

Fueling change in Wyoming: Hydrogen

Here's how the most common generation method, carbon-intensive steam methane reforming, turns natural gas into hydrogen:

Natural gas is combined with steam

Hydrogen and carbon monoxide are combined with water

Hydrogen is separated out and carbon dioxide is released

