Langlois library offers events

LANGLOIS - Play and Learn Story Time will be held at the Langlois Public Library on selected Fridays from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The Langlois Public Library is partnering with Kaleidoscope Play and Learn to bring an interactive story time for parents or caregivers and their children ages 0-5. There will be stories, crafts, games and fun learning experiences. The story times will be held Fridays on Jan. 19, 26 and Feb. 2, 9, 16 and 23, and March 2. For more information call the Langlois Public Library at 541-348-2066.

A Night at the Library, a movie night, will be held at 6 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 12. Come watch “A Roman Holiday” and snack on some popcorn. Bring a comfy pillow, a snack to share, but above all bring yourself and enjoy this Oscar winning comedy romance. This 1953 movie is not rated, but according to modern standards the rating would be PG-13.

Photos, wood sculptures on display at library

BANDON - The Bandon Library Art Gallery features “Melancholia” - photographs by Manuela Durson, along with wood sculptures by Dan Sawyer. The exhibits will be on display through Jan. 31.

The minimalist photographs of Durson contain a spare but vibrant beauty. These strong, uncluttered images are imbued with a melancholic spirit, but not a negative one. On the contrary, they evoke the silent, profound experience of being alone with nature in a depopulated world. The traces of humanity she does make note of, the decrepit “Lone Dory” and the rotted remains of a pier in “Into the Blue” only emphasize the contemplative solitude of the moment.

These photographs were taken all along the West Coast, from Mexico to Oregon.

Sawyer gathers driftwood from Bandon and other beaches, and transforms it into free-form sculpture. He emphasizes the wood’s innate characteristics through sanding and polishing and may cut into the original piece to find its sculptural essence. With their curved lines and rounded surfaces, these sculptures flow like the sea that cast them up.

The Bandon Library Art Gallery is located in the foyer of the library, 1204 11th St. SW.
SpotLines Winter Edition Available

SOUTH COAST - The winter edition of SpotLines is available at libraries, art galleries and book stores from North Bend to Brookings and east to Coquille. Be sure to stop by one of the locations to pick up a free copy of SpotLines, a quarterly zine of poetry and artwork from southwest Oregon contributors of all ages.

In Bandon, SpotLines is available at the Bandon library, WinterRiver Books, Second Street Gallery, Art by the Sea Gallery and Studio, Riverside Studios, Washed Ashore and Kimberly’s Books. In World Famous Langlois, the zine is on display at the library, Raincoast Arts, Floras Lake Coffee Co. and Langlois Wool Co.

Andy Hackbarth to perform in Coos Bay on Jan. 16

COOS BAY - Award-winning classical, Spanish, fingerstyle guitarist Andy Hackbarth pays tribute to the “Father of the Classical Guitar,” Andres Segovia, in a concert at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 16, at The Egyptian Theatre in Coos Bay. Doors will open 45 minutes prior to the start of the concert.

Hackbarth pays homage to Andres Segovia through his traditional Spanish fingerstyle work. His current touring show, “A Tribute to Segovia,” features instrumental selections and short stories about Segovia’s life and music. This eclectic musical journey transports listeners from the music of Bach and the cathedrals of Germany, to the hills of Spain and the work of Albeniz and Tarrega; from classical Europe, to the southern tip of South America. “A Tribute to Segovia” also looks to modern music and how Segovia’s work has influenced the contemporary guitar world.

The Coos County Community Concert Association is an all-volunteer, subscription-based organization offering an affordably priced concert series each year. Tickets are $60 for the season (three shows remaining) and $30 for individual shows.

For more information, contact Jay Farr at 541-297-4008 or visit the Coos County Community Concert Association's website at www.cccca.com.
Dolphin Playhouse presents staged reading of ‘A Gathering of Finches’

COOS BAY - The Dolphin Players will present one weekend of staged readings of a new play “A Gathering of Finches,” by Judith Elliot McDonald, adapted from the book “A Gathering of Finches” by Jane Kirkpatrick.

These performances will be held on Jan. 19, 20 and 21 at the Dolphin Playhouse, 580 Newmark, Coos Bay. Friday and Saturday performances will be at 7 pm. Sunday will be at 2 pm. There will be a talk-back with the author following each performance. Admission is $8. Three Bandon residents are in the show: Robin Miller, Johnna Hickox and Cathy Underdown, along with several other South Coast residents.

These staged readings are the final step in the development of a new play. “A Gathering of Finches” tells the story of the tangled life of Cassie Hendrick Stearns Simpson, who was the wife of Louis Simpson, South Coast entrepreneur and founder of the City of North Bend. Cassie Simpson was the inspiration for the creation of Shore Acres, an oceanfront estate near Coos Bay which is now an Oregon State Park. Her relationship with Louis was tumultuous and scandalous for the period.

Southwestern to hold OCCI scholarship fundraiser

COOS BAY - Southwestern Oregon Community College Foundation and the Oregon Coast Culinary Institute will host Uncorking Opportunity! on Friday, Jan. 19. The event is scheduled from 6 to 8 p.m., at the Oregon Coast Culinary Institute, 1988 Newmark Ave., Coos Bay. Uncorking Opportunity! is the college’s fourth-annual scholarship fundraiser, featuring an evening of conversation, excellent hors d’oeuvres by OCCI chefs paired with fine wines from Oregon vineyards. Six wines will be featured, including those from Tyee Winery of Corvallis, Abacela of Roseburg and Pike Road Wines of Carlton, among others.

Tickets are $75 per person. Thanks to sponsor support, 100 percent of ticket proceeds will go to scholarships at OCCI and Southwestern’s Coos and Curry campuses. For more information or to purchase tickets, contact the Southwestern Foundation at 541-888-7211, 541-888-7209, or email foundation@socc.edu.
