U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary offers boat safety checks

COOS BAY - The U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary will offer a free vessel safety check from 8 a.m.-2 p.m., Saturday, May 19, at the Englund Marine and Industrial Supply parking lot, 91146 Cape Arago Highway, Coos Bay.

The U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 51 Coos Bay members offer to the boating public a free boat safety inspection. The USCG trained examiners will certify the boat if it meets Oregon and federal U.S. Coast Guard boating laws for equipment and will issue a current decal certifying compliance.

The examiners will also make recommendations to boat owners for operation in local waters.

The vessel safety check is available by appointment at the owner's location in the Coos Bay, North Bend, Lakeside, Winchester Bay, Reedsport and Bandon areas.

For additional information and to make arrangements for a vessel safety check inspection, call 530-713-1811 for Winchester Bay and Lakeside; 541-329-0396 for Bandon; and 541-888-6200 or 541-267-6152 for North Bend, Coos Bay and Charleston.

UO's On The Rocks coming to Sprague

BANDON - Bandon Showcase presents its final concert of the 2017-18 season with On The Rocks at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, May 5, at the Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. SW, in Bandon.

On The Rocks is the premiere all-male a cappella group from the University of Oregon. Since 1999, On The Rocks has continued to rise and make music that the public loves.

Current members include 12 singers and the group's leader, Seven Converse from Sixes, a Bandon High School graduate. Converse was honored at the state level while in high school for his vocal and instrumental abilities. He was named Bay Area Teen Idol in 2015 at the age of 16. He then won first place at the Curry Talent Round-Up at the Curry County Fair and took first in the youth division at the Oregon State Fair Talent Search in August, 2016. He also is a talented trombone player.

Converse is now a sophomore at the University of Oregon, pursuing a degree in music to prepare for a professional career as a vocalist and instrumentalist. His five siblings and father Ken and Mother Canada still live in Sixes, south of Bandon. On The Rocks performs every Friday on the University of Oregon campus and just released their seventh studio album. For more information, visit www.uoontherocks.com.

Tickets cost $25 each, reserved seating and are available at Bandon Mercantile, 541-347-4341, at bandonshowcase.org or at the door. Complimentary wine and desserts during intermission are provided by Edgewaters and Coastal Mist.

Coast Guard Auxiliary offers boating class

CHARLESTON - The U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary will conduct an eight-hour boating safety education course on Saturday, May 19, in Charleston.

The course covers the basics of boating safety, rules of the road and Oregon boating laws. A test at the end of the course will qualify boaters for their Boater Education Card, under the Oregon Mandatory Boater Education Program.

The Boater Education Card is required for all motorboat operators of all ages for boats over 10 horsepower. Additional provisions apply to youths. The cost of the course and materials is $15.

Pre-registration is required. To register for the class, call 541-267-6152.

Bandon Showcase presents On The Rocks on May 5

BANDON - Bandon Showcase presents its final concert of the 2017-18 season with On The Rocks at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, May 5, at the Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. SW, in Bandon.

On The Rocks is the premiere all-male a cappella group from the University of Oregon. Since 1999, when Peter Hollens and Leo DaSilva brought modern a cappella to the West Coast, On The Rocks has continued to rise and make music that the public loves.

Current members include the group's leader, Seven Converse from Sixes, a Bandon High School graduate. Converse was honored at the state level while in high school for his vocal and instrumental abilities. He was named Bay Area Teen Idol in 2015 at the age of 16. He then won first place at the Curry Talent Round-Up at the Curry County Fair and took first in the youth division at the Oregon State Fair Talent Search in August, 2016. He also is a talented trombone player.

Converse is now a sophomore at the University of Oregon, pursuing a degree in music to prepare for a professional career as a vocalist and instrumentalist. His five siblings and father Ken and Mother Canada still live in Sixes, south of Bandon.

Other On The Rocks members include Jasper Freedom, Ryan Strong, Eric Strand, Marcus Raz, Tristan Schmunk, Ryan Fish, Erik Baun, Ben Pramuk, Colton Sample and Evan Hathaway.

So far, On The Rocks has produced six studio albums, multiple viral videos, been featured on NBC's "The Sing Off," gone on numerous national tours and performed with A-list artists including Boyz 2 Men and Kid Cudi.

They perform every Friday on the University of Oregon campus and are currently in the process of producing their seventh studio album.

For more information, visit www.uoontherocks.com. Tickets cost $25 each, reserved seating and are available at Bandon Mercantile, 541-347-4341, at bandonshowcase.org or at the door.

Complimentary wine and desserts during intermission are provided by Edgewaters and Coastal Mist.

National Day of Prayer observation May 3

BANDON - The Bandon Ministerial Association invites the community to join in prayer from 12:10-12:30 p.m. Thursday, May 3, in front of Bandon City Hall, 555 Highway 101.

The National Day of Prayer is an annual observance held on the first Thursday of May, inviting people of all faiths to join in prayer. It was created in 1952 by a joint resolution of the United States Congress.

In addition to praying for the local community and nation, community members as well as clergy will offer prayers for young people and schools, for healthcare workers, and for those serving in the military.

The Bandon Ministerial Association invites the entire community to gather together in this observance.

Health & Fitness Walk coming May 12

COOS BAY - The Coos County Women's Health Coalition will host their 10th annual Health & Fitness event on Saturday, May 12. The free walk is open to all and is sponsored by the Zonta Club of Coos Bay Area, the Coos County Women's Health Coalition, Southwestern Oregon Community College, Bay Area Hospital, Oregon State University Extension Family & Community Health, Bay Cities Ambulance and South Coast Striders.

The goal of the Women's Health Coalition is to promote healthy lifestyles for the women of Coos County by providing educational information on women's issues and encouraging healthy activities for the entire family. The event is from 10 am to 1 pm at Pony Village Mall in North Bend. The event will include speakers, exhibitors, fitness demonstrations, power stations, music, raffle prizes and more!

Over 250 walkers and 20 exhibitors participated in last year's event.

Organizers are excited to announce that a new component has been added to this year's event. Power stations and demonstrations will enable walkers to learn proper techniques of various health-related activities.

Interested in being an event exhibitor/vendor? Nonprofit based agencies are free; other vendors are $15/table. Location will be assigned on a first-come basis so request your exhibitor/vendor application packet today by contacting Deb Nicholls at dnicholls@socc.edu, 541-888-7400.
