7:30PM: Rock city flood relief concert & dance party

The Barre elks lodge, Elks Lodge 1535, 10 Jefferson Street, Barre Barre, our beloved rock city, was devastated by the flood in July. Ongoing help is desperately needed, and funding is essential to recovery for families and businesses. A Barre Strong! rocking concert and dance party will prove We Are Stronger than That! The party with Barre's own Rock City Chorus and band followed by the rockers Atom and the Orbits will take place on the opening night of the Barre Heritage Festival Thursday, September 21. Directed by John Harrison, Rock City is Barre's One and Only Rock and Soul chorus with 40 singers and one rocking band! Our mission is to serve the residents of Barre and Central Vermont by giving back to the community through our benefit concerts. Come and enjoy the concert in comfort, sing and dance with us if you choose, or sit back and listen if you prefer! Admission by donation. All are welcome. A cash bar will be available. We thank The Elks Lodge, Rock City Band members, Atom and the Orbits, and our sound technician for their very generous contributions. All proceeds from the concert will go to the Barre Community Relief Fund.

11:00AM-12:00PM: comedy hypnosis street show with bug guys entertainment - Round 1
North Main Street

You've seen them at Fairs. The hypnotist uses a blend of comedy, hypnosis and audience participation to create an exciting and entertaining show. Invites members of the audience to the stage and after some careful words and some music, they are under his command. The hypnotist will typically begin the show by introducing themselves and then explain the process of hypnosis. They will then invite members of the audience to come on stage and be hypnotized. Once in a trance, the hypnotist will then use various techniques to create humorous situations and scenarios that the audience can enjoy and laugh at. The Comedy Hypnotist will then bring the audience back to reality and end the show with a bang.
