

throwback

THURSDAY

A Historic Look Back

The Casper Daily Tribune

VOLUME ONE CASPER, WYO., TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1917. NUMBER 207

KAISER ESCAPES ASSASSIN'S GUN

JOFFRE, HERO OF MARNE, IN TRAIN WRECK

Special Train Carrying Members of French Commission Derailed at Arcola, Illinois, Last Night

NOT MALICIOUS, IS CLAIM

No Injuries Reported and Government Officials Decide Derailment Was Purely an Accident

BULLETIN

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 8.—Government secret service men on board the commission's special definitely decided that the wreck was caused by the accidental breaking of a light rail under heavy equipment.

WITH THE FRENCH COMMISSION, May 8.—Traveling on the new special, the commission today resumed its tour of the Middle West, following the wreck which shook up members of the party last night near Arcola, Ill., where a broken rail derailed the train.

The government officials decided today that the derailment of the

HERE'S HOW TO FLY OLD GLORY

WASHINGTON, May 8.—For the guidance of puzzled patriots, the War Department has prescribed this simple formula for hanging the American Flag—as it should be hung:

Whenever possible, hang the Flag from a staff, and not against a wall, the field of Stars should be to the north always—on a north and south street, and to the east on an east and west street.

Never hang it horizontally, if possible to hang it otherwise, but if hung horizontally, the end containing the Stars should be at the north or east.

Army regulations call for the Flag to fly from sunrise to sunset, but it is optional with the individual whether it shall fly at night.

ORIGIN AND ATTITUDE OF U. S. SPEAK FOR LEADERSHIP IN WAR

World Appreciation of American Principles Will Make Junk Heaps of Crowns and Baubles and Bring Peace, Says Buchtel

Four hundred years of endeavor, founded upon spiritual ideals, and governed by the theory that "all men are created equal," coupled with a material greatness made possible by Divine gift and created for Divine purpose, have placed America in a position to teach the world of principles that will be recognized in the establishment of permanent peace, that will bring crowns and baubles to the junk pile, and will thing of the past, Chancellor Buchtel prefaced his lecture with a comparison of the material resources of America and Europe, all of which, he contended, is the direct outgrowth of Divine gift, to the end that the principles upon which this government was founded, ultimately will hold sway over the entire world. The present war he characterized as the most wicked and insane in history.

LID CLAMPED DOWN ON ALL STATE NEWS

Secretary Lansing Institutes Ironclad Censorship and Delegates Task to Publicity Bureau

EMPLOYEES MUST KEEP MUM

Naval Authority Expressed Opinion Solution of Submarine Problem Near Realization Here

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Secretary of State Lansing has instituted an ironclad censorship on the State Department, refusing to permit any officials except newspaper men to talk to the newspaper men. Lansing announces that he will summarily dismiss any employee giving information to the press upon which a criticism of the government's policies may be based. He will also dismiss employees who personally criticize any government policy.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—A competent government authority expresses the opinion officially that the solution of the submarine menace is close at hand, when W. L. Saunders and other members of the Navy Consulting Board confer with Secretary of the Navy Daniels on anti-submarine inventions.

TWO SHOTS HIT CAR AND THIRD IS WIDE; POLICE HUSH NEWS

Peace Address Is Postponed, as Persistent Efforts to Gain Confidence of People Stimulates Sentiment Against War; Rewards Out for Peace Agitators

ROME, May 8.—The Kaiser had a narrow escape from assassination this morning while motoring to Berlin, according to a Zurich dispatch to Corriere d'Italia, the foremost Italian newspaper.

An unidentified man fired three shots at the Kaiser's automobile, two striking the tonneau of the Kaiser's car and one going wild.

The would-be assassin was immediately placed under arrest, but the police and other authorities are silent concerning the identity of the man who fired the shots, as well as other details of the near-tragedy.

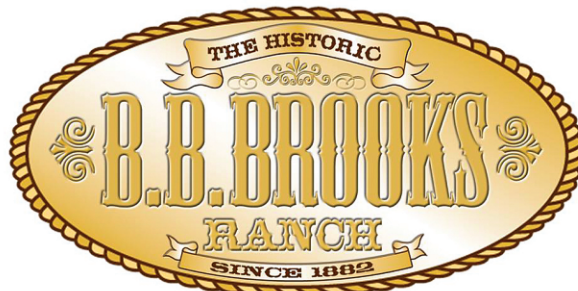

COPENHAGEN, May 8.—Germany has started peace talk to serve its own ends, but the government is now confronted with a distinct and growing movement for peace among all classes of people, which the government is now making strenuous efforts to repress. Private advices tell of the hunt for peace agitators, which has been transferred from the civil to the military authorities, with rewards for the capture of all

Go to trib.com/history to read the full newspaper.

Sponsored By

Dallas
J. Laird
ATTORNEY

Renewal
by Andersen.

WINDOW REPLACEMENT

an Andersen Company

CASPER
Star  Tribune
COMMUNICATIONS