Louie Ronald Dobler, 67, passed away peacefully at his home in Tracy, California, surrounded by family and friends on June 19, 2026. He was born on July 27, 1958, at O'Connor Hospital in San Jose, California.

Louie was raised in Santa Clara, California, at the family-owned Edelweiss Dairy. He attended Wilcox High School and later studied at San Jose State University. In 1980, he moved with his family to Tracy, where he built a life rooted in hard work, family and agriculture.

Louie dedicated 32 years of service to PG&E before retiring. Throughout his life, he remained actively involved in the family farming operations, continuing to work on the family ranches both before and after retirement. His family's roots in Tracy date back to 1958.

Known for his strong work ethic, Louie was always willing to lend a helping hand. He will be remembered for his warm smile, infectious laugh, respect for others, unwavering honesty and gift for connecting with people. He had a deep appreciation for the outdoors and found joy in caring for his cattle, the smell of freshly cut alfalfa, snow and water skiing, traveling and spending time in nature.

Louie was a proud member of the IBEW, Aelpler Gruppe Swiss Club and the California Cattlemen's Association.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Erica Dobler and Louie Dobler Sr. He is survived by his brother, Gary Dobler, as well as numerous cousins in California, Switzerland and Cabo San Lucas, Mexico.

Louie will be deeply missed by his family, friends and all who had the privilege of knowing him.
