Dave Bartholet Wildlife Artist LLC

2027 Tillamook Headlight Herald Home & Garden Show

We are excited to announce that wildlife artist Dave Bartholet is returning to the home and garden show in 2027 after several years' absence. He has been a very popular vendor with a large variety of prints, originals and products depicting regional wildlife, local attractions and other topics of interest.

Dave is known for his very distinct and original approach to painting. His medium is watercolor. Having spent his early childhood in Wyoming, his love for wildlife was forged from the get-go. He started his journey as a professional artist selling his original watercolors through galleries. Since the early '80s, he has traveled throughout the West to participate in juried art shows and other events.

Over the years, Dave has produced over 400 series of limited-edition prints and, more recently, has expanded to T-shirts, fabric design, cross-stitch kit designs and much more. He has illustrated many magazines and book covers, as well as being commissioned to do the mural for the National Wildlife Refuge 100-year recognition, a 30-by-50-foot effort.

A self-taught artist, Dave believes he was born to paint and credits God for his natural ability. He often says he paints not because he can, but because he must. It is a gift!

We invite you to come visit Dave during the 2027 Tillamook Headlight Herald Home and Garden Show.
