Jason Christopher Elola

Jason Christopher Elola, beloved husband, father, son, brother, and friend, entered the presence of his Lord on November 8, 2025, at the age of 49. Born on February 5, 1976, Jason grew up in Castro Valley and spent his adult life in Tracy, where he filled his home with warmth, and unwavering love.

Jason is survived by his devoted wife, Gabrielle Elola; loving parents Mark (wife, Michele), Lisa (late husband Paul); three sisters; three brothers; his cherished children, five daughters, Maria, Jordan, Liana, Allisandra, Aliyah; four sons, Angel, Brenden, Joshua, Aiden; his four adored grandchildren Delilah, Marley, KJ and Cody; two grandmothers, who held a special place in his heart.

Jason's family was the center of his world, and he poured everything he had into them. He spoke with his adult children every single day, offering guidance, support, and the kind of unconditional love that imprints Jason's legacy.

A man of genuine compassion, Jason lived with a servant's heart. He had a rare gift of making everyone feel like his best friend — because to him, they were. His generosity and tenderness touched countless lives. Jason never forgot where he came from and maintained lifelong friendships from his childhood and work, always remembering — and appreciating — those who shaped him.

Jason spent several years as a Sprinkler Fitter at Local 483 in the San Francisco Bay Area before becoming a local businessman managing Golden State Family Farms and Street Eats.

Whether on a job site or surrounded by friends, he was known for his inclusiveness, his work ethic, and his willingness to step in and help whenever help was needed.

Jason loved Jesus deeply and he understood God had plans for him. He lived up to his name which means "The Lord is Salvation", always exemplifying protection and refuge for those in need. Jason gave more than he ever took. He forgave easily. He showed grace freely. And he loved his family with a devotion that reflected the heart of Christ.

Though Jason's passing leaves an immeasurable void, his family and friends celebrate the incredible legacy he leaves behind — a life marked by kindness, generosity, laughter, and most importantly love. His memory will continue to live on in the countless people who were blessed to know him.
