

In Loving Memory

Jacqueline Darlene Israel

Sept. 7, 1946 – June 24, 2026

Jacqueline Darlene Israel, lovingly known throughout her life as Darlene, Jackie and, most affectionately, Nana, passed away surrounded by the love of her family on June 24, 2026. She was born Sept. 7, 1946, in Stockton, California, and grew up in Tracy, where she attended school and began forming the deep, lifelong connections that would become a hallmark of her life.

Darlene built a career defined not only by hard work but by heart. To her co-workers, she was Jackie—reliable, warm and always ready with a smile. She cherished the friendships she made throughout her career, many of which endured for decades after her retirement. Even after leaving the workforce, she faithfully attended reunion luncheons, keeping those treasured bonds alive with the same devotion she brought to every relationship.

In the late 1980s, Darlene and her husband, Glenn, made their home in Manteca, where she raised her children and later helped raise her grandchildren. Her home was a place of comfort and togetherness—steady, welcoming and filled with the warmth that only she could create. She enjoyed bowling, gardening, attending her grandsons' ball games and spending time with the people she loved most.

As the eldest daughter of the Taylor family, Darlene was its strength and anchor. To her brothers and sisters, she was simply Darlene—dependable, wise and unwavering. To the generations that followed—her grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews—she was Nana, a name that represented comfort, joy and unconditional love.

Her legacy is one of devotion, resilience and deep family roots. She leaves behind a family who adored her, friendships that endured across decades and a lifetime of memories that will continue to inspire and guide those who knew and loved her.

Darlene lived a life filled with connection, laughter and quiet strength. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished.

She is survived by her husband of 42 years, Glenn Israel; her daughter, Sandra (Orlando) Mahan; her son, Michael (Karen) Sims; and her stepsons, Damon and Jeffrey Israel.

She is also lovingly remembered by her grandchildren, Joey Sims, Jessica Guillory, Aaron Sims, Shelby Sims, Trinity Israel, Bella Israel and Julie Israel; her great-grandson, Joseph Guillory; her great-granddaughter, Ariella Guillory; and her sister, Patty (Donnie) Judd.

Darlene was preceded in death by her mother and stepfather, Eileen and Fred Sargenti; her father, Harry Taylor; her brothers, Earl Mix, Harry "Wayne" Taylor and Garry Moore; her sisters, Nancy Taylor Soto, Sharon Robertson and Marilyn Taylor; her grandson, Robert "Bobby" Guillory Jr.; and her granddaughter, Athina Kelley.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 12:30 p.m. Friday, July 31, 2026, at Tracy Memorial Chapel, 5 W. Highland Ave., Tracy. Following the service, Darlene will be laid to rest at Tracy Public Cemetery on Schulte Road.
