Did you know?

Did you know that the Mayas practiced cosmetic dentistry before Europeans arrived in the New World?

It's true! The Mayas of Central America were very concerned about the appearance of their teeth. Besides using inlays of gold and colored stones, they also shaped their teeth by filing them into sharp points. This was to honor their Sun God, Kinich Ahau.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care From Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Keep your beautiful teeth and smile for a lifetime! We enhance people's lives!

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS OF
CITY OF BANDON
SMOKE-TESTING AND SEWER SURVEY

Beginning September 5, 2017 (weather permitting) personnel from Dyer Partnership and City of Bandon Wastewater Staff will be conducting a physical survey of the City's Sanitary Sewer System. This will last a minimum of four days to a maximum of seven days. This study will involve the opening and entering of manholes in the streets and easements. An important task of the survey will be the "Smoke Testing" of sewer lines to locate breaks and defects in the sewer system. The smoke that you see coming from the vent stacks on houses or holes in the ground is NON-TOXIC, HARMLESS, HAS NO ODOR, AND CREATES NO FIRE HAZARD.

The smoke should not enter your home unless you have defective plumbing or dried-up drain traps. If this occurs, you should consult your licensed plumber. In any event, if the harmless smoke can enter through faulty plumbing, the potential exists for dangerous sewer gasses to enter your home. Should smoke enter your home, you may contact a member of the smoke testing crew working in the area, and he will be pleased to check with you as to where and why the smoke has entered your home. If you have any seldom-used drains, please pour water in the drain to fill the trap, which will prevent sewer gasses or odors from entering the building.

Some sewer lines and manholes are located on private property within easement area. Whenever these lines require investigation, members of the inspection crews will need access to the easements for the sewer lines and manholes. Homeowners do not need to be home, and the workmen will not need to enter your house.

Photographs are to be made of leaks occurring in the system. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Please call Bill Nielson at 541-297-4119 if you have any questions. Thank you!

Nashville-based duo to perform at The Spoon

LANGLOIS – Mare Wakefield and Nomad tour this summer and fall playing songs from upcoming record "Time to Fly" (Jan 2018 release). The tour starts in the Midwest and circles the nation to end in Texas in early October.

The duo will perform a free concert at 6 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5, at The Spoon, 48396 Highway 101 in Langlois.

Mare (pronounced "Mary") Wakefield and Nomad were 2016 and 2015 finalists at Kerrville's NewFolk Songwriting Competition in Texas and 2015 Emerging Artists at Falcon Ridge Folk Festival in New York.

The Americana duo combines Wakefield's strength as an award-winning songwriter with Turkish-born, classically-trained Nomad's expert piano and accordion skills. Calling Nashville home while touring the U.S., this husband-and-wife team has earned a devoted fan base that funded their last record via Kickstarter.

Attendees of their live show can expect to hear songs off any of their six studio records, including the single "One More Breaking Heart," which has received over 30,000 spins in retail stores nationally.

Scholar will recount her time with Coquille Tribe

COOS BAY - An eroding riverbank was the beginning of a beautiful friendship for Roberta Hall and the Coquille Indian Tribe.

It was 1976, and Hall, an anthropology professor at Oregon State University, received a distress call. Artifacts and bones had begun emerging from the ground near Bandon. Could she help preserve the site? Hall's hastily assembled team joined tribal members beside the river, and a long weekend of work secured the site. Afterward, Hall would make many return visits, with students in tow, researching the tribe's history and recording stories from tribal elders.

Hall, who retired in 2003, will recall her memories of those years in a Tuesday, Sept. 5, lecture at the Coos History Museum, located adjacent to the Coos Bay waterfront. The event is part of the museum's First Tuesday Talks.

Now 78, Hall was deeply involved with the tribe during the years preceding its 1989 restoration to federal recognition. Having been "terminated" by Congress in 1954, the Coquille people were struggling to retain their cultural heritage and tribal unity when Hall met them.

Hall's Sept. 5 talk, "Portraits of the Coquille People," will feature decades-old recordings of her conversations with tribal elders. She hopes it also includes conversations with the audience.

First Tuesday Talks

Dr. Roberta Hall's lecture will begin at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5, at the Coos History Museum. It's part of the museum's First Tuesday Talks series. Your museum entrance fee or membership includes admission to the talk.

Other upcoming First Tuesday Talks:

■ Oct. 3 - "Sea Biscuits and Flying Fish: the Surprising History of Maritime Foods," with Prof. Candice Goucher of Washington State University.

■ Nov. 7 - "Forestry: a Historical Perspective and a Look Forward," panel discussion with Ian Thompson of Rayonier Inc. and Mike Cloughesy of Oregon Forest Resources Institute.

■ Dec. 5 - "WWII: Its Effects in Coos County," with attorney and author John Whitty.

The First Tuesday Talks are sponsored by Al Pierce Co. LLC, with in-kind support from The Mill Casino-Hotel & RV Park.

Golf tournament to benefit veterans

BANDON – The Bandon by the Sea Rotary Club and Coos Bay Toyota are teaming up to play golf and benefit Coos County veterans.

The fundraising golf tournament will be held on Monday, Sept. 11, at Bandon Crossings Golf Course. Tee time is 10 a.m. for the shotgun start. Cost is $70 and includes green fees, golf cart and lunch at 3:30 p.m., and a cash bar. A hole in one nets a $10,000 cash award.

All proceeds will go to the Southern Oregon Veterans Association.

“No handicap required, just a fun day to support our veterans,” said Mary Carol Roberson, one of the event’s organizers.

Registration can be made through the Bandon Crossings pro shop, 541-347-3232.

For more information, contact Roberson at 541-366-1371.

Neil Sedaka songs showcased in LTOB musical

NORTH BEND – The jukebox musical “Breaking Up Is Hard To Do,” opens Friday, Sept. 1, at The Liberty Theatre, home of Little Theatre on the Bay, in North Bend.

Set at “Esther’s Paradise Resort” in the Catskills resort in the early 1960s, this is the sweetly comic story of Lois and Marge, two friends from Brooklyn in search of good times and romance over one wild Labor Day weekend, a vacation that was intended to be Marge’s honeymoon - until the groom left her at the altar.

The score showcases 18 Neil Sedaka classics, including “Where the Boys Are,” “Sweet Sixteen,” “Calendar Girl”, and “Love Will Keep Us Together,” among others, all complemented by an onstage five-piece band and backup singers.

Shows run Sept. 1, 2 and 3; Sept. 8, 9 and 10; and Sept. 15, 16 and 17, at the Liberty Theatre, 2100 Sherman Ave., North Bend. Friday and Saturday shows are at 7 p.m., Sunday matinees at 2 p.m. Ticket prices are $15 for adults, $13 seniors and $10 for children 12 and under. Purchase in advance online or at the box office Wednesdays 10 a.m.-1 p.m. or at the door on the day of the event. For group and family rates call 541-756-4336 and visit <http://www.thelibertytheatre.org>.

Since 1959, the LTOB has operated and managed the Liberty Theatre, serving residents and visitors to Coos County. The restoration project is designed to ensure the theater is preserved and protected in time for the centennial celebration of the building’s opening, scheduled for spring 2024. The Little Theatre on the Bay is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

Pirate theme for this year's Cranberry Festival parade

Avast ye! All hands hoay! Parade attendees and entrants are sure to be walking and talking like pirates with this year's Cranberry Festival theme, "Shiver Me Cranberry"

Entrants are encouraged to have a yo-ho-ho fun time as they heave-ho into sailor and pirate costumes or decorate their floats with crow's nests and pirate booty, then batten down the hatches for the festival parade. Add a few cranberries and have a blast - the possibilities are endless.

A formation flyover by members of the Bandon Aero Club will kick off the parade at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 9, followed on the ground by the VFW Honor Guard. Floats, cranberry harvesting equipment, sporty classic cars and hot rods, the Shriners and their tiny cars, a variety of tractors, the Coos County Mounted Sheriff's Posse, Miss Coos County, the BHS marching band and many more will be among those participating in the parade and celebrating Bandon's lengthy cranberry heritage.

The 2017 Mystery Person, parade grand marshal, this year's Cranberry Queen and her court and the 2017 King or Queen of the Kitchen also join in the parade.

The parade follows the standard route, starting at Ninth Street SW by the schools, down U.S. Highway 101, then through Old Town along First Street.

At the parade staging area on Ninth Street SW, entrants can check in and receive their order number. Last minute parade entries will be accepted the day of the parade, but they will not be eligible for an award.

Registration starts at 7 a.m. and judging will be held from 8-10 a.m. Judges will award ribbons for first and second place in each of five divisions, along with special ribbons for best entry.

For a parade registration form or more information, visit www.bandon.com/cranberry-festival or call the Chamber of Commerce at 541-347-9616.
