The Spot in Garibaldi

Family owned, featuring locally sourced seafood

The Spot was founded in 2013 when Lisa and Kelly Barnett bought the old Troller's Charter dock and transformed it into "Your Seafood Destination"

According to the Barnetts they are truly a "Mom and Pop" seafood market Lisa runs the dock and Kelly fishes the "Bentus" all year for rockfishes and lingcod while spring to fall is salmon season and tuna come close in the late summer. Kelly catches most of the fish but we also buy fish, crab and clams from Garibaldi boats to sell at The Spot.

The Spot specializes in live local seafood, Kelly keeps lingcod, rockfish and cabezon live on the boat and the dock has a full live system for fish and crabs so even in stormy weather you can get the fresh "catch of the day" at The Spot. Clams and oysters at The Spot are kept live as well.

The Barnetts smoke fish, oysters scallops and more in a homemade smoker on the dock. Spot-On canned tuna and salmon are available to buy at the dock or can be shipped USPS priority mail anywhere in the U.S.A. Stop by and say Hi

Local businesses experience first holiday shopping season

Have you heard that for every purchase made at a small business, a local owner does a happy dance? Whether looking for a gift, experience, or gift certificate, downtown Tillamook has many local business that can complete your gift-giving list. This season, there are several downtown business that are entering their first holiday shopping season. Consider putting the following businesses and their offerings on your wish lists this year.

Hancock Photography Print Studio

Kevin Hancock's favorite place to photograph is the Bayocean Peninsula.

"Photography has been a part of my life since 2012, when I first picked up a camera and quickly became drawn to the way photography can preserve fleeting moments and tell meaningful stories," said Hancock. "Living on the Oregon Coast has deeply shaped my work. Much of my photography focuses on the landscapes, wildlife, and changing moods of this region—from dramatic storms rolling over Tillamook Bay to quiet moments with coastal wildlife in places like Cape Meares and Cape Kiwanda. My goal is to create images that help people feel connected to the natural world and appreciate the beauty that exists close to home."

Hancock took his passion for photography and opened Hancock Photography Print Studio in downtown Tillamook.

"In addition to offering my own artwork, I provide professional photo printing, art digitization services, film negative scanning, and workshops that help others learn photography, printing, and creative skills," he said. "I also work with local artists by helping them reproduce and share their work through high-quality printing and gallery opportunities."

This season, Hancock Photography Print Studio has several gift options:

- A locals discount: Tillamook County residents get 20 percent off photo prints (matte, satin, or gloss) up to 13x19" through Dec 31. Just show your ID or mention this Tillamook Headlight Herald Article
- Gift certificates are available for any service: prints, framing/matting, digitization, or workshops.
- Family photo & film digitization: turn old slides, negatives, and prints into digital files and new prints. It makes a meaningful gift. Order by 11/31 for Christmas.
- For local artists: Artwork digitization and giclée fine art prints, so you can turn originals into prints to sell or give.
- Local art & gifts: work by area artists as well as Hancock
- 2027 calendar "The Awesome World of Honey Bees"

Hancock Studio also hosts other artists whose work aligns with the mission of supporting local creativity and providing unique products to the community and visitors. An artist reception for Chris Brotherton will be held on Friday, December 4, 4 – 8 p.m. Refreshments will be provided.

"Whether you're purchasing artwork, printing your own images, learning photography, or simply stopping by to explore local art, I'm grateful you're here," Hancock said. "My hope is that this space inspires creativity, encourages connection, and helps people see the natural beauty around them in a new way."

Hancock Photography Print Studio is located at 2014 Henson Plaza, Tillamook. Open Wednesday – Saturday, 10 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. or by appointment. Visit: hancockphotographystudio.com for additional information.

Neighbors helping neighbors: Tillamook's Christmas Basket Program returns for 2026, applications now open

Rebecca Dougherty
Tillamook Christmas Basket Program

Food insecurity continues to affect many families in Tillamook County, making the Christmas Basket Program an important source of support. For two decades, volunteers and local providers have joined together to bring meaningful and nourishing holiday baskets to families in need.

Historically, the Salvation Army operated a countywide food and gift program, but after the organization closed its doors, five local churches joined together to form the Tillamook Ecumenical Community to continue the work. When that committee later dissolved, a small group of dedicated volunteers stepped forward to keep the Christmas Basket program alive.

At its peak, the program served up to 279 families—more than 1,080 adults and children—during the holiday season. Volunteers remain committed to supporting households facing financial hardship, especially as food insecurity continues to rise in Tillamook County.

This year, the Christmas Basket Program continues under the guidance of volunteers. After applications are collected, they will be sorted by family size—including single adults and seniors—and local providers and individuals will be invited to "adopt" families. This group has also partnered with the Tillamook Fire Department's Toy Drive to provide age appropriate gifts for children.

Applications Available

Applications for the Christmas Basket Program are now available at CARE, Inc., which will assist only with handing out and receiving applications on behalf of the volunteers.

CARE, INC., 2310 1st Street, Suite 2, weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The completed applications must be returned by November 18, 2026, and will be filled on a first come, first served basis.

A Tree-mendous Holiday Tradition

It's that time of year that the Tillamook County Pioneer Museum (TCPM) branches out, spruces up, and is ready for festive time that you won't want to miss.

The 22nd annual Festival of Trees fundraiser returns this December with an expanded schedule to allow for even more people to enjoy the magic of the season. Festival of Trees includes four events: two free community celebrations and two fundraiser events.

"We've expanded our cherished tradition into a month-long holiday celebration filled with community spirit, merry gatherings, and opportunities to support TCPM's mission of preserving and interpreting Tillamook County's cultural and natural history," TCPM Executive Director Peyton Tracy said. "We are incredibly grateful to our community members and businesses who sponsor and decorate our forest of creative Christmas trees for everyone to enjoy at all of our holiday events throughout the month of December."

To harness the festivity of the most wonderful time of the year, the Museum will be decked and trimmed with Christmas décor trees graciously sponsored by supporters.

The month-long celebration will kick off with Twinkling Trees Family Night on Saturday, December 5, from 3-7 p.m. The evening will correspond with the City of Tillamook's Christmas Tree lighting ceremony and light parade. The Museum's doors will be open and admission is free for visitors to enjoy the decorated trees, snap family photos, and participate in a kids' holiday scavenger hunt to win a light-up prize.

The Museum will also be participating in the Tillamook Area Chamber of Commerce's December Sip+Shop on Friday, December 11 from 5 – 7 p.m.; join for free admission, free sips, and a preview of the next day's big event.

The traditional holiday fundraiser, the Festival of Trees Gala and Silent Auction, will be on Saturday, December 12 from 5 - 8 p.m. Hosted at TCPM, the Gala features good food, good music, and good friends gathered to celebrate together and support the museum. The event will also feature a silent auction both in-person and for the first time, online! Preordered tickets are $30, or $35 at the door.

To end the season, TCPM will host a Holiday High Tea on Saturday, December 19 at the Pacific Restaurant. There will be two seatings, one at 11 a.m. and one at 2 p.m. Both seatings will include tea, a buffet, and highlights from TCPM's archive for guests to explore during the event. Enjoy time spent with other community members during this cozy, Christmas-themed celebration. Tickets are $50 for adults and $30 for kids.

Tickets for both the Gala and the Holiday High Tea are on sale now at tcpm.org.

"With your help, we're one step closer to meeting our mission of preserving and presenting Tillamook County history for all," Tracy said.

Silent auction contributions, sponsorships, and monetary donations are accepted to support the Museum's biggest fundraiser of the year. If you wish to support the Museum's Festival of Trees event, email festival@tcpm.org or visit the Museum at 2106 Second Street in Tillamook.

Twin Rocks Friends Camp hosts 3rd Annual Gingerbread Party

Twin Rocks Friends Camp

Sugar, spice, and everything nice! Twin Rocks Friends Camp is inviting the community to celebrate the season with a day of festive fun at its third annual Gingerbread House Party.

Set for Saturday, December 5, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., the family-friendly celebration will fill the Twin Rocks campus with holiday activities, seasonal treats, music, and plenty of Christmas spirit.

"Each year our event has grown to include more guests and activities," Twin Rocks Development Director Liz Seume said. "This year we've expanded by adding a life-size inflatable human snow globe for visitors to take picture in while balloons swirl around them like snow."

With activities spread throughout the camp's buildings, visitors can explore the campus while enjoying a variety of free holiday experiences.

Families can get creative with ornament making and nativity-inspired stained glass art projects, warm up with cocoa and popcorn, or settle in for story time with Mrs. Claus. Santa will also be on hand for professional portraits, with families receiving their photos free through a digital link.

For those looking to roll up their sleeves and create something festive, additional activities include gingerbread house decorating and wreath-making workshops.

And these aren't your average gingerbread houses.

"The gingerbread houses are real food with real ingredients: molasses, ginger, and all the spices. You'll actually want to eat these when you're done," Seume said. "Each home-baked house includes the candy for decorating and when you're finished, we'll clean up the mess!"

Gingerbread houses cost $15 each, while wreathmaking is $20. All supplies are included, and payment will be collected at the event. Advance reservations are encouraged to secure a spot.

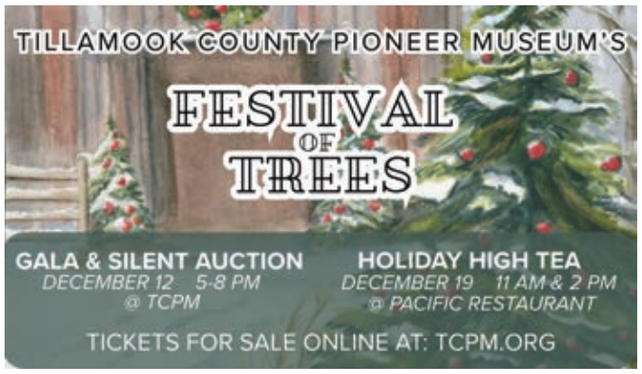

Holiday festivities wouldn't be complete without something delicious to eat. The Undertow, the camp's on-site coffee shop, will be serving espresso drinks, while the dining hall will offer German-inspired concessions, including bratwurst, pretzels, and more.

For families who want to extend the fun, Twin Rocks is also offering the opportunity to stay overnight for one or two nights and enjoy the full camp experience.

Admission and parking are free, with staff available to help direct visitors. Although admission is free, guests are kindly asked to RSVP in advance.

For event details, activity reservations, or to RSVP, visit twinrocks.org/camp/gingerbread-house-party/.

From Manzanita to Neskowin, Tillamook County's Shop Small Sweepstakes is Back

We are so excited to bring back the Tillamook County Shop Small Sweepstakes. If last year taught us anything, it's that this community knows how to show up and have a great time. From celebrating weekly prize winners to visiting incredible local shop owners, the energy was contagious. Seeing your comments, tags and smiles on social media made every moment worth it.

This sweepstakes isn't just for downtown; it's for every single corner of Tillamook County. Shopping locally supports our entire region, from Manzanita all the way down to Neskowin. In fact, Rockaway Beach blew us away last year with an incredible number of submissions, and we see them rolling in strong again this year. We can't wait to see that same competitive energy across the entire county this season.

Whether you are grabbing coffee in Pacific City, exploring small businesses in Nehalem, picking up snacks in Bay City or visiting Garibaldi, Tillamook, Netarts or Neskowin, every zip code in Tillamook County counts. Every locally owned shop, market and storefront makes up the heart of our community. Let's show and support local everywhere we go, and make sure every town gets in on the fun.

Shopping local makes a bigger impact than you might think. According to research shared by the American Independent Business Alliance (AMIBA), every dollar spent at an independent, locally owned business generates significantly more local economic activity than spending at a national chain or non-local retailer. In fact, studies show that approximately 52.9% of each purchase at a local independent business is recirculated locally, compared to just 13.6% at chain stores. That means more money supporting local jobs, businesses, services, and community investments. Those dollars create a ripple effect that helps our entire community.

The Shop Small Sweepstakes officially runs from now through December 31st. Every time you make a purchase at a locally owned business anywhere in Tillamook County, you can enter to win weekly gift card prizes or the $1,000 grand prize in Sweepstakes Bucks.

Plus, when a winning shopper is drawn, the local business where they made that purchase wins $500 in Sweepstakes Bucks too. Last year, our winning business was The Fish Peddler. It's a fantastic incentive for merchants to hand out entry cards with every transaction and encourage everyone to participate.

This year, we're feeling a bit competitive. We want to break record numbers for receipt turn-ins. Our primary focus is to champion, highlight, and advocate for our local business community. Every receipt turned in builds momentum for our regional economy, so let's make this our biggest year yet.

Participating is simple: just make a purchase at any locally owned business in Tillamook County and hang onto your receipt. To submit your entry, text a photo of your receipt along with your full name to 503-664-0464 (save this number in your phone for quick and easy submissions.), or drop off your physical receipt at Chamber HQ at 208 Main Ave, Tillamook. Don't forget, every coffee, couch or oil change from a small business earns you an entry into our drawing, and we'd love to draw your name.

A huge thank you to our generous sponsors for making this possible: Oregon Coast Bank, Rob Trost Real Estate and Sand Dollar Restaurant & Lounge.
