COVID-19 update: 7 new confirmed positive cases vaccines continue

Hilary Dorsey
Staff Writer

Tillamook County Health Department reported seven new confirmed positive COVID-19 cases this week, as of Friday morning, Feb. 19. The health department is monitoring 19 people.

“We didn’t have any hospitalizations this week,” Administrator Marlene Putman said during a Tillamook County Leadership update Feb. 19.

Oregon Health Authority (OHA) reports 358 confirmed positive cases overall for Tillamook County, as of Thursday, Feb. 18.

Putman said Tillamook County is likely to remain in Lower Risk. County risk level adjustments will be announced Tuesday, Feb. 23, and in effect Friday, Feb. 26.

Emergency Preparedness Coordinator Ed Colson said the vaccine process continues to follow OHA’s vaccine plan. Vaccine providers are working to vaccinate those in Phase 1B. To date, 3,369 vaccines have been administered in the county since December.

“We encourage all eligible under Phase 1A, as well as Groups 1-5 of Phase 1B to utilize the online enrollment form,” Colson said. “That’s available on our website in English or Spanish.”

Those eligible for a vaccine are encouraged to utilize on the online enrollment form. Those eligible include Phase 1A and those in Groups 1-4 in Phase 1B, which include child care providers and those 65 and older. For those completed enrollments, they are automatically put on a list to be contacted when vaccine doses are available.

The public health team is scheduling around 300-350 doses per week, Colson said. They hope to increase it to 600 vaccines per week.

“The demand for the vaccine continues to grow each week,” Colson said. “We want to ensure each eligible age group gets a priority two-week period before adding in that new eligibility age group.”

When a provider from the health department or a vaccine partner calls you, they will always identify themselves and the organization they are working for. They will not ask for payment information over the phone.

Colson said outreach efforts would continue with vaccine partners to reach those eligible groups. Safeway and Tillamook Pharmacy are now able to schedule vaccines online for those eligible. You can find more information about scheduling an appointment with Safeway at <https://bit.ly/3k3Z5NH>

ment’s eligibility forms can be found at <https://tillamookchc.org/coronavirus/vaccines/>

If you need help filling out the enrollment form, call the vaccine line at 503-842-3914 or email tcchc@co.tillamook.or.us.

Adventist Health Tillamook President Eric Swanson said 1,274 vaccines have been delivered. As of Friday, Feb. 19, 82 percent of medical staff have been vaccinated.

◆ TREACHEROUS WATER

Four people pulled from bay after boat capsizes

Staff

Four people have been pulled from the water after their 38-foot fishing boat capsized at the Tillamook bar entrance, according to the U.S. Coast Guard.

The incident occurred at approximately 4:40 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 20. Two of the four were responsive, two were unresponsive, according to the Coast Guard. All individuals were taken to local hospitals. The boat remained overturned on the south jetty at the Tillamook bar entrance.

The fishing vessel was being watched by Coast Guard personnel at a watch tower as it crossed the bar to return to port when it reportedly capsized. The watch tower crew immediately dispatched rescue crews from Tillamook in Garibaldi to respond to the overturned vessel.

The names of the people rescued, and the identification of the vessel were not immediately available.

Two marine deputies from the Tillamook County Sheriff’s Office assisted in the rescue.

boat flipped and capsized during an outgoing tide. Neither was wearing a personal flotation device.

Crews from the Netarts-Oceanside Fire District, Tillamook Ambulance, Tillamook County Sheriff’s Office, Oregon State Police and the US Coast Guard were alerted Feb. 11 by Tillamook County Dispatch at approximately 3 p.m. of a capsized boat with two people in the water in Netarts Bay. The outgoing tide quickly pulled them to the ocean where the crews from Netarts Oceanside Fire District and the USCG feverishly searched for them on watercraft and a helicopter.

According to Netarts-Oceanside Fire District, the individuals were found approximately a mile from shore, unresponsive and brought in separately to responders on shore, who then transferred the male and female to awaiting ambulances. The victims were transported to Adventist Health Tillamook Hospital where attempts were made to revive them. Sadly neither person was able to be revived.

The Netarts Oceanside Fire District wants to remind everyone, when boating in the bay, pay attention to the tides and always wear a personal flotation device.

Fatal Hwy 22 crash takes lives of two Tillamook County men

Staff

Oregon State Police Troopers and emergency personnel responded to a two-vehicle fatal crash on Hwy 22 near milepost 1, east of Hebo last week, that took the lives of two men who reside in Tillamook County.

According to a release from the state police, crews responded at 10:55 a.m. on Thursday Feb. 18 to the crash.

The preliminary investigation revealed, a Ford Ranger, operated by Jonathan Moreland (28) of Tillamook, was eastbound when it crossed into the westbound lane and collided with a Dodge Ram 3500, towing a trailer, operated by Joshua Brown (25) of New-berg.

Moreland and a passenger in the Ford Ranger, Jimmie Toll (46) of Bay City, sustained fatal injuries and were pronounced deceased at the scene.

Two other passengers in the Ford Ranger, Dominic Reeves (18) of Tillamook and Alexis Bacon (20) of Amity, were transported to the hospital with injuries.

Brown was not injured. Hwy 22 was closed for approximately four hours following the crash.

OSP was assisted by the Tillamook County Sheriff’s Office, Nestucca Rural Fire Department, Oregon Department of Transportation, and the Tillamook County District Attorney’s Office.

Sheriff deputies rescue stranded motorist

Tillamook County Sheriff’s Office deputies Tom Mayne and Billy Cloud, along with US Forest Service (USFS) Forest Protection Officer (FPO) Travis Sisco, beginning at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 13, spent the day cutting their way through hundreds of downed trees on the USFS 8533 Road in south Tillamook County to reach stranded motorists who were stuck behind miles of downed trees.

According to the sheriff’s office, the rescuers hiked up the snow-covered road, cutting and removing trees in their way, then drove their trucks up behind them. Cloud’s 16-year-old son, Brody, was riding along with his dad, and was also put to work.

“Billy and Travis are cutting machines, so me and Brody cleared the trees and logs from the road after they were cut free,” said Mayne. “There were hundreds of trees down.”

As darkness fell, the road got steeper. Deputies had been in touch with the motorists throughout the day. One of stranded motorists had been camping and had several days’ worth of food, supplies and fire-start remaining.

The motorists told deputies they were fine spending another night where they were, the sheriff’s office said. After hours of carving their way nine miles in, it was decided to return in the morning, fresh and ready to resume cutting.

On Sunday morning, Feb. 14, Mayne, Griffith, Awe and Greiner were determined to push their way through to the motorists. After several hours and as many miles on the USFS 1400 Rd, they reached the stranded folks at South Lake. The two men in the pick-up truck were from Hillsboro, and in addition to the barricade of fallen trees, their 4WD system had failed, making a self-extraction impossible.

The sheriff’s office said the other motorist was from Texas and had been camping. He had plenty of supplies, but no chainsaw, and a branch had fallen through the rear hatch of his parked Jeep. The mission ended with everyone and all vehicles safely back on the pavement.

“Had there been any injuries, or lack of shelter, supplies or loss of contact, our tactics would have been much different. But based on all of that, and freezing rain, darkness, and the danger of cutting at night, we felt it was the best decision to return the next day,” said Mayne. “It’s hard to describe the amount of trees down; it was insane.”

And if that wasn’t enough excitement in the woods, later on Feb. 14, Cloud and

A total of 131 COVID-19 vaccines were administered Tuesday, Feb. 16, the Tillamook County Health Department reported Wednesday, Feb. 17, during a Tillamook County Board of Commissioners meeting. As of Feb. 16, 1,921 Phase 1A primary doses were issued.

“We still encourage all who are eligible under Phase 1A, and within those Groups 1-5 of Phase 1B to use our online form, which is available in English and Spanish on our website,” Emergency Coordinator Ed Colson said. “Once they fill out those enrollments, they automatically get put on a list to be contacted for an appointment when available.”

Due to high call volumes, the health department is unable to schedule appointments by phone or email. Health center staff or a vaccine partner will contact those individuals who have filled out an eligibility form for an appointment.

“The exact site of where vaccinations happen is going to be dependent on our vaccine supply we receive, as well as staffing,” Colson said. “When we call you, details of where that site will be provided when either our staff or when one of the vaccine partners call to schedule.”

State plans for more equitable vaccine distribution

Oregon is faring better than other states during the COVID-19 pandemic — but not by every measure.

During a press conference Feb. 19, state health officials discussed plans to address racial and ethnic disparities in who’s getting the COVID-19 vaccine, as well as other news about the status of the pandemic across the state.

“At a minimum, we need to make sure our vaccinations proportionately reflect the faces of our communities,” said Oregon Health Authority Director Patrick Allen. “But we want to do more. Our COVID-19 efforts should be a model for how we’re eliminating health disparities in Oregon.”

Allen pointed to a few statistics which show the inequities in Oregon’s vaccine distribution. He said the state’s Latino population has the most pronounced disparities: While Latinos make up 13% of the population and 26% of the state’s COVID-19 cases, Allen said it only accounts for about 5% of the vaccines administered to date.

On the other hand, white people make up 75% of the population and about half of the state’s virus cases, but 74% of the vaccines distributed, Allen said.

Allen went on to say that the effects of the pandemic have hit communities of color the hardest, particularly because those communities tend to see higher rates of underlying conditions due to uneven access to care and a history of unfair treatment.

“I want to be perfectly clear, health inequities are

Griffith responded to the Jordan Creek area of the Tillamook State Forest and had to cut their way several miles in to assist another trapped motorist. The man had gotten stranded behind a seemingly endless wall of downed trees.

“Luckily, Blake Miller, a timber faller friend of mine – and a wizard with a chainsaw – was there to assist us. We had to cut about 50-60 trees off of Jordan Creek Rd,” said Cloud. “The man was camping and said that with the number of trees falling, it sounded like a (military) firefight.”

The man’s vehicle was also damaged by falling trees. After a few hours, the motorist was successfully returned to the pavement.

TCSO reminds you before venturing off into the forest, especially in winter, prepare for the unexpected and plan accordingly.

the product of systemic racism, toxic stress, the targeted marketing of harmful products like tobacco and sugary beverages, and other factors. This is not about personal choice,” Allen said. “This is about the weight of larger social inequities that cut short lives and opportunity more often for people in communities of color.”

In response, Allen said the state would promote a more equitable distribution of COVID-19 doses across the state by prioritizing pharmacies and federally qualified health centers which serve communities disproportionately impacted by the virus.

OHA officials also expect those rates to become more equitable as vaccine eligibility expands: Most of the groups already eligible for vaccines skew whiter than the rest of the population yet to be eligible, Allen said.

“Just by simple virtue of who’s eligible, we’ll begin to be able to start addressing that,” Allen said.

Doses up, cases down

State officials on Friday shared a number of positive data points which suggest Oregon is trending in a better direction in the pandemic than many other states across the country.

Governor Kate Brown pointed to the number of schools which have reopened in Oregon as a positive. Over 130,000 students are back in classrooms, more than double the number than eight weeks earlier when Brown directed officials to prioritize school reopenings, the governor said.

“Our kids will benefit greatly from these efforts,” Brown said. “It’s my expectation that more schools will bring students back for in-person learning in the coming weeks.”

Those classroom returns have largely been driven by significant decreases in the state’s rate of new virus cases, hospitalizations and deaths in the past several weeks.

According to State Epidemiologist Dr. Dean Sidelinger, the seven-day rolling average of daily cases is down by two-thirds since the beginning of the year, and virus hospitalizations have dropped by more than half in the same time.

The state’s test positivity rate is down to its lowest point since the state changed how it calculates the figure in mid-November, too, Sidelinger said.

“The downward data trends in cases, hospitalizations and percent positivity reflect the shared sacrifice of Oregonians, and the collaborative efforts of Oregonians to protect their families and their communities by wearing masks, limiting indoor gatherings and keeping physical distance,” Sidelinger said.

One number is steadily increasing, through: The state’s expected allocation of COVID-19 vaccine doses. Despite delays in doses of the Moderna vaccine due to winter storms across the country, OHA officials said the state remains on track with its vaccination timetables.

That means people over 70 will be eligible for the vaccine starting Feb. 22, and those over 65 will be eligible March 1, according to Allen.

“I want to ask people who are newly eligible the same thing I’ve asked everyone who’s come before them: Please be patient,” Allen said. “Vaccines remain limited. We’re getting more doses, but we still don’t have enough to vaccinate everyone on demand.”

Allen said the state expects to receive about 107,000 total doses per week starting next week, up from around 83,000 the week before (not accounting for weather-delayed shipments).

As always, the state officials said there’s still risk of the virus spreading faster across the state with new variants or reduced precautionary measures.

Individuals should continue wearing masks, social distancing and staying home when sick, and anyone who escaped power outages or winter storms by sheltering in someone else’s home should be vigilant for virus symptoms and get tested if they appear, Brown said.

Thank you for a great night, Tillamook

Justin Aufdermauer

Executive Director

If I’ve said it once, I say it every year: the night of the annual Chamber Community Awards Banquet and Auction is my favorite night of the year. Not my birthday. Not Christmas Eve; that particular night tops it for me every year.

When we had to go virtual this year because of Covid, I knew it wasn’t going to be the same in all the ways I loved. What I wasn’t expecting though, was the amazing way the Tillamook community stepped up to support the Chamber. The business community supported us through their donations and sponsorships like I’ve never seen. You guys killed it.

Our silent auction brought in a record-breaking $20,315! Just to put that in perspective, our auction in 2020 was also a record-breaking year, bringing in just over $7,000. The silent auction and oral auction combine raised $36,185 for the Chamber and our programs. I am honestly without words on that one.

While we didn’t have the in-person camaraderie that we all enjoy and, quite frankly, miss at this point, we still had fun chatting with everyone virtually and sharing the great work that the Chamber has been able to accomplish amidst a global pandemic. A point of pride for the banquet each year is the buffet that consists of food from over 15 local restaurants, but in hours after restaurants were shut down to in-person dining – the first time. And let me tell you, it’s all worth it when you hear stories from Jen Malcom, the owner of Downie’s Cafe in Bay City, saying that Tillamook Takeout may as well have saved her business and now she can’t make cinnamon rolls fast enough to keep up with demand. Yeah, we can take credit for coming up with the idea, but we as a community made it happen and made sure our restaurants stayed afloat during one of the toughest times they’ve ever seen. Thank you, Tillamook. You are awesome.

I would be remiss if I didn’t again thank my co-host Brett Hurliman, and my team: Ashley Christensen, Ashley Rushing and Tammy Samagio for their hard work on this event. And a special thank you to Kaylan Sisco, who came in at the last minute to pinch hit on the technical live feed aide and hit it out of the park. Also thank you to our sponsors, and everyone who donated an item to our silent and live auction.

Be sure you go check out the Community Impact Awards video that debuted the night of our virtual auction (posted to our Facebook page and on our website) and have fun remembering all the wonderful things that happened in 2020 – because yes, there were plenty of opportunities to smile through it all.

A group of Cape Meares residents is concerned about potential development of some land on Bayocean Spit. The owner of the land approached Tillamook County about development options. The county responded, concluding that the only allowable use is low-impact recreational uses. The owner has appealed to the Planning Commission. John Harland is encouraging people to attend the virtual meeting of the Planning Commission on February 25 at 7 p.m. (ZOOM meeting link will be on the Tillamook County Community Development website) to show support for the county’s position and to protect the spit.

The Burkes shared a notice they had read about bird feeders. Bacterium salmonella is infecting and killing finches along the west coast and is spreading via backyard bird feeders. Birders ask that you please discontinue feeding wild birds from plate type feeders for at least a month.

Boy, wasn’t that a winter wallop of a storm for the Willamette Valley! Snow, ice, freezing rain, massive power outages...they had it all. And, fortunately, we didn’t. However, we have had weather like that before. There was that winter that Cape Meares

Lake froze over and a neighbor’s toilet bowl cracked; perhaps in the 1970s? It was before we bought our lot in 1986 and built in 1990. But we, too, have seen the lake frozen around the edges. And then there’s the famous winter of Dec. 2007, when we were out of power here in Cape Meares for five days and the wind gusted at hurricane-force speeds. In 2015, a washout on Bayocean Road isolated Cape Meares for a short period of time before a temporary (since permanent!) bridge was built.

Pete Steen, as the Seaview neighborhood’s emergency preparedness captain, offers the following emergency preparation advice:

- Have plenty of water on hand, both for drinking and toilet flushing (set up rain barrels for the latter);
- Buy a large-capacity water filter, such as a Berkey;
- Have enough canned food to last 30 days;

- Buy and maintain a generator;
- Keep extra supplies of gasoline and/or propane on hand for your generator;
- Charge battery storage devices, such as mophies, on a regular schedule so that they may provide battery backup for cell phones, tablets and computers; and,
- Be prepared, not scared!

Have you been seeing double, or triple? Perhaps so! Three neighbors in a row—Sue Beckman, Narayan Lincoln, and I—have the same raincoat, in the same deep-wine color. It’s waterproof and breathable; perfect for our weather. Check out the “shoreline” jacket by Carhartt.

There is some minor building going on in Cape Meares. One neighbor is building a nice, strong storage shed in his front yard. Another is reroofing. A third is having awnings put over both the door to his house and the garage door. Come better weather, bigger construction will start. We know of one couple who bought a lot on 6th St. NW who will be building their home there this summer. We ourselves plan to add a half-bath. All good signs, seeing friends and neighbors working on their nests!

My friend (and former Assistant) Jaclyn Percy took us out to lunch at Bear Creek Artichokes for my birthday last week. We shared a Turkey Bacon Cheddar sandwich (The TBC) which, besides the obvious ingredients, includes a layer of the restaurant’s to-die-for artichoke dip, toasted on sourdough bread. It comes with a pickle and a handful of potato chips. With a can of sparkling water, it made quite the celebratory little meal! Bear Creek Artichokes is located on U.S. Highway 101 at Hemlock, 11 miles south of Tillamook’ it’s a little more than 3 miles north of Beaver. Their hours are 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. seven days a week. Order by telephone for carryout by calling 503-398-5411.

Remember that Tillamook County Habitat for Humanity will hold a groundbreaking ceremony for their Hebo home-build at 2 p.m. on Saturday. We’re all invited to celebrate the occasion at the site; it’s located at 331305 Highway 101 South in Hebo, across U.S. Highway 101 from the Hebo Christian Center. We’re reminded to wear face coverings and to keep six feet of social distance between households. For more information, call the Affiliate office, 503-842-7472. Perhaps you can drop by after visiting the Hebo Food Pantry (if applicable), they’re open the same day, from noon until 2 p.m. at Hebo Christian Center.

I continue to field calls regarding access to the Covid-19 vaccine. Word from County officials is as follows; “...As more and more older adults become eligible in Oregon ...there is more demand for the vaccine than there is supply each week. With 26.4% of Tillamook County residents over the age of 65, we estimate it will take us several weeks to complete each age group... The number that we can schedule is subject to the amount of vaccine provided to us by the state of Oregon. Currently we are able to schedule 240-260 eligible individuals each week.”

They continue, “We encourage all Tillamook County residents who are eligible to enroll online using the form in English or Spanish on our website: tillamookhc.org. Completed enrollments are automatically put on a list to be contacted for an appointment. Due to high call volumes, we are no longer able to make appointments from phone or email requests. FENCEPOSTS

Greetings Bay City!
And a big thank you to Wendy for stepping in for me on such short notice. And, yes, my cheeks are red, red, red! I ask you, the reader, to look past the sweet words and take note of Wendy’s writing style. She is a very good reporter, but even more so, a gifted story teller. She can weave together many characters and examples to bring focus to her subject, and in this case, the kind of people who live in our community. She calls them “a sea of ever shining souls”. Wendy wrote “The pandemic reduced the human connection, contact, and interaction that we used to have through our day”. Its true. And we all miss the “pleasant, interesting, and kind” face to face contact. It may have seemed insignificant to us at the time, but really, its the glue that holds our community together, because it turns strangers into friends. Bay City is known as “The Pearl of Tillamook Bay” because the citizens of Bay City are true gems.
During the pandemic we have missed our gathering places and being able to meet around the table together at Mana’s Kitchen, Downies, The Landing, the Arts Center, and our local church. But, in spite of covid, they found unique ways to do business in our community, all while feeding our bodies and souls. Thank you.
Carla Albright, the Garibaldi Museum Event Coordinator, has written a heartfelt and informative article for the Headlight Herald, “Getting Through Hard Times” (Feb. 16th issue). If you missed it, you can find this article online. The museum currently has a new exhibit by local artist Diane Colcord. The exhibit is called “The Crocheted Reef, The Oregon Way”. Visitors of all ages will enjoy the colorful and creative interpretation of a coral reef. Stop by the Garibaldi Museum between 10 AM and 4 PM, Thursday-Monday. While you are there, take time to meet the new Executive Director, Serena Fanning, and Duncan Maher, gift shop manager. Please remember all covid restrictions for the county are in place and required, and subject to change.
The Bay City Arts Center programs to teach and entertain us continue to amaze me. For example, The live African storytelling presented by Habiba Addo, a native of Ghana, shares her love for stories with tales from various countries from the continent of Africa; a retelling of stories to amuse, to caution, and to inspire us to reach our better selves and heal our communities. The performance is spiced with songs and audience participation. You can access the storytelling by ZOOM on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3 PM; meeting ID# 858605397; password: 267685#. For more live via ZOOM programs and upcoming BCAC events, go to <https://baycityartscenter.weebly.com/> or call (503)377-9620.

The Tillamook Warming Center is in need of donations of non-perishable foods and drinks and warm clothing. If you would like to donate anything, it can be dropped off at the Bay City United Methodist Church office. You can check with the church office for more details at (503)377-2679.
Meetings that you will be glad you tuned in to; so mark your calendar now:
Tillamook Revitalization

Association (TRA) meets the first Tuesday of each month. This month they will meet at the Eagles on Mar. 2nd at 5:30 PM. Their mission statement ends with these inspiring words: “We restore where needed, inspire when possible, conserve at every opportunity, and beautify along the way”.
The current weather in Oregon, and across our nation, is a reminder that each of us should be prepared. Your family’s comfort, well being, or lives may depend on it. The next emergency preparedness meeting is Monday, Feb. 22nd, at 6 PM in city hall.
We would like to welcome our new city/recorder/treasurer, Kristen Rawson. Kristen and husband Mike have owned a house in Bay City for 15 years, and now they are calling Bay City home. Welcome Kristen and Mike.
The city wants to remind you that burning requires a permit, but, due to covid restrictions, permits issued in 2020 are still valid. If you need a new permit, you can download the form off of the city’s website, www.ci.bay-city.or.us. You can mail the form to city hall or deposit it in the payment slot at city hall. Don’t forget, dog tags are required for all dogs in the city limits. If you have a valid rabies certificate, call city hall to make an appointment to get your dog tags.

If you don’t already know Billy and Mary Schreiber, you will wish you did – two of the true rare pearls of Bay City. Billy and Mary have been active members of our community for many years. Among other contributions, Billy served on the city council for 12 years, where he was involved in many of the improvements that make Bay City what it is today. Billy has also served as president of the TLCC Board. We spent an afternoon listening to wonderful stories of their lives and adventures. Before we sat down for our interview, we were treated to a tour of their historic home, complete with collections of beautifully restored antiques. The real treat for me was learning that Mary and Billy are both artists...Mary painting, and Billy in stained glass. Billy is a graphic artist by trade, which is no surprise to anyone who has seen his home. But in 1973 Billy and Mary left Minnesota and came to Oregon where Billy joined his dad and uncle in seafood processing. At the time their cannery was in Newport; but in 1975 they built a new cannery in Garibaldi. Billy said they fresh-packed 3 million pounds of shrimp in their first season and implemented a process of individually quick-freezing and glazing shrimp using liquid nitrogen to prevent freezer burn. They were also able to produce 2500 tins of tuna per day. He and Mary later expanded their business as a custom cannery and smokehouse with a sales outlet managed by Mary. Billy’s contributions to the commercial fishing industry went beyond his own business. He served 8 years as a port commissioner in Garibaldi, was on the Tuna Commission, Salmon Commission, and was an advisor to the OSU Extension Service Sea Grant program for 25 years. He also conducted interviews of fisher persons for the National Marine Fisheries Service to profile how they lived and worked. Last year he conducted more interviews of fishers for Ecotrust to aide in building trust between the two groups. This just scratches the surface of what we learned about this remarkable couple. Some people give their all to their community, or their all to their jobs, but Billy and Mary have given their all to both. Bay City is truly blessed to have Billy and Mary as part of our community.

Thank you for reading the Fencepost, and I’ll see you next week.

Dale bought me a wonderful ‘Chicken Teriyaki Bowl’ dinner at Tropics Island Grill for our 45th anniversary on Valentines Day. It was so yummy; I ate the whole meal! (But I probably could have gotten three meals out if it.) We had planned on celebrating on Maui, but this was perfect under the circumstances of the pandemic. Dale enjoyed a ‘Fire in the Hole Burger’ at the RB Little Store, LLC. He thoroughly enjoyed his burger too.

Speaking of the Tropical Island Grill, if you are hankering for Hawaiian cuisine, they are open Tuesday through Saturday from 12-8pm. You can order online, their menu is at tropicislandgrill.com; then call ahead at 503 812 4466 to place your order. They are located at 100 S 1 Avenue in Rockaway Beach. You will love their food! LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Censorship and 230

If you have read the letters to the editor for the past two weeks you have heard some of both sides of the story. Although it's complicated and I don't pretend to understand it completely, there seems to me one important clarification that needs to be said. Facebook, Twitter, Google, etc. ARE private companies BUT they have an exemption from lawsuits from Congress called Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act. Other private companies do not have this protection.

Section 230 was sponsored by Ron Wyden and passed in 1996. The law creates a liability shield for the platforms to restrict access to or availability of material that the provider or user considers to be objectionable, whether or not such material is constitutionally protected. It was done to protect companies which are, like the post office, just a carrier of information.

Most of the Decency Act was struck down by the Supreme Court in a 7-2 vote the year after it was passed because it too greatly restricted free speech but Section 230 was left in place. It was written at a time when tech companies were in their infancy. Now that they are no longer conduits of information but publishers and editors even Ron Wyden has warned them that they have gone too far.

If there was no Section 230 protection big tech would be on a level playing field with other private companies. If they were not protected from lawsuits they would not censor.

Freedom of Speech, contrary to several of the letters, is NOT a right given to us by the Constitution and therefore only be called censorship if the Government takes it away. The founders understood that certain unalienable rights were given to us by God or the Divine Creator as they phrased it. The Bill of Rights merely states that the Government cannot make laws to alter or infringe on that right. The Government, ACLU, you and I should defend Free Speech from anybody or any business that chooses to take it away. Otherwise we are becoming more like China, Russia, Cuba, etc.

Like I said, it's not simple...Just one more piece of this complicated puzzle.

Wild and Scenic river designation gives area new outdoor gems

Area residents and visitors will have a new outdoor gem in our area to appreciate. The North Fork of the Trask, and its Middle Fork tributary will soon gain federal designation as a Wild and Scenic river. It will become one of the few rivers with such a designation on Oregon's NW coast.

We can thank Senators Wyden and Merkley for their vision, and making this possible, the culmination of a two year process to identify appropriate Oregon rivers and

TALES FROM THE LIBRARY

Bill Landau
Extension Librarian
Tillamook County Library

To quote Christopher Robin in the Winnie the Pooh books, "Tut, tut, it looks like rain!"

And if you look at the extended Tillamook County forecast, it would appear author A. A. Milne wrote that line specifically with us in mind. Every current weather forecast I could get my hands on shows raindrops every day for at least two more weeks.

But never fear! The library is your Winter Survival Center, providing a wealth of books, videos, magazines, and other resources to keep the symptoms of cabin fever at bay. Regular users of our services know the library is the place to go for your rainy season entertainment and enlightenment. But if you don't own a library card, or if you do but you've forgotten just how amazing your library system is, this column is for you.

First, let's talk about the adult department. Adults definitely need a reading plan to make it through the rainy season! Here is a fun little experiment for you. If you usually read mysteries, why don't you change things up this winter and try reading something different? Maybe a romance novel, a western or maybe even a graphic novel. That is one way to liven up your reading routine, and you might just find your next literary passion.

In my opinion, the part of our library that holds the most potential for your winter reading is the non-fiction department. You can literally learn just about anything from the books on our shelves. Now is the time to dive into any curiosity you have had on the back burner. Looking for ideas to build a backyard patio? Learn to sew? Improve your bowling? Discover a new hiking trail? Learn to play chess? Beef up on BBQ recipes? Master fly fishing techniques? Learn how to brew your own beer? Practice meditation? Believe me, I am just getting started!

How about coin collecting? We have books on that topic...along with dog obedience, beekeeping, how to make your own bush knife, watercolor techniques, brushing up on manner and etiquette, how to wire a house, which bugs are most beneficial in your garden, as well as a series of books that contain every Peanuts cartoon ever created! And don't get me started on our massive biography department. Just name a famous, historic person and chances are, we have a book that details their life.

Let us not forget the kids during the winter rainy months! If you have some wee ones in your home, you already know the pandemic has put severe limits on the normal activities we count on to get through this drippy season. Of course, there are countless videos available for you to check out. Sure, we have all the newest movies on DVD, but now may be the perfect time to introduce the children (or grandchildren) in your life to the classic films from decades ago. To jar your memory a bit, the library has the Muppet Show, the Flintstones, Bugs Bunny, Little Rascals, Laurel and Hardy, the Three Stooges... and so much more. Not to mention kids' books! In the near future, I might just write an entire column on a winter survival reading plan for kids!

But how do you get your hands on these materials? Easy-peasy! You can either go to our website and put the items on hold yourself... or better yet, give us call at 503-842-4792, tell us what you want, and we will do the work of tracking them down for you. Because sure as shooting, the weatherman will be saying "Tut, tut, it looks like rain," for the foreseeable future!

streams for the River Democracy Act of 2021.

The North Fork Trask is certainly wild and scenic, but it's much more than that. It contains some of the best spawning habitat for native salmon and steelhead that exists in Oregon. Coho salmon are federally listed as endangered. The North Fork Trask and its tributaries can help restore these fish and other species as well. The spawning habitat, when protected, is that good.

Healthy fish runs are very important to our local economy and to our recreational pursuits. Protecting where fish reproduce makes total sense if we want more fish to follow. There is no better place than the North Fork Trask.

In these dark times, we are fortunate to have something positive happening in our backyard. If we can restore Coho salmon and improve other fish populations, it will truly be something our community can be proud of going forward. Thank you Oregon senators for your foresight. Future generations will benefit from your leadership on rivers and streams.

on February 27th. Then on March 3rd their adventure will be at Camp Magruder. If you are interested, call Rhonda at 503 332 5861 or email her at Rhonda.Mulholland@gmail.com for all the details.

Linda Wicker is putting feelers out to see how many folks that have home gardens are interested in making extra money selling their flowers, vegetables and products every weekend this summer. You can email xecho2000@yahoo.com for more information. This will be a Farmers Market and sounds like a wonderful community event each weekend. When I was styling hair in Portland for 40 years, my clients kept me fed with their homegrown veggies. Boy, there is nothing like homegrown.

We are getting crazy staying in the house all the time, so we are now going on drives and checking out the scenery and beautiful yards. We were thrilled to see a lot of daffodils in bloom. That means spring isn't far behind. Hopefully there can be a more normal Easter and the Easter Bunnies can make their appearances. I can't wait.

Milo Bruce Gosen

energy-efficient biomass burners, and a church bell tower. Milo farmed as well, raising livestock, hay, and nursery stock; he also selectively logged his own timber land.

Milo enjoyed being outdoors and shared that joy with friends and family. He loved hunting, fishing, boating, and camping. He had a keen appreciation for words; he wrote poetry and read extensively, with an emphasis on history and biographies.

Milo was a deeply spiritual man who pursued the ideals of humility, simplicity, and charity. His wisdom and dry humor will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Milo is survived by his wife and children, seven grandchildren, his sister, Donna, and many nieces and nephews.

A gathering in his honor will take place at Beaver Community Church at 1 p.m. on Feb. 27, 2021. There are plans to livestream the event for those who prefer; visit the church website for access. Donations in his memory may be made to a favorite charity.

James Metcalfe

July 18, 1947 - Feb. 14, 2021

James A. Metcalfe passed away on February 14, 2021 at the age of 73 in his home surrounded by family. He passed after a short battle with cancer. He was born in Portland, Oregon on July 18, 1947. His parents were Glenn and Marjorie Metcalfe (Wilhelm). He attended school in Tillamook and enlisted in the Navy in 1964. He was then transferred to the Bureau of Naval Personnel in Washington, D.C. In 1974 he was honorably discharged from the Navy after serving 10 years. During his Navy career he received the Good Conduct Award, Meritorious Unit Commendation, and Navy Expeditionary Medal.

The family then moved to Tillamook Oregon to take over the Metcalfe family farm. After owning the farm for 24 years Jim and Lee sold the farm to their son Eric. Jim then worked for the Oregon Youth Authority for 12 years. He enjoyed working and helping the youth at the facility. After retiring in 2009, Jim enjoyed vacationing in Arizona, fishing, golfing, playing Yahtzee, and cheering on his favorite team, the Pittsburgh Steelers. He was also an Elks member for almost 50 years where he loved to play cards and shoot pool with his buddies.

He is survived by his wife Lee of 50 years, his son Eric, his daughter Lorrie, and three grandchildren; Jerrad, Morgan, and Libby. He will be greatly missed by friends and family.

Kay Lee Kiser

Feb. 28, 1951 - Feb. 7, 2021

Kay Lee Kiser, loved by many, passed away at home in Corvallis, Ore., Feb 7, 2021. She was born Feb. 28, 1951 in Tillamook, Oregon, to John Lyle Craven and Lois Ruth (Bates) Craven. She grew up on a busy farm in Tillamook County near Cloverdale, Oregon, where everyone in the family worked to help make the business grow. Her tasks as a young girl were helping her mother with daily household chores and caring for her two youngest brothers.

She attended schools in the Cloverdale area where she made many close lifelong friends with whom she remained in contact. She drove to Nestucca High School in a red Mustang and was known to a few as the "Queen of Meda Loop". After high school she attended Oregon State University. Kay eventually married Steve Kiser on a typically stormy winter night in Cloverdale on Feb. 26, 1972. Some will remember that night as one when a person had to lean into the wind to remain standing.

Kay and Steve spent most of their working years in Stayton, Oregon where they raised two sons. Kay worked as a secretary at Calvary Lutheran Church where she was an enthusiastic member of the choir. She also worked as a legal secretary in a law firm in Stayton, all this on top of being one of the best moms and wife a family could ever hope for. Her love and dedication to her family were unsurpassed. There was rarely an event that included her family members that she did not attend.

Her love for reading compelled her to serve on a committee to advance the remodeling of the Stayton Public Library to what it is today. She also enjoyed her days of attending meetings and working with the Nesko Women's Club, an organization helping to support those in need in South Tillamook County. Kay cherished the friendship of people she met throughout the years. Most people will remember her kindness and warm smile.

She is survived by her husband, Steve, sons John and Joe and brothers John, Michael and David.

A private interment will be held at the Oretown Cemetery. An informal celebration of life will take place at a later date.

The family would appreciate any memorial contribution in Kay's honor to be made to the South Tillamook County Library Club (STCLC), PO Box 66, Pacific City Oregon 97135, the Oretown Cemetery Association, c/o Phyllis Strassburg, PO Box 219, Cloverdale, OR 97112, or the Nesko Women's Club, PO Box 75, Pacific City, OR 97135.

Leroy's life was a full one from battling in the front lines with the 1st armored division in Italy during WWII to working as a defense contractor for numerous years. As a defense contractor he worked for Bendix Corporation as well as numerous other companies working in the electronics field and moved up the ranks into the corporate world. He was a great asset to his country from both being in the military and out. When he retired, he set to work on his legacy of building his geodesic dome house for his loving wife Dona. Though he had many great accomplishments he will always be remembered as a loving grandfather to the 17 children of Robert Morley, Marilyn Perl, Milton Morley and Genii Smart. He was able to give wisdom and knowledge from the years of living a full life, which all are grateful. He was laid to rest next to his beloved wife Dona M. Morley on their anniversary, February 16th at a grave side ceremony.

TILLAMOOK COUNTY WELLNESS

Creating a community of wellness

Denise Weiss
Registered Nurse and Quality Director
at Rinehart Clinic

At Rinehart Clinic in Wheeler, Oregon, we have learned that helping our patients take a broad and interactive approach to wellness makes a big difference. Combining a supportive environment with tools for health, such as fresh food (and free classes), leads to group and individual successes. The Rinehart Clinic understands success looks different for each person and so must our educational offerings!

What started four years ago as a summer-long veggie class transformed into a comprehensive effort to reduce the risk of type 2 diabetes and now has grown into a broader Community Wellness program. Many of our participants see multiple health benefits from lowered A1C, lower blood pressure, healthier eating habits, weight loss, and even improved mood.

By offering a wide range of classes – from nutritional education to movement and mindfulness – our goal is to offer something for everyone. We place an emphasis on creating supportive group classes and helping make it easier for people to have access to healthy foods and exercise. The classes often can create social networks, which we know play just as important of a role in health and wellness as recorded screening numbers.

Each year, we try new approaches and check in with our participants to see what they are interested in learning. Their input has helped our Community Wellness program evolve and grow.

Here is a sampling of the Community Wellness classes and workshops we have held over the past four years:

- Mindfulness Meditation, taught by one of our social workers, focusing on mindful approaches to eating, managing stress, and more;
- Blood Sugar & Nutrition, taught by our Certified Diabetes Educator;
- Intro to Fasting, taught by our Naturopathic Physician, covering the health benefits of fasting;
- our ever-popular Art of Eating, a hands-on class showcasing local farm-fresh vegetables, recipe sharing, and encouragement for healthy eating habits.

Over the past year, as the pandemic unfolded, it changed how we hold our classes as we moved to Zoom. In 2021, our hope is to continue Zoom offerings and eventually be able to offer some classes in person again (when we can safely do so).

These group classes are a critical part of Rinehart Clinic's Community Wellness program, and thanks to grant funding and great community partners, we are also able to pair the classes with healthy foods. For instance, our Art of Eating participants not only get to sample and learn ways to cook fresh vegetables during class, but they also get a big bag of farm-fresh produce from Nehalem's Moon River Farm to take home each week. And (depending on the season), some class participants receive vouchers they can use to buy healthy foods at the Manzanita Farmers Market or the Manzanita Grocery & Deli (the Little Apple).

As another addition to the program in early 2020, we started the Prescription for Exercise Program, partnering with the North County Recreation District (NCRD). As part of primary care appointments, providers could write prescriptions for exercise with patients receiving a 10-visit pass for swim or fitness. We hired a Wellness Navigator, Alisa, to help coordinate first steps into NCRD. We saw a lot of positive results, have a solid partnership in place and will look to resume this program later in 2021 as we adjust to these changing times.

We appreciate all our partners who make this Wellness Program possible--Columbia Pacific Coordinated Care Organization, Manzanita Farmers Market, Manzanita Grocery & Deli, Moon River Farm, and North County Recreation District. We are also fortunate to have a staff team whose varied backgrounds and interests allow us to offer such a range of classes. And lastly, the success is not possible without those in the community who participate and share this experience and wellness journey with us!

During 2021, we will continue many of our popular classes. And NEW, coming in March: a book study/discussion group called "How to Be Sick" led by Sara, Licensed Clinical Social Worker, focused on mindfulness, particularly for those facing chronic health conditions.

To register for classes or learn more about Rinehart Clinic & Pharmacy, visit us at www.rinehartclinic.org, www.facebook.com/rinehartclinic, or sign up for our monthly newsletter: <https://rinehartclinic.us17.list-manage.com/subscribe?u=a9b6bfc74d300f6f662854715&id=71b5190c06>
