

Brenda Darlene (Brown) Roy-Graham

Gram

Brenda Darlene (Brown) Roy-Graham peacefully passed away on July 8, 2026, at the age of 80.

Born on August 18, 1945, to Jesse Nolan and Evelyn Marie Brown in French Camp, California, Brenda was one of five children raised in Tracy, a community she loved deeply and proudly called home throughout her life.

Brenda devoted herself to the people she loved. She was a caring daughter, sister, cousin, friend, aunt, mom and mother-in-law. Above all else, she treasured her role as Gram, the title that brought her the greatest joy and defined the love she shared with her family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Tommy Lee Roy; her parents, Jesse and Evelyn Brown; her brothers, Kenneth and Roy Brown; her sisters, Etie and Sue Brown; and her beloved son, James Dale Graham Jr. ("Pug").

Brenda is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Tommy and Christine Roy; her daughters, Teri Roy and Janell Graham; and her eight cherished grandchildren: Tommy (Ashleigh) Roy, Krystin (Hector) Sosa, Stephanie (Vince) Yacovelli, Courtney (Rob) Lewis, Kynlee Jarboe, Jordyn (Ryan) Wingate, Jesse Roy and Dylan Bedford.

Her greatest pride and joy were her 14 great-grandchildren, each of whom held a special place in her heart.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, July 24, 2026, at 10 a.m. at Tracy Public Cemetery. A reception will follow at the Banta Inn.

*Brenda's love, strength and unwavering devotion to her family will be remembered always.
Though she will be deeply missed, her legacy lives on through the generations who proudly knew her simply as Gram.*
