Since the State is not putting out a Voters Pamphlet we are publishing one for Tillamook County. Learn about each candidate in our special voters guide section highlighting contested races in the Special Districts and Boards election taking place May 18 in Tillamook County.

Be an informed voter to these districts and boards, these people are the decision makers for our Schools, Transportation District, Communications District 911, water boards and more.

This edition will be a valuable tool with great readership. Advertise your message and reach the family decision makers in Tillamook County.

This will be inserted in the Headlight Herald on May 4 and in the North Coast Citizen on May 6.
