Bandon By the Sea & Sinking

@bandonsinking

@BandonSinking

Let's consider communication for a moment. On Friday, January 21, 2022, at approx. 3:15, the power went out in the southwest of town. People in other parts of town did not lose power. I did. I called the City Hall and received a no one is here message. I hit 5 and was looped back to the same message; same with hitting 4. I called the County Sheriff's dispatcher and was told that several people from my area had called about this and that she was communicating with someone in Bandon to solve the problem. It seems that a person's experience depended upon when the call was made and where in town the person lives. My experience was not a lie just because it wasn't your experience.

What is happening in Planning? When did the City Council designate CM Chandler as the Planning Director and Hearings Officer? Isn't this a violation of the Bandon Municipal Code? The Planning Commission elects the Hearings Officer, it is not a choice the CM gets to make. Corruption? When did the Commission give away their power? Hold yourselves to your oaths of office, Planning Commission. Do you realize that you are responsible for the decisions of the Hearings Officer? When will the Planning Commission meetings get off of Zoom so we can see what they are doing? When will the city try to eliminate the R1 and R2 zones and advocate multi-family dwellings almost anywhere in Bandon? The state legislature is struggling with the elimination of single family dwellings and should consider the probability of unintended consequences. Perhaps Bandon should have a real, open town meeting about major zoning changes. A Measure 56 notice is required here; a real land use attorney would know this. Or is the council going to leave this work up to the "Planning Director" with the sporadic job attendance? Is the talk circulating around Bandon, especially on Beach Loop, true? Is the "Planning Director" going to change the height ordinance so people on the west side of Beach Loop can build up to 35' high? Maybe CM Chandler can put some real information in his monthly, low- on-facts, newsletter? Maybe he should avoid looking like he makes up his own questions and provides answers with no true factual base and can answer some of ours instead?

Our Comprehensive Plan states that we shall have at least one town hall meeting per year. We need one. The Barn is right there, ready for one. Maybe the council and mayor could address our concerns and not just ask us for more money. Oh, and this time, no police bouncers. Let the people speak and if the governing body doesn't want to or can't address our concerns, let's have our own town hall meeting. Isn't the Barn a public building? It appears that we need new leadership in Bandon. This is an election year. Do you really believe that Mayor Mary Schamehorn, Councilors Vic, Procetto, Seymour, Smith, Braun, and Powell, have Bandon's best interests at heart?

Don't Re-Elect, Recall
Let's elect people who will help all of us steer Bandon
