

To Robert Wargo (Rob; Bob) from his wife, Heather Wargo
on the year of their 25th anniversary of meeting & 24 anniversary of marriage:

My RJ,

The year marks a milestone since our eyes met Denim on Sky. Slightly less than one until our vows intoned in trembling voices in a spare country church.

Never dawning either of us the peaks and valleys ahead as the sun set on our first Hello.

Two hands of souls anticipating Me and You, these bright lights, some lit so shortly, destined to arrive at the advent of rings and promises.

An Enthroned Heart, two lungs, is bound eternal, its seal visible only to those beloved. How I cherished you, as I know you know, my love. To reassure, we will Have fifty more years of unfailing love and devotion,
do not despair!

St Margaret Thérèse, Ora Pro Nobis!

Your H
