

TOP 5 COUNTIES

Five counties accounted for 80 percent of the drilling permits issued in the past 12 months. Four of the five are in the state air quality region with the lowest pollution standards. Sublette County, which is covered by the most stringent requirements, is the lone exception.

