

Wins and losses

Sometimes UW makes money when it plays a football game; sometimes it loses it.

Home or Away	Result	TV revenues	Payouts	Net
Away	 Wyoming 38, Colorado State 17	$37,037 inconvenience fee for game starting after 7 p.m. (Game was aired on ESPNU.)	$20,000*	$17,037
Home	 Wyoming 35, Air Force 26	N/A (Game was aired on ROOT Sports.)	$20,000*	-$20,000
Away	 Wyoming 42, Nevada 34	$500,000 for playing on ESPN2	$20,000*	$480,000
Home	 Wyoming 30, Boise State 28	$160,000 pool share for televised game against BSU (Game was aired on CBS Sports Network.)	$20,000*	$140,000

Additional information: Cowboy Joe Club expenses: $25,000 incentive payout to Craig Bohl for reaching bowl game, assistants became eligible for $104,586 payout for making bowl game.

Home	 Wyoming 52, Utah State 28	$500,000 for playing on ESPN2	$20,000*	$480,000
Away	 UNLV 69, Wyoming 66, 3OT	N/A (Game was aired on ROOT Sports.)	N/A	N/A
Home	 Wyoming 34, San Diego State 33	N/A (Game was aired on CBS Sports Network.)	$20,000*	-$20,000

Future revenues generated: $94,418. Win ultimately established Wyoming as host of Mountain West Championship game, bringing in that additional sum.

Future revenues prevented: $166,166. Win essentially eliminated the chance of a Mountain West team reaching a College Football Playoff bowl, which would have brought Mountain West teams that additional sum.

Away	 New Mexico 56, Wyoming 35	$500,000 for playing on ESPN2	N/A	$500,000
------	---	--------------------------------	-----	-----------

*incentive payout to Craig Bohl for winning conference game