Special Message to VFW Post 6757 and Auxiliary membership from PA Wounded Warrior Representative:

I was honored to represent PA Wounded Warriors at the extremely well planned and executed 20 September 15th Annual Warrior Dice Run held at VFW Post 6757 Mansfield PA. Post Commander Rick Kline and Auxiliary President Eric Bailey, and all Officers who were generous with their time for me during this complex event.

The day began with approximately 51 Bikes and autos making a 6 hour "Poker type Run," however using dice rather than playing cards. The "Run," was followed with an "All American Cookout." Throughout the afternoon, there were 50/50's, Axe throwing competitions, "T" shirt sales, drawings for items donated by 81 local businesses and individuals, followed up by an auction for additional donated items and a band.

I was extremely moved when I was presented a "Check," from the Warrior Dice Run, for $10,000 payable to PA Wounded Warriors. I was humbled at the dedication and enthusiasm shown by the members of the Post as well as the participating public in support of veterans in general and PA Wounded Warriors in particular.

Truly these are Great Americans who remember the sacrifice of our veterans. We owe them a heartfelt Thank You.
