Did you know?

Did you know that a fractured tooth may be completely painless, but cause very serious infection, bone loss and even the loss of the tooth?

It's true! Tiny cracks in a tooth are perfect routes for bacteria to get into the bone, where they multiply and erode bone tissue. If you notice a small bump in your gum, in the area of a tooth root, get it checked as early as possible! You may be saving your tooth and health.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Dentistry with a difference!

Preppers to meet Feb. 17 in Bandon

BANDON - Southwestern Oregon Preppers will hold a meeting at noon on Saturday, Feb. 17, at the Bandon Public Library, Sprague Room, 1204 11th St SW. These meetings are open to anyone interested.

The main topic is Disaster Survival Planning Workshops for Families. This year SWOP will be conducting workshops during the meetings. Bring your plan to the workshop. If you do not have a plan to bring that is OK, you will have one to take home when you leave. Bring paper and pencil for notes. Attend this workshop to help your family, whether large or small, survive a disaster.

SWOP meetings always start with a question and answer period before the main topic so all in attendance get a chance to participate.

This is a free public meeting to get to know fellow local preppers in southwestern Oregon counties and to exchange information and ideas. It is important for individuals to understand that they will be "on their own" in the event of a disaster and not to depend on receiving outside help.

Join Southwestern Oregon Preppers on Facebook and/or meetup.com.

In addition, the charity selected by the group in the prior quarter presents a report on how they used the funds and thanks the donors. The group is open to women 18 years and older living in the Bandon area. Guests are welcome to attend. However, only members can nominate a charity or vote. To sign up, go to <http://bandon.com/100-strong-bandon-signup/> and complete the membership application.

Local historians featured at free museum event Feb. 17

BANDON - “Boats, Roads, and Growing up in early 20th Century Coos County” is the title of a program featuring speakers Lionel Youst and Roger Ott at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 17, at the Bandon Historical Society Museum.

Admission is free to the program and to the museum all day courtesy of The Beverage Barn and Sunrise Carpet Cleaning and Janitorial, the sponsors of the event.

The photo-rich program will include tales, stories and memories of two men who grew up in the woods above Allegheny on the Millicoma River in the area around Golden and Silver Falls. Both speakers share a rich family history connected with logging, steam boating and farming in Coos County.

Youst is an author whose works include “Above the Falls,” “She’s Tricky Like Coyote,” and “Sawdust in the Western Woods.”

Museum volunteer Jeff Moore heard Youst and Ott speak to a local history class at the Coos History Museum and arranged for the speakers to come to the Bandon Museum. They put on an entertaining program, have some amazing photographs and tell some great stories, said Moore.

The museum reopened Feb. 5 after being closed for the month of January.

“This February program gives us a chance to show off the work the volunteers did in January to refurbish some of the exhibits,” said museum board president Jim Proehl. “We appreciate the sponsorship that lets us offer this program for free. Come early and get a good seat.”

The Bandon Historical Museum is located at the corner of U.S. Highway 101 and Fillmore Ave. The museum is open Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission will be free Feb. 17.
