Did you know?

Did you know that without saliva you cannot taste food?

It's true! Saliva is necessary for tasting. It carries dissolved flavor molecules in food to receptors on taste buds, which send flavor signals to the brain. Saliva also contains substances which eliminate viruses, bacteria and fungi from the mouth.

Langlois
Lions to hold spaghetti
March 31

LANGLOIS - The Langlois Lions will host its "famous" spaghetti feed followed by a dessert auction starting at 5 p.m. Saturday, March 31, at the Lions Club, 48136 Floras Lake Loop. This benefit event is earmarked for the Langlois Lions' 2018 Pacific High School scholarship fund and promises to be a lot of fun and all for a good cause.

The menu includes spaghetti with gourmet sauce, fancy coleslaw, garlic bread and drinks (coffee, tea and punch). Vegetarian option are available. Cost is by donation. Dinner and dance music will be provided by the Alder Road band. Community members are cordially invited to bring a favorite dessert to be donated to the auction.

For more information, call 541-348-2507.

Public invited to hear Carnegie performance

BANDON - Last fall, several Bandon residents traveled to New York City to participate in a Thanksgiving weekend Carnegie Hall performance. "Appalachian Winter, A Cantata for Christmas" was a Distinguished Concert in New York series production directed by well-known sacred music composer and conductor, Joseph M. Martin.

The cantata was performed on Nov. 17, 2017, by a 280-plus voice choir and professional soloists.

The Bandon singers were Tom Collins, Larry Doss, Farrell Fox, Debra Griffith, Laura Guzman, Cindy and Paul Hay, Angelina Morones, Bobbi Neason and Dorabeth Sutterfield.

The group would like to invite all supporters and anyone interested to come to the Sprague Theater at 2 p.m. Sunday March 11, to view the official video of the full performance on "the big screen." The Men's Fellowship of First Presbyterian Church will offer light refreshments during intermission. There is no cost to attend the showing, but attendees are encouraged to bring a food staple donation for the Bandon Feeds the Hungry food programs.

School band and choir concerts coming

BANDON - Bandon High School and Harbor Lights Middle School will hold spring concerts in the upcoming weeks.

The all-bands concert will be held at 7 p.m. in the BHS gym. It will feature bands from grades 5-12 and end with the BHS Jazz Band.

"This is a great opportunity to hear the bands of all levels and how they progress when they get older," said Bandon School District bands and BHS choir director Dave Weston.

At 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 13, the all-choirs concert will be presented, featuring choirs in grades 5-12 at the BHS gym. The HLMS Marimba Band, under the direction of HLMS and Ocean Crest choir director Holly Sylvester, will perform. The HLMS Marimba Band has also been invited to play with the Hillcrest Marimba Band at the Pony Village Mall on Earth Day, Saturday, April 21.

At 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 20, The Commanders Jazz Ensemble, a U.S. Air Force Band, will perform a free concert in the BHS gym. The BHS Jazz Band will open the show. The public is welcome to all of the concerts.

Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail accepting applications

BANDON - Visitors and locals alike are looking more often for places in the region to get fresh and local food. At the same time, local growers, producers and eateries are looking for better ways to let folks know they've got the local food that everyone's looking for. Well, now there's an easy way for the two groups to connect, with this year's Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail.

The local agritourism team, Eat Fresh & Local, is asking local food growers, producers and harvesters, along with restaurants, brewpubs and B&B's who serve local food, to consider applying for a spot on this year's Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail.

The Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail is an expanded version of the original Wild Rivers Coast "Farm" Trail, which was started in North Curry County in 2015 by Cathy Boden, team leader for the Eat Fresh & Local Action Team.

The expanded Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail is open to producers or retailers of local food, in addition to all local breweries, distilleries and wineries that are located along the Wild Rivers Coast; specifically, Curry, Coos and Coastal Douglas counties.

Expansion into the rest of the Wild Rivers Coast, i.e. coastal Del Norte County, is being considered for 2019 or 2020.

To obtain an application for the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail, producers or retailers of local food can contact Eat Fresh & Local team member, Elizabeth Gronert, via email at ddsouth@thepopscost.com. Once the application has been completed and returned, the committee will review each applicant to ensure that the criteria have been met and, once approved, the applicant will receive signage, marketing materials, guaranteed listings with a variety of tourism-focused organizations and more, all for an annual $100 membership fee.

The Eat Fresh & Local Action Team is anticipating a 2018 opening date for the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail of Earth Day, April 21, so the deadline for applications to be completed and turned into the team is Monday, April 9. For more information, contact Gronert at the email listed above, or visit the Facebook page, Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail (<https://www.facebook.com/wrcft/>).

Langlois Library presents events

LANGLOIS - Southwestern Oregon Prepper's will be presenting an initial organizational meeting at noon on Saturday, March 17, at the Langlois Library. The group will be addressing prepper-related topics and will be discussing upcoming monthly preparedness meetings which will be held at the Langlois Library. SWOP meetings always begin with introductions and questions. Everyone is welcome. For more information, contact the library at 541-348-2066.

Veterans Outreach Day will be held at the Langlois Public Library from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Wednesday, March 21. The Veterans Outreach Day events will continue on every third Wednesday of the month. Veterans are welcome to come and receive help with filing service connection claims, obtain military documents, medical enrollment, housing assistance and additional services.

Art by the Sea Gallery to hold grand opening in new location

BANDON - Art by the Sea Gallery and Studio has relocated and its members invite the community to their grand opening from 2-5 p.m. Saturday, March 10. The new location is next door to The Station Restaurant at 145 Fillmore Ave., S.E., in Old Town Bandon. Refreshments and music by Mark Tierney can be enjoyed by all but the main event is all the art, according to organizers.

Featured artist Dale Karstetter, master wood carver, will be exhibiting his work. Karstetter won the People's Choice Award last year in the Exploring the Third Dimension show at Art by the Sea Gallery. He specializes in wildlife carvings.

Local non-member artists will be exhibiting art in the community show Bright and Bold, for the Love of Color and will be judged by artist Sharon Leahy who said she is "totally enamored by a dab of color!" Leahy is the President of the Bay Area Art Association. Awards will be given out at the reception.

Members of the gallery will have a variety of their works displayed throughout the new space that is light and airy. In addition, the new classroom area is more than double the size of the previous space.

A spring schedule for upcoming classes will be available, and those interested can always find more information on the gallery's website or Facebook page to keep up to date on the latest art happenings.

Art by the Sea Gallery and Studio is located at 145 Fillmore Ave., S.E., Old Town Bandon and is open from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. daily.
