady-friends.”

After converting to Catholicism in the early 1970s, Pati remained a devout Catholic, and participated in many areas of the church, from teaching CCD, to serving on the Altar Society of Holy Redeemer for many years. While living on their family farm in Sumner, she became involved with Coos Co. Home Extension, and cherished her many years of friendships in the Sumner Sunbeams. She was also a member of Rivermen’s Club, and We Are Concerned / Hospice, and volunteered for Bay Area Hospital Auxiliary.

She was a skilled farmwife and gardener. She grew and processed acres of produce and learned to be self-sufficient. She was a wonderful cook and homemaker. She loved to read and must have been the library’s best customer. She never drank coffee; she loved herbal tea with honey and drank it by the gallons.

Her greatest joy in life was being a grandmother and she treasured her 3 grandchildren. She was able to spend time with each of them as youngsters, and forged deep connections that will last their lifetimes.

Pati will be remembered as a humble servant of God, a nurturing mother, and a kind, caring, and supportive friend, always ready to help with a smile, a hug, and some words of encouragement.

She is survived by her ex-husband, Lionel deRonden-Pos of CB; her children, Henry Mathew of Newport, OR, Ronald John of CB, and Rosemarie Lynne Sawyer of Olympia, WA; grandchildren, Kyle John deRonden-Pos of Sammamish, WA, Jesikah Ann Liday of Pleasant Hill, OR and Jack Henry Sawyer of Olympia, WA; great-grandchildren, Ryland, Reagan, Madelyn and Silas Liday of Pleasant Hill.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Joseph Richard Kellner in 2011.

Loreda “Rita” F. Yandell

February 2, 1933 - August 17, 2024

Loreda “Rita” Yandell, of Coos Bay, Oregon, went to meet Lord Jesus August 17, 2024. Rita was 91 years old and passed away peacefully at the Dallas Retirement Village after a wonderful day surrounded by her loved ones. Rita is survived by her daughter, Cindy (Casey) Matthews; her son, Lon (Jamie) Yandell; her son-in-law, Mike Main; her brother, Ray Harris, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great, great-grandchildren. Rita was preceded in death by her husband, Argus Yandell; daughters, Sharon Main and Bonnie Yandell; her parents and six of her siblings. Rita was loved by all and touched the lives of all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Rita was born February 2, 1933, in Altus, Arkansas, as one of eight children. When she was 14 years old, she met the love of her life, Argus Yandell, and they were married on October 23, 1947, in Hunt, Arkansas by Argus’ father, a Presbyterian preacher. Times were tough in Arkansas in 1948, so they packed up and moved to Coos Bay, Oregon to work in the timber industry and start a family. At first, they lived in a tent as Coos Bay was booming so there was an extreme housing shortage. But eventually they bought a home in Bunker Hill where they lived out most of their lives and raised their family. Their marriage was the kind that dreams are made of and they lived blissfully together until Argus’ death in 2014. After Argus passed Rita sold the long-time family home and moved to Monmouth, Oregon to live with her daughter Cindy and her husband Casey. She received incredible love, care, and support from Cindy, Lon, and especially her son-in-law Casey until she fell and broke her hip earlier this year. Following her fall Rita needed extra care so she had to move to Dallas Retirement Village assisted living where she would spend her final days entertaining family members, playing word games, watching Jeopardy! and playing bingo. Although nearly blind from macular degeneration, she never let that stop her and carried on with life as best she could. Rita was always a determined fighter who never gave up.

Rita was fortunate that she did not have to work unless she wanted to. She spent her time sewing, raising the kids, teaching Sunday school, bowling, gardening, and taking care of Argus. But she did end up working at several jobs including Anita’s and The Hub where she worked in the yardage department and became a prolific seamstress. Rita was a fabulous mother, and her family was her life. One of the biggest highlights for Rita was the family’s annual trips from Coos Bay to Arkansas to see her mom and dad and the rest of her family. These annual Arkansas trips were epic and remain some of the family’s most cherished memories.

Rita had a deep faith in God and, along with her husband Argus, dedicated much of their lives to their church family at First Baptist Church, Coos Bay where she was a member for sixty-five years. Besides her deep faith, Rita was known for many things especially her dedication to her family, her love of laughter, her constant sewing and quilting, and her incredible variety of phobias. She will be missed by all who knew her, but her legacy will never die. Rita was truly a special woman, and all her unique personality quirks have cemented her reputation as one of a kind. She will be forever loved by her family which is all she ever wanted in life.

Coos County continuing to work on sobering center

By DEAN BRICKEY
For The World

COQUILLE — Coos County is continuing its work toward establishing a sobering center at the county jail in Coquille.

At their meeting July 16, County Commissioners approved a $400,000 grant agreement with the Oregon Department of Administrative Services and authorized Mike Rowley, director of Coos Health & Wellness (CHW), to sign it. In information provided to the commissioners, Rowley said the Oregon Legislature allotted the money to CHW during its last session. He said CHW would work out a contract with Adapt Integrated Health Care, which would develop and operate the sobering center. Adapt runs a similar facility in Roseburg.

David Geels, CHW behavioral health director, told commissioners the county plans to put the sobering center in the former juvenile holding space in the jail, but records need to be cleared out to make room for it.

“Development costs are quite minimal,” Geels said in an interview later, adding that most of the grant funds would be used for initial operational costs. “One of the issues is getting the space ready.”

Jerry O’Sullivan of Adapt in Douglas County said Coos County has several funding sources for operations.

“This is the final piece financially we need to move forward with this,” O’Sullivan said.

Coos County commissioners unanimously approved the project Jan. 24, agreeing to contribute $300,000 for the first year of operation and $250,000 annually for the next four years, to go with an annual contribution from Coos Bay. That city is considering a $50,000 annual contribution, said Nichole Rutherford, city manager, earlier this year. She noted that none of the other cities in the county receive opioid settlement funds because they are smaller than 10,000 population.

Megan Simms, county treasurer/finance director, said earlier this year the county’s opioid settlement fund contains about $434,000 and she expects the county to receive another $300,000 annually. It is from that source the county would finance the sobering center.

O’Sullivan said he is unaware of the county’s timeline for clearing the jail space to accommodate the sobering center but Adapt would begin recruiting staff once it knows when the space would be available.

“We’re dependent on that piece being determined,” he said.

Coos County Sheriff Gabriel “Gabe” Fabrizio said the Sheriff’s Office for a long time has stored evidence in the space designated for the sobering center. He’s hoping some of the startup money the legislature has allotted could be used to create a space for the evidence, which must be secured.

“There are eight different rooms,” Fabrizio said of the former juvenile holding space, adding, “It already has cameras in there.”

The sheriff said he has a lot on his plate, especially with the budget concerns his office is facing, but he hopes his staff could identify new space for an evidence locker soon and move the stored material before the end of the year.

Moving and securing the evidence as soon as possible and preparing the former juvenile detention area for the sobering center “and getting that whole area fixed up for them,” Fabrizio said is “definitely one of my top priorities.”

Rod Taylor, county commission chair, said the proposed sobering center is “an important piece in the law enforcement puzzle. This is going to be a very good asset for the county at large.”

Sportsman Association (BASA) helped reimburse $2000 of the emergency repairs necessary in getting the California Street Boat ramp back in the water just in time for upcoming salmon season.

The boat ramp had been closed since May after considerable damage was found during maintenance. The city had also been awarded a $30,000 grant from the Oregon State Marine Board (OSMB) to help with the repairs. The OSMB had stated the funds and repairs were necessary before the upcoming salmon season which impacts the local economy each year.

Funds of $75,000 was also approved by the North Bend Urban Renewal Agency which owns the land the California Street Boat ramp is on. The emergency repairs included welding cracks, holes and items identified by OSMB of unsafe to the public.

The California Street Boat ramp is now open for fisherman.

Civil War class offers the community a chance to learn history

By BECKY GIGER
News Editor

The American Civil War took place a long way from the shores of the Oregon coast, but that does not stop the curiosity of our history to tempt locals to learn more about the war that helped shape the country we see today.

“My ancestors sent six sons to the civil war. One was conscripted and fought at the battle of Chickamauga,” John Hartman has a love for history and specifically the stories from the Civil War.

Beginning this fall at Southwestern Oregon Community College instructor John Hartman returns with his course on the civil war. A popular community class since he began teaching it in 2010 it still draws students to uncover the stories of the war. “The wonderful thing is no experience with the civil war is needed for this course,” Hartman explained.

The class begins on September 17th at 7pm with the first class focusing on The Stars and Stripes, Colonel Alfred W. Taylor and Ely Parker. The Stars and Stripes was a military newspaper published during the civil war with daily distribution. It was brought back during World War I has a weekly paper to let readers know about the war over seas.

Each class begins with a PowerPoint presentation with the topic of the evening, Professor Hartman leads these presentations in full period garb. “Some nights I am a union Sergeant, some nights I am a confederate soldier and some nights a civilian farmer.” After the presentation, the class will take a brief break. The class is brought back by Hartman playing his bugle. He will then read real letters written by soldiers during the civil war, each night features a different letter.

The class has many return students, and many have connections to the war.

“I had one student that was related to Dorance Atwater who was incarcerated in the Andersonville confederate prison.” Atwater was known for creating the Anderson Death registry while he was imprisoned there. He secretly made a list of fellow prisoners and those that had died or were missing. Later it would help identify the graves of unknown soldiers.

John Hartman is no stranger to teaching as he retired from the North Bend

School district after working as the instrumental music director. Hartman’s love of the civil war began after he retired with his curiosity of his own family’s history in the war, and this began his own involvement in local civil war enactments. He played many roles within the enactments beginning with taking on the role of a war correspondent and his most recent role as a union soldier bugler. The enactments are held four times throughout Oregon the most recent being in Brooks, Oregon.

Many community classes are offered at the Southwestern Oregon Community College for residents to learn new things, explore interests or to keep up with fitness. If you want more information on John Hartman’s class or any of the topics offered by the college, go to their website <https://www.socc.edu/programs-classes/community-classes> to sign up.

Judith Ann Mogan Foundation welcomes Holly Chandler as Grants Administrator

Coos Bay – July 11, 2024 – Judith Ann Mogan Foundation (JAMF) is pleased to announce the addition of Holly Chandler as Grants Administrator. She comes highly qualified to work with the nonprofit sector in our area, having served with several organizations and committees over the years. A few of Holly’s extensive volunteer work include the Bay Area Sportsman’s Association, Marshfield Hall of Fame, 3A Basketball Tournament, Coos Bay Schools Community Foundation, and the Al and Hilda Peirce Scholarship Fund.

Marjorie Crook, JAMF Executive Director shared, “The Grants Administrator is a key position in our organization. Holly will be a valuable resource not only to the Foundation, but to the nonprofits in the area. Born and raised in Coos Bay, she and husband Will are raising two sons here and the whole family is very involved in serving and giving back to our
