TAPA's 'Love, Lies and the Doctor's Dilemma' now showing on Fri., Sat. and Sun. through Feb. 12

Need a prescription to beat the “winter blues”? Tillamook Association for the Performing Art’s newest play, “Love, Lies and the Doctor’s Dilemma” is just what the doctor ordered! Sponsored by Grocery Outlet of Tillamook, and directed by Ann Harper, this hilarious show is open now and runs through February 12.

Valentine’s Day is quickly approaching, and this show will make a great date night the weekend before! Grab a bite at one of our local restaurants, then head over to The Barn Community Playhouse for a night of laughter.

In this comedic farce, widow Joan Scheller and her gardener turned psychiatrist, Sandy, try to hide their relationship and what’s growing in the greenhouse. Joan tells one little white lie that grows into a hilarious afternoon complete with an aging movie star, a mobster intent on collecting a debt, and a neighbor county will be participating.

Commissioner Erin Skaar said that Tillamook had worked with X4 Health in 2021 on soliciting public feedback on the homelessness crisis in the county. That outreach identified a coordinated response system as the county’s top need.

Skaar said that that partnership and work had been a factor in Tillamook being named one of the recipients of funding in House Bill 4123.

A public commenter had expressed concern about the contract being awarded to a company outside the county when she felt entities inside the county could best handle the task.

Skaar explained that the county was required by law to develop a five-year strategic plan for creating the new office. She said that the county does not have the staff to do this and had gone through a public bidding process, to which X4 was the only applicant.

In addition to the work with X4, this year will also see two advisory committees begin meeting to work on plans for the new office. One will comprise representatives from each of the seven cities in the county, while the other will have representatives from community organizations like CARE and Tides of Change.

Skaar also reassured the commenter that there would be stakeholder groups to gather feedback from law enforcement, schools, public health officials and others.

The commissioners also updated an agreement governing the emergency warning system for Barney Reservoir.

warning system is tested every Monday and that the dam containing the reservoir is regularly checked.

Commissioners then authorized County Attorney Joel Stevens to sign participation forms for new settlement in cases against opioid companies.

Stevens said that the county participated in the suits against the drug companies as litigants and that this authorization would enable him to confirm participation in the latest settlement against four companies.

The state government receives the funds and oversees their distribution, with 55% going directly to counties and localities that were litigants in the suit, while the remainder stays with the state.

The county already receives $56,000 annually from the settlements. Stevens was unsure how much that figure would increase as it will depend on the participation of other litigants.

Skaar said that the funds are used in partnership with Opioid Use Response (OUR) Tillamook to help those struggling with opioid use disorder in the community.

Nestucca girls hoops push win streak to nine

Will Chappell
Headlight Sports

Both of Nestucca High School's basketball teams got wins by wide margins at home against the Gaston Greyhounds on January 26.

Hailee Knight led the way for the girls with 29 points as the team extended its win streak to 9 games, while a balanced performance by the boys' team brought them within one game of .500 in league play.

The girls' game got underway first and both teams came out playing aggressive defense. The Bobcats were cold from deep for most of the night but found success driving to the rim.

Neither team was able to establish an offensive flow early in the game. Nestucca forced numerous turnovers but was repeatedly fouled by Gaston, limiting their offensive output and sending the game to the first break 15-13, advantage Bobcats.

The Greyhounds' aggressive defense put Nestucca into the bonus on the first possession of the second quarter and Nestucca took full advantage.

Around the four-minute mark of the quarter, the Bobcats went on a run led by Knight who put up a dozen points in the frame, with six coming from the line. That run pushed the lead to double digits and by the half Nestucca led 34-19.

Makayla Weber had eight of her 11 points in the third quarter for the Bobcats, as they pushed the lead to 52-25.

Knight and Weber's offensive explosions were matched by withering defensive pressure from the entire Bobcat roster.

Gaston was flummoxed by Nestucca's quick hands and press turning the ball over constantly and putting up just 15 points in the final three quarters.

Rylee Armstrong chipped in 10 points for the Bobcats who won by a final margin of 69-28.

The win was the ninth in a row for the Bobcats, who improved 13-5 on the season and remained undefeated in league play.

They extended their winning streak to 10 games on the next night with a 61-30 nonleague win against Dayton.

The boys tipped following the girls and managed a comfortable win through a team effort that saw five players score double digits.

Cody Hagerty and Nolen Hurliman led the way with 14 apiece, while Bryson Morgan chipped in 13 and Diego Ponce and Kenneth Blackburn chipped in 11 and 10, respectively.

The Bobcats got off to a quick start in the game, jumping out to a 23-16 lead by the end of the first quarter.

Like the girls, the boys struggled to find their range from three, forcing them to attack the basket, which they did with great success.

The Bobcats also played strong defense, closely shadowing Gaston's outside shooters and frustrating them with the tight coverage.

Nestucca continued its methodical offensive attack in the second quarter and extended the lead to 42-32 by the half.

The third quarter was a struggle for both teams, who combined to score just 18 points in the period, and the game entered the fourth with Nestucca leading by a dozen.

A 7-0 run by the Bobcats to start the fourth quarter gave the team a comfortable lead, that they pushed to 63-42 halfway through the quarter.

Nestucca then brought in its reserves to finish the game, bringing the final score to 72-46.

The boys improved to 7-12 with the win and return to action against Faith Bible/Life Christian at home on Monday.

Once in a Generation

They say that some things only happen once in a decade, or once in a generation, or maybe even once in a lifetime. It appears as though we have arrived at one of those junctions in Tillamook County's recycling world, though I'm not sure whether it's a "generation" or "lifetime" event.

For several years we've been preparing for some significant upgrades to all three of our transfer stations, but this opportunity comes from outside.

You may recall the changes that were made in recycling systems back in 2017, following China's Green Fence initiative – which resulted in the near collapse of many recycling programs. We weathered through that relatively well, but the same can't be said for many other places. The Oregon Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) started convening lots of meetings involving lots of folks, and one result was the 2021 passage of the Recycling Modernization Act (RMA). This act envisions a more equitable and consistent recycling system throughout the state, and introduces a hybrid Extended Product Responsibility (EPR) system in Oregon. All this goes into effect July 1, 2025, but our opportunity to leap forward is NOW.

As part of this process, each city and county has the opportunity to request infrastructural support, through DEQ, from the Producer Responsibility Organization(s), who will be responsible for rolling out these new statewide systematic improvements in 2025. Because our cities are small, and so much of our population lives in unincorporated areas, we are organizing a coordination meeting on February 14th – see adjacent ad. At this meeting, we hope that all cities, as well as individuals and interest group representatives from throughout Tillamook County, will come together and share their visions, desires, and needs, so that we can respond to this request in a collaborative, cohesive manner – for the benefit of ALL Tillamook County residents, wherever they may reside or work.

I've been in this business for 29 years, and I've never seen an opportunity like this. This is our opportunity. Let's not miss this shot. Join us on the late afternoon of Valentine's Day, and share the Holiday of Love with your vision for recycling.

The Memaloose Point boat launch parking area and ramp is closed until mid-February. The long-awaited dredging project to clear both boat ramps is finally underway. Public access will not be allowed during construction. But, thank goodness, work should be finished in time for spring Chinook fishing! Salmon fishing, that is, if Chinook aren't added to the Endangered Species Act (see last week's column).

Good news to report: You can get that computer help you need right now, locally in Tillamook. Evan Bush, the proprietor of Qlty Computer Repair (formerly owned by Michelle Gordon), recently helped me select a desktop computer to replace my ailing one, transferred programs and data to it, and came out to our house to install it. He was professional, competent and friendly. While I am delighted with my new computer, I am ecstatic about having a computer technician I can rely on when I run into trouble. Evan's workplace is located at 2106 4th St., Suite A. He can be contacted by phone (text or call 971-341-2885) or email

I ran into Simon Freeman, our Oregon Parks and Recreation Department park ranger, posting a "Do Not Disturb" sign by a seal on our beach. The next day, the seal, now dead, had washed over the berm and nearly into the parking lot! King tides at work. Jim Rice, Marine Mammal Stranding Coordinator for Oregon State, came up to collect the animal for a necropsy at OSU. He identified it as a young northern elephant seal. If you see a stranded marine mammal, please report it to Jim at 541-270-6830.

A sign by a vacant lot on 4th St. NW reads "Another Tiny Home by Wolf Industries." I checked out their website at www.wolfind.com; they have some nice-looking modular tiny homes and prefab additional dwelling units (ADUs). Keep your eyes peeled to see what goes up on that spot.

Clear your calendar for a fantastic opportunity on Saturday, Feb. 25. Kyle Oram, a solar design consultant with A&R Solar, and Sean Kohles, Cape Meares homeowner and CMCA Treasurer, are presenting a hands-on seminar at the Barbara Bennett Community Center from 10 a.m. to noon that will explore the benefits of solar power right here in Cape Meares. From keeping the lights on in a power outage to minimizing your carbon footprint, solar power can outshine traditional power sources. There will be a case study of the one house in Cape Meares currently using solar power, including a discussion of product costs, tax incentives and potential savings. ## LEGISLATOR'S LETTER

An update from Rep. Cyrus Javadi

I want to thank Joe Warren and the Tillamook Herald/Cannon Beach Gazette/North Coast Citizen for allowing me to publish this monthly column. With just three weeks under my belt as your representative, I have learned how fast things move at the Capitol. I won't be able to include everything you should know in these pages. So I will send regular email updates with the most up-to-date, in-depth news and ways you can get involved. Please sign up here: OregonLegislature.gov/Javadi.

On January 9th, the House of Representatives gavelled in the 82nd Legislative Assembly. I, along with 21 newly elected members, took the oath of office. It is truly an honor to serve you.

This session, I will serve on the Housing and Homelessness Committee. The homeless crisis is no longer an urban issue. It is impacting the coast more every day. That is why I was disappointed that one of Gov. Kotek's first actions as Governor was to sign executive orders on homelessness that left out rural communities like ours on the coast.

I joined the bipartisan group of legislators called the Coastal Caucus to send Gov. Kotek a letter asking her to reconsider her approach.

I will also serve on the Economic Development and Small Business and Behavioral Health and Health Care Committees.

With over 2,000 bills already introduced, I want to know the issues I am working on:

- Cutting taxes and lowering costs - I am chief sponsoring HB 2724, which would end the death tax in Oregon. The government has already taxed that money. There is no need for families to be taxed again when they die. HB 2725 would lower the cost of prescription drugs in our rural communities by cutting out middleman fees.

- Growing the healthcare workforce - The labor shortage is being felt in every sector of our economy and nowhere is the impact felt more than in the healthcare sector. HB 2979 would create grants for our community colleges to expand dental assistant programs. HB 2408 would also allow nurses with licenses in other states to work in Oregon

- Limiting the Governor's powers - HB 2407 would require the Governor to ask the Legislature for an extension of any state of emergency past 60 days. COVID showed us that Oregon's laws governing the executive powers are out of balance. It is time to rein them in.

Legislators need the voices of our constituents in the process. If you can testify on legislation we are considering, please do. You must register online to provide verbal testimony during a committee meeting. Registration closes one hour before the scheduled start time of the meeting.

Visit my website for the complete rundown on how to get involved: OregonLegislature.gov/Javadi.

As your Representative, I want to showcase our district at the Capitol. There are several unique opportunities for your engagement.

Perform Opening Ceremonies

At the beginning of each floor session, guests of the Legislature can present an opening ceremony. These are non-political performances of prayer, invocation, cultural ceremony, poetry reading, or a musical piece. Please email my office if you are interested in presenting an opening ceremony.

Display Your Photos/Art In Our Office

Do you have a beautiful photo of a sunrise on the beach? Is your kid a crayon Picasso? Send it to me! I want to show off the beauty and talents of our district, and you can be part of it. Email in a digital or physical copy, and we'll display them on a rotating digital picture frame in the Capitol.

Let Me Highlight Your Milestones

Are you celebrating a milestone birthday or anniversary? Did you win an award? Are you opening a new business? I would love the opportunity to highlight the achievements of our community on the House floor and in my newsletters. My days are full of intense policy conversations; I also want to recognize our district's upbeat, positive moments.

As always, you can reach my office at Rep.CyrusJavadi@oregonlegislature.gov and at 503-986-1422.

Hat off to Cindy Green, of Sandlake, who was named Executive Director of Marie Mills Center last week. The outgoing ED wrote "Cindy has been with our agency for many years and is very dedicated to local services for the intellectually and developmentally disabled. Additionally, she is a well-known hometown person acutely tied into our community and its needs. Cindy is an excellent choice to lead Marie Mills Center forward." Congratulations to Cindy.

The Audobon Society of Lincoln City will host an easy walk through "Wildwoods Open Space," which is a forest right at the heart of Lincoln City. Participants will watch for year-round residents such as Downy Woodpecker and wintering sparrows. Hikers should dress for the weather with sturdy walking shoes. The meet-up is planned for 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 11 at the trailhead on N.E. Devils Lake Road; we should reserve two hours. There is limited parking. The event is sponsored by Lincoln City Parks and Recreation and Explore Lincoln City.

Audobon's Great Backyard Bird County is slated for Friday, February 17 through Monday, February 20. All bird enthusiasts are invited to participate, from novices to experts. It takes as little as fifteen minutes on one day, or you can count for as long as you like each day of the event. It's free, fun, and easy, and it helps the birds. Learn more at www.birdcount.org.

Dolly Parton's "Imagination Library" program is now available in Oregon to children between the ages of 0 and 5 (in Spanish and English). There is no income restriction. Each child receives a book every month and the selections are usually pretty good. This is a great way to for parents to build a library for their young children. Sign up for the free program online by going to www.imaginationlibrary.com.

FENCEPOST

In my City Council column of two weeks ago, I closed with a mention of other important topics covered that night. As I'm sure the rest of you have, I received a mailing from the Rockaway Beach Volunteer Firefighters, discussing some of the training programs and materials that they were able to acquire in 2022, and how these can help public safety for us all.

This was echoed in Chief Todd Hesse's comments at the City Council meeting. Chief Hesse highlighted what progress has been made, but also discussed some plans and improvements for the coming year.

2022 closed with 61 events in December alone that required emergency personnel. Of these, half (31) were 911 calls, including emergency and non-emergency. King tide education and beach safety were also a significant effort on the department's schedule.

An encouraging statistic: in December, 15 Rockaway Beach residents completed CPR training. Emergency Preparedness group leader, Letty Buchanan, has said previously that she is happy to set up CPR training for groups who want to learn important lifesaving skills, and more than a dozen did so at the end of 2022.

"Ultimately," Chief Hesse said, "we'd like to see everyone trained."

The chief also cited a live training exercise held in Garibaldi, with all seven fire departments from adjacent communities here on the coast. The exercise simulated a commercial fire, allowing these departments to increase their experience and look at ways to improve their responses.

Emergency preparedness was of course a major topic, in light of the December 27 storm and power outage. While our plans are moving along well, the outage highlighted a few areas for refinement.

"It opened my eyes to the challenges and procedures we have in place," said Chief Hesse.

Emergency Preparedness Group meetings take place the first Tuesday of every month, which falls this week. If you read this before Wednesday, the plan for February's meeting is a tabletop simulation where participants can make strategic choices around a hypothetical emergency. Your decisions and actions (imaginary, in this simulation) will be assessed by emergency personnel who have real-world experience. It sounds like a useful and fun way to take advantage of these professionals' knowledge.

Another topic of discussion with Chief Hesse was the loss of cellular coverage after just three hours without power. As I mentioned in the earlier column, during the outage, NIXLE posted texts to 26,000 people in Tillamook County. Only 6000 were received due to cellular interruption.

City Council member Kristine Hayes recalled a six-day power outage several years ago in which cell service remained at 100%. The difference? The tower was supported by a generator, which in the previous outage was fully functional. In the December 27 outage, the generator was not brought on line, and battery backup was exhausted after just three hours. The problem appears to be that the generator has not been maintained; council agreed to look into steps to have the cellular providers rectify this.

During the storm, Dan Emerson, head of Public Works, reported that his team were able to set up their own generators and keep the drains open in spite of huge volumes of water and the debris brought down by the storm. He also mentioned that a new employee, Jared Abbott, will join the team, making it possible for Public Works to be on call 365 days a year. And finally, the 3rd street reservoir project is nearly completed, requiring only good weather to finish the work.

For the coming month, the city is planning a workshop on February 22 which will include an open house plus discussion on the planned improvements to the Lake Lytle boat launch. If you have ideas, concerns, or suggestions, be sure to attend and sign up to make comments.

The final comment about City Council is a sad one: Cindy Kay Gregory, elected last November, has resigned due to serious health issues. A previous Volunteer of the Year, Cindy founded the Rockaway Renaissance Artists group last summer. In one of my first Fencepost columns, Cindy helped set up a meeting with Nancy Roberts, whose well-liked husband Jeff Hunter had succumbed to ALS not long before. In that meeting, Cindy said, "When there's pain or need, this town comes together." I've seen this town come together for Cindy's pain and need. We wish her and her family peace.

GARDENING MATTERS

Picking up where we left off

Apparently, the computer imps were hard at work in deleting half of the column I wrote for January 17. So if this column seems like we are picking up in the middle, it's because we are!

A quick recap. We were talking about gardening indoors for the winter and using houseplants to fulfill our gardening desires. I talked about observing each individual houseplant and assessing it for insects or diseases. And we talked about how important it can be to dust off our houseplant leaves regularly, too.

While I am dusting the houseplants' leaves, I clean the outside of the pots with a damp rag. This isn't necessary but I don't like looking at soiled pots inside or outside, so it makes me feel better.

If you don't already have a selection of houseplants, there are a few I can recommend. The ones I have chosen to feature are not the large decorator plants but instead ones you can place on a windowsill or side table. If you have animals, do be aware that some plants are toxic when eaten by cats or dogs. Bird's nest fern (Asplenium nidus) is a pretty plant from Southeast Asia and Polynesia. Coming from the tropics, it likes humidity and medium to low indirect light and is safe for Mittens or Spot.

The ever-popular spider plant (Chlorophytum comosum) is another good indoor plant that does well in bright indirect light, sporadic watering, and is safe around animals. Known for their offshoots that propagate easily, just be sure not to overwater the spider plants.

The Haworthia succulents are safe for animals, as are the air plants (Tillandsia xerographica). These are some of my favorite indoor plants and one of the easiest to grow. They don't require soil, only need a light misting every couple of days and good soaking every two weeks and can be placed in bright direct or indirect light. I have mine in glass containers with some shells or driftwood. The perfect plant for a beach house.

If you need a trailing houseplant, there are lots of those, too. Beside the ubiquitous Philodendron, there is the Golden Pothos (Epipremnum aureum). Both of these plants do well in low, indirect light conditions. They can be placed on a bookshelf and trained to grow upward and along the shelves or potted in a hanging basket to drape down. Overwatering is the hardest thing to avoid and these trailing plants do best when watered every 10 days to 2 weeks.

One of my favorite inside hanging plants is the succulent "Burros tails" (Sedum morganianum). This fun plant is easy to grow in direct sunlight. Water sparingly and only when the soil has dried out. Propagate this plant by taking stem cuttings. It can also go outside in the summer.

There are lots of choices for plants to bring in the home for the season: flowering or foliage, big or small, trailing or upright. Do a little research before you go shopping to make sure you get a plant that will survive in your growing conditions. Light is most important, water you can adjust. So don't give up on gardening just because it's winter. You may find new indoor plants that are perfect for healing those winter blues.

County's Business License workgroup now on pause

On November 30, 2022, the Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) had a public hearing on a proposed business license ordinance for businesses in unincorporated Tillamook County. The meeting room was packed with people from the business community who had concerns about the ordinance as it was written. We heard their concerns, several of which were thoughtful and helpful, and we cancelled the second public hearing on the ordinance. That tabled the issue, as an ordinance cannot be approved without two public hearings.

Some people are asking, what comes next? Let me state clearly that ordinance 88 as written is off the table. If in the future the board moves forward with an alternate proposal, it will not be ordinance 88.

In case you're wondering what this is all about, here's the story. The board of county commissioners started to consider initiating a business license for businesses in unincorporated Tillamook County when we had millions of dollars in COVID relief funds to distribute to local businesses, and we did not have a registry or any record of businesses in unincorporated Tillamook County. Some cities have business license programs, so we got their lists; the chambers of commerce have partial lists, which we utilized, but we don't have and couldn't create a complete database of Tillamook County businesses.

The Economic Development Council of Tillamook County (EDC) was distributing the COVID relief funds, and they were tasked with communicating with businesses about how to apply. We wanted all businesses in our county to know that the funds were available and have support from the EDC to apply. Sadly, a lot of businesses had no idea that COVID relief was available because we don't know who they are or how to contact them.

Thus, the idea for a business license in unincorporated Tillamook County took shape. Our intention was that any funds generated from a licensing program would support the work of the EDC, whose sole purpose is to support local businesses and business development. We thought that fees generated from the business community should be reinvested back into the business community via the EDC.

Terre Cooper, EDC director, reached out to multiple businesses to socialize the idea with them, but not to everyone; it's worth repeating that we need a list of all businesses and contact info to do broad communication to the business community. We heard from business owners at the Nov. 30 public hearing that we should have done more outreach, and we agreed. We learned from this process that robust communication prior to a new ordinance hearing is in everyone's best interest.

County counsel worked with Terre Cooper, at our direction, to come up with the draft ordinance, which was a boilerplate business license ordinance borrowed from the League of Oregon Cities. The ordinance was cumbersome, full of off-putting legal language and in some ways unenforceable. We discussed it in at least two public meetings, shared our concerns, and edits were made. In retrospect, we should have scrapped that draft in favor of something less full of legalese that better fit the needs of our community.

From our perspective, the public hearing worked exactly the way it was supposed to: the BOCC heard from people, and consequently we changed our course. We are grateful to those who came to the public hearing and gave us thoughtful feedback on the ways that the ordinance was objectionable. At the end of the first public hearing, we decided to cancel the second public hearing, tabling the issue. The next day we removed ordinance 88 from our website, because we were concerned that if we left it on the website, people would think it was moving

OBITUARIES

Thomas Leslie Ellwood
Nov. 12, 1938 ~ Jan. 23, 2023

Thomas Leslie Ellwood, born November 12, 1938, age 84, passed away peacefully holding his wife’s hand on the evening of January 23, 2023. He thought he wouldn’t make it past 40, but three heart attacks later and cheating death at multiple turns in life, he certainly fought a good fight! Secretly, I think this may have been part of his ploy to avoid the next election season.

He was born in Darfork Kentucky but then moved to California where he later graduated from Victorville High School in 1957. After graduation, he worked at US Borax until 1964. Moving to California proved to be an excellent decision as that is where Tom met the love of his life, Virginia (Ginger) Pullar. They were married in 1964 in Las Vegas, NV and relocated to Oregon in 1965 where they raised their family and called home there on after.
Tom lived life the way he wanted and without regrets; we could all take a leaf from his book. He experienced a lot on his journey! In his younger years, you could find him and Ginger cuttin’ a rug and winning dance contests, bowling in a league, and gettin’ into mischief with his siblings and brother in-laws. As years progressed, he loved to hunt, his annual fishing trips to Alaska, golfing, and camping. Most of all, you would often find Tom out on his boat fishing, crabbing or clamming with friends or family. Additionally, Tom enjoyed a fruitful 31 year career with Roger’s Machinery where he started as a Service Technician and retired as a Quality Assurance Analyst with them in 2000.
Tom made friends everywhere he went and anyone that knew him inevitably had a story to share where he was the life of the party. His door was always open and anyone was welcome; the more people around, the better! He’d be sure to have his signature smoked salmon out waiting for your arrival! His biggest smiles came from spending time with his wife and family and he took great pride in watching his grandchildren grow.
He is survived by his amazing and beautiful wife, Ginger; six children: Brenda Bishop, Kimberly and her husband Randy Tracy, Derek Ellwood, Thomas Ellwood Jr., Mylissa and her husband Ryan Boyd, and Amanda Paden; 13 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren, two great-great grandchildren, and four siblings; Carolyn Maifeld, Dianna Rochelle, Samuel Ellwood, and Elaine Ellwood. He was preceded in death by his parents, Andrew Ellwood and Mary Strong as well as two infant sons and two siblings.
We know he is grateful for each and every one of you and he looks forward to seeing you again!
We will be having a celebration of life at a later date still to be determined.
“Is it 4 oclock yet?”.

forward. Commissioner Bell suggested convening a workgroup of businesspeople to discuss the issue, thinking that this would be an ideal opportunity to hear from business owners and bring people together to help drive solutions. For example, how should we develop an active database of businesses in Tillamook County? Several people volunteered or agreed to participate in a workgroup to discuss the issue. Since then, the EDC elected to withdraw from process of developing a business license ordinance. Rather than proceed with a workgroup at this time, the BOCC will pause and consider the path ahead, including whether we develop an alternate ordinance, when, and what needs it would address. Commissioner Bell is available to meet with business owners individually who are interested in talking about the subject and sharing their ideas or concerns. We are grateful to the business owners who agreed to be part of a workgroup, and to everyone who shared their comments on the subject.

OBITUARIES

Robin Ann Pierce 1948 ~ Jan. 23, 2023

Robin Ann Pierce (nee Van Allen), previously Robin Ann Gilbertson, died peacefully on January 23rd the age of 75. She will be remembered as a passionate gardener, a talented fabric artist, and a practical person who could both visualize a project and build it. When her daughters were young, Robin would fill the car with them and their friends for a day at the lake, a shopping excursion for ballet shoes, or a Sunday drive in the country to listen to Casey Kasem's American Top-40. Even when dementia began to take her from us, she retained her feistiness, her sense of humor and her love of words. She will be missed by her family, friends, and two spoiled and pampered cats. A private memorial will be held in the spring. A donation in Robin's name can be made to Light Up a Life in gratitude of the loving care that hospice provided her. Her name will be included in the next Reading of the Names ceremony in Tillamook, OR.

Kevin Levi Mills March 18, 1986 ~ Nov. 25, 2022

Kevin Levi Mills passed away on November 25th, 2022, surrounded by family and friends. Kevin was born on March 18th, 1986, to Thomas and Paula Mills (Rhoades) of Bay City, OR. Kevin had a rather rocky start to life. He was born with respiratory distress syndrome and was taken by Life-flight to Emanuel hospital where he spent his first 17 days of life. Kevin grew up in Bay City. He spent his childhood playing with his sister, and their neighbors the Cox boys, in the creek at the park and in the woods behind their house. He attended elementary school in Garibaldi and graduated from Neahkahnie High School in 2004. Kevin was an avid sports fan. He played all through his high school career. He often credited Coach Downs as the reason he made it through high school. Football, basketball, baseball, it didn't matter. He loved to play and watch them all. He even played men's league softball as an adult. Kevin worked a variety of jobs over the years, searching for something to spark his passion. He put his plans on hold in 2013 when his dad's health started to deteriorate. Kevin moved back in with his parents and began looking after his dad so that his mom could continue to work. Kevin was Toms' primary caretaker until his passing in August of 2020. During this time, and for about a year after he also was primary childcare for his sister and brother-in-law. He spent many early mornings watching cartoons with his nephews and afternoons watching westerns with his dad. Family was everything to Kevin, and he took great pride in being responsible for so many of them. After his dad's passing, and with all but 1 of his sisters' kids in school, Kevin decided he wanted to return to the workforce. All the years taking care of others, however, he had neglected to take care of himself. He started going to the doctor. Eye doctors, dentists, primary care, etc.... He wanted to get himself back into good shape before finding a new job. It was during this time that he discovered some more serious health issues. He was in and out of hospitals most of the latter half of 2022. Still, Kevin was not one to give up. He was willing to try just about any procedure that the doctors thought would help. As hard as he fought, he unfortunately lost the battle on November 25th, 2022. Kevin was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Alfred, and J. Lucile Mills (Bradham), his maternal Grandparents, Harry, and Maxine Randall (Rhoades), and his father Thomas Mills. He is survived by his mother Paula Mills of Bay City, His sister and brother-in-law, Amee (Mills) and Mike Konruff and their five children (his beloved nieces and nephews), Brooklynnne, Ema, Bryar, Eddison, and Everhett of Idaville. His Great Grandpa Motter of Kennewick WA, as well as countless aunts, uncles, and cousins and some wonderful friends who were always more like family than anything else. A celebration of life for Kevin will be held at the Alderbrook Grange Hall, March 4th 2023 at 1 p.m.

OBITUARIES

John Walter (Walt) Rigterink
May 11, 1932 ~ Jan. 21, 2023

John Walter Rigterink (Walt) 90, of Tillamook, OR, passed away suddenly at home on January 21, 2023. Walt was born on May 11, 1932 in New Haven, CT to Albert Rigterink and Harriett Notier Rigterink. The family later returned to its native Michigan, where Walt grew up on a farm near Dowagiac. He attended public schools, graduated as salutatorian from Dowagiac HS in 1950, and was a letterman in foot- ball, basketball, baseball, and track. He attended the United States Naval Academy and graduated in 1954 with a BS degree in engineering. Like approximately one quarter of his 1954 Naval Academy class, he joined the United States Air Force (because there was no Air Force Academy at that time), pursued the burgeoning computer science field, and earned his Master of Science degree in statistics at Stanford University. After leaving the USAF in 1962, he joined IBM and worked as a Program Manager/Sys- tems Analyst for the Federal Systems Division for the next 29 years. Walt married Marilyn Goldring in 1954 and they had four children. He is sur- vived by his wife Marilyn of 68 years and children Daniel of Montross, VA, Nancy of Tacoma, WA, and Andrew (Cindy) of Haleiwa, HI. Their youngest son, Mark, died in 1987. Walt has six grandchil- dren and five great grand- children. He was preceded in death by his parents (Albert and Harriet) and his sister Ruth and brother Ray. Prior to moving to Til- lamook in 1992 upon his retirement, they lived primar- ily in Rockville, MD and spent several years in Kailua, HI. Wherever he lived, Walt was very active in the com- munity. He was a Cub and Boy Scout leader, church treasurer, AARP income tax volunteer, YMCA board president, and held other roles with the Tillamook Historical Society, Old Iron Club and St. Alban's Episcopal Church. While in Maryland, Walt was a long-distance runner and completed the Marine Corps Marathon and the Boston Marathon numerous times. After they moved to Tillamook, he retired his running shoes and enjoyed fishing, chopping and stacking many years' supply of firewood, and gardening. He also enjoyed traveling both in the US and abroad. A memorial service will be held at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Tillamook, on Feb- ruary 18, 2023 at 2 pm. In lieu of flowers, dona- tions may be made in his name to Tillamook YMCA and/or St. Alban's Church, Tillamook, OR. A memorial service will be held at St. Alban's Episcopal Church at 2102 6th Street, Tillamook, OR on Feb. 18, 2023 at 2 p.m.

Statewide graduation rates on the rise

The statewide graduation rate for the class of 2022 is 81.3 percent, marking gains for every student group compared to the previous year and the second highest graduation rate ever record- ed in Oregon, according to data released last week by the Oregon Department of Education (ODE). After a slight drop due to the impacts of the global COVID-19 pandemic, the 2022 graduation rates are a positive sign that Oregon's students and school systems are continuing to recover. Notably, students completing two credits in an approved Career and Technical Education (CTE) Program of Study significantly exceeded the statewide average, graduat- ing at a rate of 93.0 percent. Students who successfully completed English Learner programs prior to enter- ing high school in Oregon graduated at 86.4 percent, 5.1 percentage points higher than the statewide average and an all-time high for that student group. "When we combine the tremendous resilience of Oregon's youth, the coura- geous, tireless, work of our educators, and the indi- vidualized, student centered resources made available through the Student Suc- cess Act and other key initiatives, we're able to make meaningful progress for Oregon's students," ODE Director Colt Gill said. "There is more work to do, and we are ready to keep working to make sure all students have what they need to succeed." "Each graduate repre- sents an individual and family success story, a point of pride for their community, and a stronger future for Oregon," Gov- ernor Kotek said. "It will take focused leadership and increased accountability to continue our recovery and ensure that all of Oregon's children are better served by our investments in K-12 schools. All of our educa- tion investments must be paired with specific strate- gies to ensure we know how the dollars that are spent are connected to the education priorities that Oregonians care about."
