Did you know?

Did you know that the Mayas practiced cosmetic dentistry before Europeans arrived in the New World?

It's true! The Mayas of Central America were very concerned about the appearance of their teeth. Besides using inlays of gold and colored stones, they also shaped their teeth by filing them into sharp points. This was to honor their Sun God, Kinich Ahau.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care From Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Keep your beautiful teeth and smile for a lifetime! We enhance people's lives!

Manipulated photos on display at Library Art Gallery

BANDON – The Bandon Library Art Gallery features “Processing the Image: Manipulated Photographs by Brian York” through Sept. 30.

Brian York begins with a photograph, which is then heavily manipulated and processed using PhotoShop and other programs. The piece is then enhanced with digital hand painting and other effects.
The result is a textured, complex image that feels like a painting, while retaining some of the qualities of a photograph.

York’s attention to color and detail reflect his excellent instincts for which aspects of the original image to alter or enhance and which to leave intact, as well as what colors to saturate or bleed away, which areas to soften, which to sharpen,

in order to create visual tension and emotional impact.

And now through December, the gallery will be displaying a beautiful, handmade quilt that the Bandon Library Friends and Foundation will be raffling off to benefit the library. Tickets are available at the checkout desk.

Cranberry Festival theme contest is here again. And we are shaking it up a bit. Submit your theme idea for the 2018 Cranberry Festival by September 5th and we will let the crowd pick the 2018 theme at this years festival. All entries for the 2018 Cranberry Festival theme need to be dropped off to the Chamber/Visitor Center office at 300 2nd Street S.E. Old Town. For more information, call 347-9616.

Musical couple brings message of hope

BANDON – Greg and Glenda Bostock will bring their uplifting musical and visual presentation to deliver a message of hope through Jesus Christ during a concert at 10:45 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 3, at the Bandon South Coast Assembly of God.

As songwriters, many of the couple's songs have been used nationally and internationally, touching people around the world. With years of experience as professional videographers, they add a multi-media presentation to enhance their soul-stirring music. They also share true life stories that will encourage audiences of all ages.

The Bostocks travel across America ministering hope and encouragement through the stories and songs birthed through their life's journey. They also continue missionary and humanitarian work in Vietnam partnered with an organization called "Mission Vietnam."

The Bandon South Coast

Assembly of God is located at U.S. Highway 101 and 13th Street. Admission is free, but this nonprofit ministry is funded through contributions and support. Donations are tax-deductible. For more information, call 541-347-3216 or go to www.blastoffmusic.org.

OHP assistance at library today

BANDON – Coast Community Health Center will be providing Oregon Health Plan (OHP) assistance from 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 29, at the Bandon Public Library in the J. Merle and Lorna Logan/Friends of the Library meeting room.

A certified application assister from CCHC will be able to complete new and renewal applications and be able to answer any OHP questions. This service is free, confidential and open to all.

For any questions, call the CCHC Bandon outreach office at 541-347-2529 x120.

Benetti's to hold open house Sept. 4

COOS BAY – In a final thank you to the community, Joe Benetti will host an open house on Monday, Sept. 4, at his restaurant at 260 S. Broadway, in Coos Bay.

Benetti is inviting the community to stop by from noon to 4 p.m., to share complimentary food and great company. He hopes folks will share their stories and memories of Benetti's Italian Restaurant, which is closing Sept. 3, after 38 years.

"I'm hoping people will stop by to visit with me and the Benetti's staff, and to make one last memory at Benetti's," Joe Benetti said.

Free hospice volunteer training class offered

BANDON – South Coast Hospice is offering a free 11-week class that helps participants to better support people with terminal illnesses, as well as their caregivers. The class will be held from 1:30-4 p.m. on Thursdays, beginning Sept. 7, at Pacific View Senior Living Community, 1000 Sixth St. W in Bandon.

Each session covers different aspects of the death and dying experience and is taught by knowledgeable professionals with many years of providing compassionate care to those at end of life. This training is required for anyone wishing to volunteer to provide social support, musical performances, pet therapy, run errands, do light house-keeping or lawn work for patients on hospice service. It is also open to anyone who might wish to learn more about the subject or to better help their loved ones should they become ill.

South Coast Hospice believes that the end of life deserves as much beauty, care, and respect as the beginning. Patients should be able to live their final months, weeks, or days as comfortably and enjoyably as possible. It is also recognized that caregivers and family members need support while taking care of their loved one, as well as during the emotional grief process after their loved one's death.

Thanks to the generosity of local business sponsors, there is no charge for the class. Participants are asked to register to ensure enough materials are available.

Those interested or would like more information can contact Doreen Kelly or Krisha Rasmussen at South Coast Hospice at 541-269-2986, or d.kelly@schospice.org or k.rasmussen@schospice.org.

‘Vortex detective’ to speak on Sept. 2

BANDON – There has been much talk about the Bandon vortex. At 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 2, anyone interested will have a chance to hear firsthand about ley lines and vortexes when vortex expert Dan Shaw will speak at the Bandon Public Library, Sprague Room, 1204 11th St. SW.

Shaw has traveled extensively in the U.S. and abroad, researching sacred places with local vortex experts, and he corresponds with researchers all over the world. He will be able to give definitive information about the Bandon vortexes. Many people theorize that people are drawn to Bandon because it is a vortex. Shaw conveys complex scientific ideas to audiences in an understandable, fun way. His live public presentations encompass a wide array of scientific and paranormal subjects, exhibit a collection of inspiring, beautiful images and visionary maps, and involves audiences in engaging, participatory experiences.

Shaw has authored a number of books on vortexes, including, “Vortex Field Guide: North America,” “Letters from the Vortex” and “U.S. Vortexes 54 Miles Wide.” He has been on numerous television shows, and YouTube videos. See the Facebook page “Bandon City of Light” for links to his websites.

There is no fee to attend the presentation, but donations will be welcome to cover Shaw’s travel expenses.

Golf tournament to benefit veterans

BANDON – The Bandon by the Sea Rotary Club and Coos Bay Toyota are teaming up to play golf and benefit Coos County veterans.

The fundraising golf tournament will be held on Monday, Sept. 11, at Bandon Crossings Golf Course. Tee time is 10 a.m. for the shotgun start. Cost is $70 and includes green fees, golf cart and lunch at 3:30 p.m., and a cash bar. A hole in one nets a $10,000 cash award.

All proceeds will go to the Southern Oregon Veterans Association.

“No handicap required, just a fun day to support our veterans,” said Mary Carol Roberson, one of the event’s organizers.

Registration can be made through the Bandon Crossings pro shop, 541-347-3232.

For more information, contact Roberson at 541-366-1371.
