Joshua's and K.I.D.S.

Joshua's was designated as an official partner agency of K.I.D.S. in January of 2012, becoming the only K.I.D.S. partner in Wyoming. Joshua's raised $5,000, which K.I.D.S. matched on a 15-to-1 ratio in order to help the needy children of Wyoming to receive basic necessities.

Basic necessities & cultural enrichment help children to grow up to become happy, well-adjusted, productive members of society.

A toy provided by the K.I.D.S. program can help to allay the fears of children in Pediatrics Wards.

What is K.I.D.S.?

Through a network of over 1,000 not-for-profit social service agencies across America like Joshua's Storehouse, K.I.D.S. provides brand-new clothing, toys, shoes, juvenile products, books, school supplies, and so much more to support them in their efforts to help families in need. Approximately 90% of K.I.D.S.' donations goes to U.S. efforts and they were named the number-one humanitarian charity by Consumers Digest in 2012.

"K.I.D.S. makes a huge difference in the lives of needy children all over the world!"

K.I.D.S. helps any child in the crisis of poverty, by being able to give them what they may need in order to help them build hope, self-esteem, and the confidence to succeed. K.I.D.S., by providing books and games as well as clothing items and footwear, can help children to succeed in school, and thus, later in life as well.

Children Are Our Most Important Resource.

One smile, one chance is sometimes all that is needed.

Whom does K.I.D.S. help?

Since 1985, K.I.D.S. has provided more than $1-billion worth of brand-new items to children who face the challenges of poverty, homelessness, domestic abuse, low literacy, military service, major illness, foster-care, incarceration of a family member, or a natural disaster.
