North Bend Addresses Error on Property Tax Statements Relating to Urban Renewal

FROM THE CITY OF NORTH BEND

Recently mailed Coos County property tax statements (mailed October 15, 2025) to property owners in the incorporated limits of North Bend show an Urban Renewal amount for the North Bend Urban Renewal Agency. This is incorrect for this year.

What happened

NBURA chose not to collect Urban Renewal funds this year and filed the correct paperwork ("under-levy") with Coos County.

A County processing error caused North Bend statements to display Urban Renewal dollars anyway.

What the County is doing

The Coos County Assessor's Office is working with its software provider to reverse the Urban Renewal entries.

Corrected statements will be printed and mailed to impacted taxpayers.

The County will share more details in its own press release.

What taxpayers should do now

No action is needed right now. Please watch for a corrected statement in the mail.

If you already paid, the County will include guidance with your correction notice.

This does not change the amount needed to be paid by taxpayers, just where those dollars are allocated in terms of the various taxing districts.

City Coordination

The City of North Bend and NBURA followed the required process and did not intend to collect Urban Renewal increment this year. We are coordinating with Coos County to ensure statements are accurate and that taxpayers receive clear information.

We appreciate the public's patience while the County completes these corrections.

Nationwide 'No Kings' Protests Take Place in Coos County, A Focus on the Numbers

By NATE SCHWARTZ

Regardless of where you were in the country on Saturday October 18, odds are that only a stone's throw away was a 'No Kings' protest. The mass-demonstrations against the second Trump administration swept the country with nationwide organizers estimating that over 2600 official protests had been planned across every state. In the aftermath, it was estimated that somewhere between 6 and 7 million people had their voices heard throughout the USA.

This was no different right here in Coos County, where Coos County Democrats estimated that over 1200 people showed up to demonstrate on the Coos Bay Boardwalk alongside Highway 101. A further 600 plus were reported in Bandon. While concerns over the administration's treatment of the media, violations of the constitution, suppression of the Epstein documents, and use of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) as a paramilitary force have led the discourse, let's focus on the numbers.

Regardless of which side of the aisle you reside on, the current administration has made numerous decisions that will have substantial effects on the South Coast. According to the bi-partisan Congressional Budget Office (CBO), Trump budget cuts will see a gross reduction in federal Medicaid and CHIP funding of $990 billion over the next decade. Estimates from studies out of Georgetown University's McCourt School of Public Policy say that will equate to over 10 million people losing their

Oregon prepares for federal changes to SNAP

JEREMY C. RUARK
Country Media Inc.

The Oregon Department of Human Services (ODHS) is announcing federally required changes to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) in Oregon.

These changes are required under House Resolution (H.R. 1), a federal law passed on July 4, 2025, according to a release from the ODHS.

More than 740,000 people in Oregon currently receive SNAP benefits, and ODHS expects more than 313,000 people enrolled in SNAP may be impacted by the H.R. 1 changes.

"We are announcing these changes today so that families can prepare for the impact we expect many Oregonians who depend on this resource will feel," ODHS Federal Response team Co-Leader Dana Hittle said. "Oregon families enrolled in SNAP receive an average of $300 a month, and any reduction makes it harder for families to put food on the table. Oregon has no choice but to follow federal law that will result in increased hardship across our communities, but we remain committed to helping families adjust and prepare."

Hittle said ODHS will begin notifying affected households in mid-October. The people who will be most affected by the new federal law include older adults, immigrants and people living in rural communities with limited access to transportation.

Oregon Gov. Tina Kotek has released the following statement about the SNAP changes.

"The federal cuts to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) are simply wrong, and they will hurt Oregon families," Kotek stated. "I strongly oppose these changes. Our top priority now is making sure every impacted Oregonian knows what's changing and where to turn for help. No one should have to choose between food and rent, and my administration is mobilizing to ensure that those affected get the information and referrals for other help that they need."

The changes won't happen to everyone at once — they will roll out over the next year, according to the ODHS.

For people who already get SNAP: The changes will affect those who applied or recertified between July 4 and Oct. 1, 2025. Notices will be sent around Oct. 15, 2025 to this first group of people who are impacted. The first group will have SNAP benefit reductions or closures on Nov. 1, 2025.

For people approved for SNAP before July 4, 2025, the changes will happen over time throughout the next year and a notice will be sent.

For people who apply or reapply for SNAP after Oct. 1, 2025: The new rules will apply right away.

KEY CHANGES

The changes will affect three main groups of SNAP recipients: households receiving utility assistance, able-bodied adults ages 18 through 64 with no child under age 14 in their SNAP group, and certain lawfully present immigrants.

Utility assistance and SNAP benefits

- Households previously eligible for the Heating and Cooling Full Utility Allowance (FUA) through energy assistance programs like Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) or "Heat and Eat" will see changes.
- Only households with at least one member who is age 60 or older or a member with a disability will automatically qualify for FUA.
- Approximately 29,000 households will lose this allowance, reducing their SNAP benefits by an average of $58 per month.
- About 9,600 households who applied or renewed between July 4 and Oct. 1, 2025 will get notices around Oct. 15, 2025. Their SNAP will be reduced Nov. 1, 2025.
- Another 20,000 households will see benefits go down when their SNAP is reviewed.

Able-Bodied Adults Without Dependents (ABAWD)

- Beginning Oct 1, 2025, people with ABAWD status in 6 counties (Multnomah, Washington, Clackamas, Yamhill, Benton, and Hood River) will be reviewed at application or renewal for required work rules.
- People who don't meet work rules may lose SNAP benefits after 3 months.
- The work rules will apply to adults ages 18–64 without a disability or without children under age 14 in their SNAP household. Previously the work rules applied to adults ages 18 to 54 without a child under 18 in their SNAP household.
- People with ABAWD status must work or participate in a qualifying activity for at least 80 hours per month.
- Veterans, people experiencing homelessness and young adults aging out of foster care are no longer exempt from the work rules.
- Tribal Members and people who meet the federal definition of "Indian, Urban Indian, or California Indian" are newly exempt from the work rules.
- In January 2026 these ABAWD requirements will be implemented statewide.
- It's estimated that 310,000 adults will have to be newly evaluated to see if they have to meet the work rules.

Refugees, Asylees and certain other lawfully present immigrants

- Refugees, asylees, trafficking survivors and other condi-

The spookiest time of the year is upon us once more as our attention turns to jack-o’-lanterns, black cats and things that go bump in the night.

It was also the time when the widow of one of the most famous entertainers of the 20th century tried to communicate with the departed. Here’s how it happened.

Wilhemina Beatrice Rahner — called Bess by her friends — was in a song-and-dance act on New York’s Coney Island in the 1890s. She started dating a fellow performer, a young magician. She quickly fell in love with his big brother, Harry Weiss. He took notice of her, too.

Like his kid brother, Harry was also a magician and an escape artist. He felt “Weiss” lacked panache, so he changed his last name to Houdini — a tribute to earlier pioneering French magician Jean Eugène Robert-Houdini.

At first, Bess joined him as a magician’s assistant. His feats improved, audiences grew bigger, and by the early 1900s he had developed the stage illusion that put him on the map: escaping from a locked box.

Known for his ability to wriggle out of handcuffs, he added feats of daring, such as escaping from them while hanging upside-down, sometimes even suspended from skyscrapers.

He had perfected his act just in time for the Roaring ’20s, when gimmicks were all the rage. Silliness was in style. There were flagpole sitters, goldfish swallowers, dance marathon contests and more.

And Harry Houdini was one of the biggest stars of the era. Until fate had a trick of its own for him.

During a break between shows in Montreal, a college student visiting Houdini’s dressing room asked if it was true that the magician could withstand any punch in the gut. Houdini said it was. Without warning, the young man repeatedly delivered powerful blows to the star’s abdomen.

Houdini’s appendix was seriously injured. True to the entertainer’s maxim that the show must go on, he kept performing until he eventually collapsed. He was rushed to a hospital and died one week later, on Halloween Day 1926.

Bess was devastated. Theirs was a genuine love story, but she held out hope of hearing from him in the hereafter.

Years before, the couple had agreed that after one of them died, they would try to contact the other. They even established an elaborate ritual to confirm their identity, complete with secret code words known only to them to guard against fraudsters. Harry was supposed to signal “Rosabelle,” a song Bess had sung in her early days on stage.

Over the years, she attended multiple séances on Halloween night, trying to reach Harry. Nothing.

In the early 1930s, she took up with Edward Saint, a former carnival showman who partnered with her to keep Houdini’s legacy alive. Although they lived together, she was careful not to remarry and thus lose the right to call herself “Mrs. Harry Houdini.”

Finally, as Halloween 1936 approached, they decided to not only end the annual ritual but to go out with a bang. It was the 10th anniversary of Harry’s passing, and they turned it into a media spectacle.

They billed it as “The Final Houdini Séance” and staged it on the rooftop of the Knickerbocker Hotel in — where else? — Hollywood. The iconic “Hollywoodland” hilltop sign appeared in the distance. (The “land” wouldn’t be dropped until 1949.)

Carried live on the radio, attendance was by invitation only, with the ceremony starting promptly at 8 p.m. Bess sat in a giant throne-like chair in front of a table that held Harry’s photo and a candle she claimed had been burning since his 1926 passing. A pair of locked handcuffs — his trademark — rested on a silk pillow.

“The zero hour of the 10th anniversary of our departed friend is fast nearing the end,” Saint intoned melodramatically.

He then launched into a 10-minute, appropriately eloquent diatribe that ended with this flourish: “We have waited, Houdini, oh so long ... now is the night of nights; SPEAK, HARRY!”

At that point, a recording of “Pomp and Circumstance,” the same tune Houdini had used for his stage entrance, was played. The audience waited.

And waited. And waited.

Finally, Bess announced, “My last hope is gone. ... I do not believe Houdini can come back to me. ... I do not believe that ghosts or spirits exist. The Houdini shrine has burned for 10 years.

J. Mark Powell

I now reverently put it out.” She blew out the candle flame and concluded with a simple, “It is finished. Good night, Harry.”

And that was that.

Asked before her own death in 1943 why she had stopped holding the séances, her answer was straight to the point: “Ten years is long enough to wait for any man.”

Letter to the Editor

“I’m from the government and I’m here to help.” At one time, Ronald Reagan said that these were the most terrifying words in the English language. For many years, this was the mindset of the Republican Party, but I’m not so sure anymore. Those among us who once felt threatened by government overreach are now the ones who are reaching out for the government.

Anyone who is encouraging ICE agents, and deploying National Guard troops are specifically asking for the government to come and help. Citizens who are upset that their SNAP benefits might expire due to the government shut down are asking for the government’s help. Voters who expect their states to run their elections freely are now starting to see that the federal government is trying to step in and take over a process that constitutionally has always been left to the states.

Perhaps collectively, we have lost that fear of government overreach.

Volleyball teams to host playoff matches

Coquille capped a perfect Far West League season with a pair of home wins last week and will be home Saturday in the state playoffs.

If the Red Devils beat Salem Academy, they will advance to the Class 3A state tournament at Marshfield High School for the second straight year.

Coquille beat Sutherlin 25-18, 25-19, 25-15 and topped South Umpqua 18-25, 26-24, 25-17, 25-19 to finish 10-0 in league play.

The Red Devils are the No. 7 seed for the playoffs. If they win, their most likely opponent would be No. 2 seed Westside Christian. The top seed is defending champion Valley Catholic.

Douglas, the Far West League runner-up, also will be home Saturday, facing Catlin Gabel. The Trojans are the No. 8 seed.

The playoffs start Wednesday, with four first-round games. The winners of those matches advance to face the top four seeds — Burns is the No. 3 seed and Sisters the No. 4 seed. Dayton is seeded fifth and Cascade Christian sixth.

SUNSET CONFERENCE:

Myrtle Point followed its regular season title in the Sunset Conference by winning the league tournament on its home court, topping Bandon 25-13, 26-24, 25-13. Bandon will be the league's second representative to the Class 2A state playoffs.

Both teams will learn their opponents for their Saturday playoff matches when the brackets are released Tuesday night. Myrtle Point will be at home and Bandon on the road. Winners of the first-round playoff matches advance to the state tournament, which this fall moved to La Grande.

The Bobcats swept Reedsport 25-13, 25-12, 25-16 earlier in the week to cap a perfect league season.

Gold Beach had finished second and Bandon third in the league standings after both won their final league matches last week. Gold Beach won both matches against the Tigers in league play, but Bandon won the Saturday match that mattered most, beating the Panthers 25-22, 25-20, 25-17.

SKYLINE LEAGUE:

Powers will travel to Triangle Lake in the first round of the Class 1A playoffs Wednesday after the Cruisers finished fourth in the Skyline League tournament on Saturday.

Powers put up a great fight against regular-season champion Umpqua Valley Christian in the semifinals, but fell 25-22, 25-22, 25-23. In the third-place match, Powers fell to Elkton 25-19, 18-25, 25-23, 25-18.

Umpqua Valley Christian swept North Douglas to take the tournament title.

The Cruisers beat Glendale 26-24, 25-11, 25-13 in the league playoffs to advance to the league tournament.

If Powers beats Triangle Lake, the Cruisers most likely would face No. 3 seed Central Christian of Redmond, which hosts Willamette Valley Christian on Wednesday. Whoever wins the second-round match Saturday advances to the state tournament in La Grande. Powers and Triangle Lake met in a nonleague match on Oct. 11, with the Cruisers winning in five sets.

SKY-EM LEAGUE:

Marshfield finished league play tied for second place with Cottage Grove after beating Junction City 25-13, 25-17, 25-22 in the league finale.

The Pirates, who are third in the power rankings behind Marist Catholic and Cascade, will be home in the Class 4A playoffs on Saturday, though the opponent won't be known until the brackets are released by OSAA on Tuesday night. The winner of the playoff match advances to the state tournament at North Bend High School.

North Bend lost its season finale to league champion Marist Catholic 25-17, 25-15, 25-17 and finished winless in league.

Cross country district meets are this week

The South Coast's cross country teams will be eyeing berths in the state championships when they compete in their district meets this week.

Marshfield and North Bend will compete in the Sky-Em League's district meet on Thursday at Lane Community College.

Marshfield's Jaxson Stovall and North Bend's Ellie Massey are among the favorites for the individual titles and Marshfield's boys and North Bend's girls are hoping for team berths, which go to the top two squads. The top seven individuals also qualify for state and North Bend's Addison Horning and Lauren Wolfe and Marshfield's Bella Cox have hopes of qualifying as individuals on the girls side while North Bend's Angelo Pedrini and Marshfield's Charlie Hatch could qualify as boys.

Cottage Grove is favored to sweep the team titles.

The girls race at noon, followed by the boys at 12:45.

The rest of the South Coast schools will be competing the same day in the Class 3A-2A-1A District 4 championships at Valley of the Rogue State Park near Rogue River.

The Class 3A boys race at 1:30 p.m., followed by the Class 3A-2A-1A girls at 2:15 and the Class 2A-1A boys at 3 p.m.

Bandon's boys are heavily favored in the 2A-1A race, led by Beckett Pahls, with Sawyer Miller, Noah Brown and Jonah Brown also favored to finish in the top seven. Myrtle Point's Eli Nicholson also could qualify as an individual.

Coquille's Ella Henthorn is the girls favorite and Bandon's Jael Legutki and Gold Beach's Coco Plaep have a good shot at finishing in the top seven.

Bandon also could challenge

Siuslaw for the team title while Glide, Pleasant Hill, St. Mary's and Coquille will be battling for the league's third team berth for state.

Siuslaw is favored in the Class 3A boys race, led by individual favorite Henry Stone.

Several area teams had their final tuneup competition in the Umpqua Open in Roseburg last week.

On the girls side, Henthorn finished second behind North Eugene standout Cricket Phipps, who was timed in 18:18 to Henthorn's 18:35. Massey was third (19:02), Horning fifth (19:16) and Legutki seventh (19:32). Wolfe finished 13th (20:22) to help the Bulldogs to third place behind Thurston and Springfield. Bandon was sixth and Coquille eighth.

Bandon had three of the top 20 in the boys race, with Pahls 14th (16:29), Miller 18th (16:54) and Noah Brown 20th (17:07). Pedrini was 15th for North Bend (16:46) in the race won by defending Class 6A state champion Malachi Schoenherr of Sheldon (15:00).

Bandon was third in the team race behind Sheldon and South Medford.

Henley beats Pirates in football

Marshfield's football team suffered its first loss Friday, falling at Henley 21-6.

Hadyn Widdicombe had an 8-yard touchdown run almost nine minutes into the second quarter for the first score, but the Pirates failed to convert the ensuing two-point attempt.

But Marshfield wasn't able to capitalize on a few other trips deep into Henley territory, including one that ended at the 2-yard line late in the third quarter with the Hornets leading 7-6.

Jeremiah Brunick scored for the Hornets late in the second quarter and Henley quarterback Joe Janney had two touchdown runs in the fourth quarter as the Hornets pulled away.

Marshfield still is headed to the Class 4A playoffs and likely will be at home with its high power ranking.

Marshfield finishes the regular season at crosstown rival North Bend this Friday.

NORTH BEND 20, HIDDEN VALLEY 12:

The Bulldogs punched their ticket to the playoffs and improved to 3-1 in league play with their homecoming win.

North Bend, now 4-4, will be in the playoffs regardless of the outcome against Marshfield this week.

BANDON 29, GOLD BEACH 26:

The Tigers survived their toughest test of the season to keep their record perfect.

Bandon improved to 7-0 overall and 3-0 in league play heading into one last game at home against Oakland on Friday.

The Tigers clinched at least a tie for the league title, though Oakland could force a three-way tie by beating the Tigers. Gold Beach fell to 0-3 in league play.

MYRTLE POINT 41, OAKLAND 0:

The Bobcats bounced back from a loss to Bandon a week earlier to wrap up league play with a shutout over the Oakers, who suffered their first league loss.

Myrtle Point finished 3-1 in league and will be at Gervais in a nonleague game this week.

SUTHERLIN 44, COQUILLE 42:

The Bulldogs edged the host Red Devils, handing Coquille its second straight league loss.

Both teams are 2-2 in league with one game remaining. The Red Devils visit league-leading Siuslaw on Friday night.

POWERS 38, GILCHRIST 12:

The Cruisers bounced back from a league loss to Elkton with the win at Gilchrist on Saturday. The Cruisers, now 4-1 in league play, finish the regular season at home against Crow on Friday needing a win to guarantee second place outright in the final standings. A loss could result in a three-way tie for second place with Crow and North Lake, a team Powers already beat.

REEDSPORT 46, FALLS CITY 6:

The Brave won their fourth straight game in their independent schedule, improving to 4-2 on the season.

Reedsport finishes the year with a trip to Jewell this week.

Marshfield boys, North Bend girls headed to soccer playoffs

Marshfield's boys soccer team got a huge result last week, when the Pirates tied Marist Catholic 2-2 at home.

Marshfield improved to 4-2-1 and finished league play Monday with a match at Junction City (the score was not available) with a chance to tie Cottage Grove for second place behind the Spartans in the league standings. Cottage Grove already finished its league season, beating North Bend to finish at 5-2-1.

As long as Marshfield tops Junction City, the Pirates will advance to the Class 4A playoffs and begin with a road match.

The Bulldogs lost to Cottage Grove 4-1 after winning a nonleague match against Pacific 6-2. North Bend was home against Marist Catholic on Monday to finish the year.

CLASS 3A-2A-1A DISTRICT 4:

Pacific beat Gold Beach 3-1 in its final league match to finish the season 8-4 in league play.

The Pirates host Siuslaw on Tuesday in a nonleague match.

The combined Coquille-Myrtle Point team had a successful final week with a 4-1 win over Gold Beach and a 2-2 tie against Umpqua Valley Christian. The DevilCats finished 4-6-2 in league play.

GIRLS SOCCER

SKY-EM LEAGUE:

North Bend beat Cottage Grove 3-1 as the Bulldogs prepared for the Class 4A playoffs.

North Bend hosted league-leading Marist Catholic on Monday with a chance to tie for the league title. They fell to the Spartans 9-1 in Eugene earlier in the season, but were the first team to score a goal against Marist Catholic in league play.

Marshfield fell to Marist Catholic 8-0 and was 1-6 in league play heading into the season finale at home against Junction City on Monday.

Class 3A-2A-1A District 4:

The Coquille-Myrtle Point squad finished the season on a positive note, beating South Umpqua 7-0 last week. The DevilCats finished 5-6-1 in league play.

Start fishing: Where-to and how-to fish in Oregon

Fishing isn't hard, but it can be confusing to know how to begin. Here's the information you'll need to get from thinking about it to doing it.

What to fish for Trout and bass are two of the most popular game-fish in Oregon. There are a number of reasons why, many of which make trout and bass fishing great choices for new anglers.

They are widespread and often live in nearby lakes, ponds, rivers and streams.

The fishing gear is simple, and you can usually use the same gear for both trout and bass.

The fishing regulations for trout and bass are simple and easy to understand.

You need just a basic fishing license — no need for additional tags or endorsements.

Gearing up

The fishing section at the sporting goods store can be overwhelming, and some anglers are notorious for collecting a whole stable of specialized rods, reels and assorted tackle. But you don't have to be like that.

Gearing up — To simplify your shopping, here's a list of the kind of rod, reel and tackle you'll need for an all-purpose fishing outfit. Notice you don't need much more than a simple spinning rod and a handful of lures to start bass and trout fishing.

Favorite warmwater fishing rigs — Perfect if bass, bluegill, crappie or other warmwater fish are on your agenda and you want to try a few new things.

How to fish

How to fish for trout — This article and video series will show you everything you need to know to go fishing — from baiting the hook, to casting the rod, to landing a fish. We'll even show you how to clean it. And while the title may say "trout," these same techniques will work for bass and other warmwater fish, too.

Warmwater fishing in Oregon -- Learn more about bass and warmwater fishing techniques, and some of the best warmwater fishing locations around the state.

Buy a license

Buy a fishing license -- To fish for trout, bass, bluegill, crappie and other warmwater species, everyone 12 years or older will need a license to fish in Oregon. But if you're fishing just for trout or warmwater fish, that's all you'll need — a license.

You can buy a license online or at an ODFW license vendor. If you're buying your license online, you can print out a hard copy on your home computer, or download your license to your smart phone using the MyODFW app.

If you prefer to buy a license in-person, you can go to one of ODFW's license vendors. This includes many Bi-Mart and Fred Meyer stores as well as several small independent retailers.

You can also buy a one- or three-day fishing license, which is a great option if you're unsure you'll like fishing or have a friend that wants to tag along.

Check the regulations

Check the regulations — The regulations will tell you what areas are closed to fishing, how many fish you can keep and if there are any gear restrictions. It's a good idea to check them before you go.

You can check the regulation online or get a printed booklet at an ODFW license vendor, or call your local ODFW office and we'll send you one.

The regulation booklet can be intimidating, but don't be. Here's a simple strategy for your search.

Find the zone you want to fish in (there are zone maps in the booklet), and note the regulation table for that zone.

If the waterbody you want to fish isn't listed under Exceptions to zone regulations, that means it's open to fishing and the regulations listed for the zone apply.

Waterbodies with special regulations will be listed under the Exceptions... section within the zone, along with the special regulations.

North Bend Fire Department Open House Draws Big Crowd; Drone Program Interest Soars

From the City of North Bend
Families packed the North Bend Fire Department's open house on Friday evening, touring fire engines, meeting firefighters, and learning about the department's services during a community night that organizers called a major success.

"What a night," said North Bend Fire Chief Jim Brown. "We saw lots of smiling faces, happy kids, and had great conversations with our community."

Attendees explored apparatus and equipment, asked questions about day-to-day operations, and heard about new initiatives. Chief Brown said one of the biggest draws was the department's new Drone Program.

"We had a lot of citizens showing interest in our new Drone Program, which will be a great addition to our emergency response capabilities," Chief Brown said.

The department also thanked partners who helped make the event possible. "A special thank-you to Fire Science Instructor Mike Seldon from Southwestern Oregon Community College for helping serve hot dogs—we appreciate the continued partnership and support for our community and fire service education," Chief Brown said.

Chief Brown added that public engagement is central to the department's mission. "We're proud to serve such an amazing community—your support and involvement make North Bend a safer, stronger, and more connected place to live," he said.

mation about NBFD programs and services, contact the North Bend Fire Department at 541-756-7757 or northbendoregon.us/contact.

NOTICE TO RESIDENTIAL TENANTS

The property in which you are living is in foreclosure. A foreclosure is scheduled for January 7, 2026. The date of this sale may be postponed. Unless the lender that is foreclosing on this property is paid before the sale date, the foreclosure will go through and someone new will own this property. After the sale, the new owner is required to provide you with some contact information and notice that the sale took place.

The following information applies to you only if you are a bona fide tenant occupying and renting as a residential dwelling under a legitimate rental agreement. The information does not apply to you if you own this property or if you are not a bona fide residential tenant. If the foreclosure sale goes through, the new owner will have the right to require you to move out. Before the new owner can require you to move, the new owner must provide you with written notice that specifies the date by which you must move out. If you do not leave before the move-out date, the new owner can have the sheriff remove you from the property after a court hearing. You will receive notice of the court hearing.

PROTECTION FROM EVICTION

IF YOU ARE A BONA FIDE TENANT OCCUPYING AND RENTING THIS PROPERTY AS A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTINUE LIVING IN THE PROPERTY AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE FOR: 60 DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU ARE GIVEN A WRITTEN TERMINATION NOTICE, IF YOU HAVE A FIXED TERM LEASE; OR AT LEAST 30 DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU ARE GIVEN

999
Legal Notices

A WRITTEN TERMINATION NOTICE; IF YOU HAVE A MONTH-TO-MONTH OR WEEK-TO-WEEK RENTAL AGREEMENT.

If the new owner wants to move in and use this property as a primary residence, the new owner can give you written notice and require you to move out after 30 days, even though you have a fixed term lease with more than 30 days left. You must be provided with at least 30 days' written notice after the foreclosure sale before you can be required to move.

A bona fide tenant is a residential tenant who is not the borrower (property owner) or a child, spouse, or parent of the borrower, and whose rental agreement:

Is the result of an arm's-length transaction;
Requires the payment of rent that is not substantially less than fair market rent for the property, unless the rent is reduced or subsidized due to a federal, state or local subsidy; and
Was entered into prior to the date of the foreclosure sale.

ABOUT YOUR TENANCY BETWEEN NOW AND THE FORECLOSURE SALE: RENT

YOU SHOULD CONTINUE TO PAY RENT TO YOUR LANDLORD UNTIL THE PROPERTY IS SOLD OR UNTIL A COURT TELLS YOU OTHERWISE, IF YOU DO NOT PAY RENT, YOU CAN BE EVICTED, BE SURE TO KEEP PROOF OF ANY PAYMENTS YOU MAKE.

SECURITY DEPOSIT

You may apply your social security deposit and any rent you paid in advance against the current rent you owe your landlord as provided in ORS 90.367. To do this, you must notify your landlord in writing that you want to subtract the amount of your security deposit or prepaid rent from your rent payment. You may do this only for the rent you owe your current landlord. If you do this, you must do so before the foreclosure sale. The business or individual who pays this property at the foreclosure sale is not responsible to you for any deposit or prepaid rent you paid to your landlord.

ABOUT YOUR TENANCY AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE

The new owner that buys this property at the foreclosure sale may be willing to allow you to stay as a tenant instead of requiring you to move out after 30 or 60 days. After the sale, you should receive a written notice informing you that the sale took place and giving you the new owner's name and contact information. You should contact the new owner if you would like to stay. If the new owner accepts rent from you, signs a new residential rental agreement with you or does not notify you in writing within 30 days after the date of the foreclosure sale that you must move out, the new owner becomes your new landlord and must maintain the property. Otherwise:

You do not owe rent;
The new owner is not your landlord and is not responsible for maintaining the property on your behalf, and
You must move out by the date the new owner specifies in a notice to you. The new owner must offer to pay your moving expenses and any other costs or amounts you and the new owner agree on in exchange for your agreement to leave the premises in less than 30 or 60 days. You should speak with a lawyer to fully understand your rights before making any decisions regarding your tenancy. IT IS UNLAWFUL FOR ANY PERSON TO TRY TO FORCE YOU TO LEAVE YOUR DWELLING UNIT WITHOUT FIRST GIVING YOU WRITTEN NOTICE AND GONG TO COURT TO EVICT YOU. FOR MORE INFORMATION ON YOUR RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT A LAWYER. If you believe you need legal assistance, contact the Oregon State Bar and ask for lawyer referral service. If you do not have enough money to pay a lawyer and are otherwise eligible, you may be able to receive legal assistance for free. WESTERN WORLD

As I See It

By Mary Schamehorn

A year and a half after the disastrous Bandon Fire, a front-page article in Western World announced work on a new church.

“Bandon is to have another new church (first photo) within a short time. The Assembly of God, whose structure was burned in the fire of Sept. 26, 1936, has exchanged lots with the city and is now erecting a building on the highway near the south city limits. Ground dimensions are 42x60 and the building will be one story with basement. Cost of material is estimated at $1400. All labor will be donated through a ‘church-raising bee.’”

It was June of 1912 when the Bandon Recorder reported that the “city of Bandon has purchased a new safe for the purpose of protecting valuable papers, ordinances, records, etc. This is a step in the right direction for if we would happen to wake up some morning and find all records gone up in smoke, the city would certainly be in a serious condition.” Little did they know!

Less than two years later, city hall escaped the first Bandon fire, in February of 1914, but was not so fortunate in the Fire of 1936 as can be seen by the safe left standing in the far right part of the second picture, just off Cleveland Avenue, near where the Bandon Fisheries Warehouse stands today. There are still today, in the city hall safe, some old documents that survived the fire, including a receipt written on a wood shingle.

A headline in the April 3, 1958, Western World told of a lightning bolt that hit a Port Orford home, causing extensive damage. No one was at home at the time, but a Bandon man, Denny Blake, (third picture) happened to be at a service station in Port Orford when the lightning struck. Blake, who drove the Shell Oil truck for Howard Tucker, was also a Bandon fireman, so he offered assistance when the fire alarm sounded. He gave this description:

“The bolt hit two fir trees near the house... and went down the trees, dug a foot-deep trench for some 30 feet to the lawn, jumped the lawn and struck the house, tearing the wall out of a bedroom. All windows were broken, and three were reported broken in the house across the road. The electricity apparently ‘went to the ground’ via plumbing, bursting the water main and doing other damage. The house was knocked ‘out of square’ by the shock which shook windows two blocks away and was accompanied by a blinding flash. Several rooms were badly burned before the flames were quenched by the firemen.”

I recently reported on the salary settlement between the Bandon Education Association and the school district, which resulted in a 7 percent increase this year for the teachers, and 5 percent each of the next two years of the three-year contract.

But I’ve been asked what others in the district received. Here is what I could find out. The administrators, which include the principals and vice principal, received a total increase of 3 percent this year as the district attempted to be mindful of payroll costs.

The superintendent, administrative assistant, HR/PR, business manager, director of food services, director of maintenance and operations, technology director and director of transportation received a 4 percent total increase this year.

People were understandably upset when the new $10 parking fee went into effect Oct. 1, which included day parking at state parks like Bullards Beach and Facerock Viewpoint.

Day parking passes for those two parks are available for checkout at the Bandon Library on an in-person, day-of, first-come first-served basis. A person must provide a valid Coos or Curry library card at checkout, and only one pass per card holder.

For more information call the Bandon library at 541-347-3221.

I heard from my old friend Don Campbell, who with brother Wayne, was my neighbor when we grew up in Bandon. Don, who lives in Eugene, and was a few years ahead of me in school, said that David Call, a member of the Class of 1956, had died last week in Eugene. David was an attorney in Alaska for many years.

A friend of mine, who wishes to remain anonymous, wants me to warn others after she was the latest victim of the grandparents scam. She was scammed out of $8,400 last week by a supposed lawyer and a “police officer” from her home state regarding posting bail for her grandson who called.

“I fell for it and sent cash to an address given by the ‘lawyer.’ The police officer then told me that I would get reimbursed for the money I sent after I sent another $7,000 because allegedly my grandson had gotten himself into another situation where he was in court and needed more bail money so he could go home. I refused. I reported this to the FBI and to the Bandon Police Department.”

She also blocked the phone numbers of the scammers who had been calling her numerous times throughout the ordeal.

She had also loaned a total of around $2000 to friends in the last year or so, and doubts that she will ever see that. Altogether she is probably out over $10,500. Her main goal here is to warn people of this scam!

A well-known Bandon woman, Denise Skillman, is recovering from a harrowing incident which occurred recently when she fell in her home and was unable to call for help for several days, after suffering a broken hip. She was rushed by ambulance to a hospital in Medford where she underwent hip surgery and is now receiving inpatient rehabilitation at Providence Medford Medical Center.

A friend, Nancy Evans, called Denise last week and was told, “Everything is going to be all right.” Which is good news for her many friends in the community.

On another health note, my sister Maggie’s daughter, Amanda Simpson, had an ablation on her lumbar in August that went awry, and resulted in loss of sensation to her left leg, bladder and bowels. She spent 10 days at Bay Area Hospital and 35 days in Lifecare for rehab service and is now staying with my sister and getting outpatient physical therapy with her two daughters taking turns caregiving and staying in Port Orford with their geriatric dog and two cats. Amanda wants to go home to her RV but needs a ramp built and the bathroom retrofitted for her needs. A Go-Fund-Me account has been set up to help with these costs as well as medical expenses and travel expenses for trips to a neurologist and neurosurgeon in Portland.

The Greater Bandon Association and Boost Brand Solutions will be offering a free workshop for Bandon businesses on Tuesday, Oct. 28, from 8 to 10 a.m. in the Overlook Room at the Best Western Inn at Face Rock. It is titled “Branding Basics for Small Businesses” and is appropriate for local brick and mortar as well as small cottage businesses. Register at greaterbandon.org. It is limited to the first 25 participants.

Anyone who says there is nothing to do in Bandon wasn’t here this last weekend. Not only was there a big crowd at the football game and the opening of Charlotte’s Web, but there was also a wine walk Friday night, and a huge crowd, estimated in the neighborhood of 600, who gathered for the No Kings peaceful protest Saturday.

The Bandon Tiger football team is 6-0 for the first time since 1998, after beating Myrtle Point 50-38 Friday night before a packed stadium. Friday, Oct. 24, Bandon will host rival Gold Beach and they are hoping for a big crowd of community supporters. Game time is 7. The last regularly scheduled game is here against always tough Oakland on Oct. 31. The Tigers are coached by Dustin Carmack, and led by senior quarterback Reggie Turner.

I attended opening night of the Bandon Playhouse presentation of Charlotte’s Web, and was blown away by the professional quality of this show. Not only is the acting, led by Lindi Robertson as Wilbur, the pig, superb, but the stage decorations, the sound and the lighting are top notch. For years, I’ve had a hard time hearing when a show involved young people, but not this time. I sat in the back row and could hear every word as the director (and Sprague manager) Stephanie Jones and her capable assistants have utilized a new sound configuration, which is delightful for the audience.

You don’t want to miss this production, which continues Friday and Saturday (Oct. 24-25) at 7, and Sunday (Oct. 26) at 2. Tickets are available online or at the door for $20 for adults and $15 for 14 and under. You will come away smiling and amazed at the range of talent in this community.

The League of Women Voters is hosting a forum “What has Salem done for me lately?” featuring Senator Dick Anderson, Monday, Oct. 27, from 4 to 5:30 at the Coos Bay Library. He will talk about topics relevant to the South Coast and answer written questions. The public is welcome.

The Meet & Greet at Bandon Fisheries Warehouse Tuesday, Oct. 21, will be presented by Jim Proehl of the Bandon History Museum, titled “Veterans Stories from the GAR Cemetery.” Seating opens at 11:30 with the program starts at noon. The Oct. 28 program will be presented by Doreen Kelly, celebrating the 40-year anniversary of South Coast Hospice.

A woman posted on Facebook that she recently lost the Internet, but after Spectrum looked for the problem it was discovered that someone had vandalized the telecom pedestal (utility box), removed the top cover, cut all the wires and removed them. They then covered it all back over with dirt and tossed the box into the trees at the corner of 12th and Harrison. Technicians said there is nothing valuable as far as metal or cables in these boxes. So it makes no sense why someone would do that other than just to vandalize.

There was a report Saturday afternoon of a man getting hit by waves out on the north jetty. An officer was watching him, and it appeared he got “wiped out” twice, but he was able to make it back to the lighthouse. The officer said he did not know if the man was injured. The guy had on a bright neon shirt and drove off in a red Dodge truck and was stopped at the entrance to the park. He told the officer he was okay ... and was advised “that was not a good idea!”

Merkley Holds Senate Floor for 22 hours 37 minutes to Ring the Alarm Bells of Trump’s Authoritarianism

Washington, D.C. – Today, Oregon’s U.S. Senator Jeff Merkley issued the following statement after holding the Senate floor for 22 hours 37 minutes – the third longest in Senate history – to ring the alarm bells about the Trump Administration’s authoritarian takeover of the country: “Trump’s plan is to replace government ‘of, by, and for the people’ with government ‘of, by, and for the powerful.’ “This is the position we’re in right now in the United States of America. An authoritarian strongman is pushing for complete control of America thanks to a rubber-stamp Congress, a Supreme Court that’s delivering more and more power to the Executive, and an Executive that has a well-planned strategy to trample our democratic institutions, thanks to Project 2025. “Americans are standing up because the President is not a king. Americans are standing up because laws are not suggestions. Americans are standing up because following the Constitution is not optional. “After over 22 hours on the floor, my message is exactly the same as it was when I started: We need to stand strong together to ring the alarm bells that ‘Trump’s authoritarianism is here now.’ Archived livestreams of Merkley’s speech are available on his YouTube page: <https://www.youtube.com/@SenatorJeffMerkleyYT>.

Obituaries

Dennis Graham

August 18, 1945 - September 18, 2025

Dennis was born August 18, 1945, in Portland, Oregon, the youngest of seven children. He died September 18, 2025, in Coos Bay, Oregon.

He was raised in a series of small towns in Oregon’s Willamette Valley, and graduated from McMinnville High School in 1963. He attended Oregon Institute of Technology, first to study diesel mechanics, followed by two years of surveying technology. In 1967 he was drafted into the United States Army, where he served in Korea. Upon discharge, he returned to Klamath Falls to work for the Winema National Forest and finish his degree in surveying technology. In 1972 he began his career with Coos Bay District, Bureau of Land Management, where he worked as a facilities engineer until his retirement in 2001. His particular interests were in recreational and interpretive projects, and he was especially fond of Loon Lake campground and Dean Creek Elk Viewing Area.

Dennis was seldom idle. He spent many hours in his shop, with projects ranging from restoring a 1967 Cadillac convertible to building wooden models of Jeeps, trucks, and construction equipment for family and special friends. An active volunteer, he served as a leader for his son’s cub scout den and Boy Scout Troop 63 and advised several scouts with their Eagle Scout projects. He loved his adopted hometown of Coquille and gave back by serving on City Council, helping to establish the dog park, and was a driving force in the development of the Coquille Riverwalk, the project most dear to his heart.

He is survived by his wife, Mary; daughter, AnnMarie Fortner, Redmond, Oregon; daughter-in-law, Nikole Graham, Coquille; grandchildren, Allison Graham, Coos Bay; Hunter Joos, Redmond; and Tyler Graham, Honolulu, Hawaii. He was preceded in death by his son, Aaron, a brother and five sisters.

Dennis was not a fan of traditional funerals and insisted he would not attend his own. A celebration of life will be planned for a future date. Memorial contributions may be made to The Friends of the Coquille Riverwalk, PO Box 324, Coquille, Oregon, 97423.

ABOUT SNAP IN OREGON

SNAP is a cornerstone of Oregon's fight against hunger, helping more than 1 in 6 people in Oregon, approximately 27 percent of households, afford groceries. This includes children, working families, older adults, and people with disabilities. Every $1 in SNAP benefits generates $1.50 to $1.80 in local economic activity. SNAP drives an estimated $1.6 billion into the Oregon economy each year. But even with SNAP benefits, many families still struggle to meet their basic needs, especially amid the rising cost of food and housing, according to the release.

"Everyone deserves access to healthy food, and the Oregon Department of Human Services (ODHS) is committed to making sure people in Oregon receive the right amount of SNAP food benefits they qualify for," the release states.

health insurance.

Between massive cuts to social services as a part of the 'Big Beautiful Bill' and the continuation of the government shut down, those reliant on Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits will see huge changes to the program. Prior to the shutdown, huge shifts in enrollment requirements could see thousands in Oregon lose consistent access to food. Post-shutdown the entire program hangs in the balance, with funding expected to run out after October until the federal government programs, and the funds that come with them, are unfrozen.

Given the area's poverty statistics, these two realms of cuts could have massive impact. According to the Census Bureau, 15.6% of Coos County lives below the poverty line which is 25% higher than the national average. 22% of children in Coos County live in poverty, nearly double the national average. Many of these households, alongside plenty just on the other side of the poverty line, rely on these crucial services to keep food on the table and receive healthcare.

You would hope that these massive cuts at least showed a conservative approach to our federal government's fiscal responsibility. However, despite billions in cuts to services that help regular citizens nationwide the Trump administration's budget bill is estimated by the Bipartisan Policy Center to add $3.4 trillion to the national deficit (before interest) over the next decade. Here are the effects of those tax policy changes on the bottom and top 10% according to the CBO:

"Resources for households in the lowest decile of the income distribution would decrease by about $1,600 per year (in 2025 dollars) compared with their projected income in CBO's baseline projections. That amounts to 3.9 percent of their income. Those projected decreases are mainly attributable to reductions in in-kind transfers, such as Medicaid and SNAP."

"Resources would increase, on average, over the projection period by about $12,000 for households in the highest decile, amounting to 2.3 percent of their projected income. Those projected increases are mainly attributable to reductions in the taxes households in that decile owe."

There are a lot of issues that have become the focus of political discourse over this most recent cycle, and precious few of them have anything to do with the quality of life of everyday Americans, especially those in rural areas like the South Coast. While we continue to accept the right-wing framing of issues like immigration (undocumented immigrants are prohibited from most government services) or trans rights (roughly 1% of people in the US identify as trans), we ignore what the numbers are telling us.

The only transfer of wealth happening in America is coming through reductions in services to the poorest among us, so that the richest in our society can benefit from reduced taxes. Corporate price gouging continues to keep prices high while wages and benefits stagnate. While media continues to try and divide us, we must stay focused on what matters most: Can you put food on the table? Is your health taken care of? How are our most vulnerable being treated?

The answers to those questions should give you reason to protest, if you did not have one already.
