Sue Lindly Ohlendorf

Sue Lindly Ohlendorf, beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and treasured matriarch of her family, passed away peacefully on February 21, 2026, at the age of 99.

Born on July 6, 1926, Sue spent more than 70 years as a proud resident of Tracy, California. She was deeply rooted in her community and dedicated much of her life to serving and supporting local organizations. She was a founding member of Tracy Savings & Loan and remained actively involved in civic life throughout the years. Among her many affiliations, her membership in the Order of the Eastern Star was especially meaningful to her, and she cherished the friendships and fellowship she found there.

Sue was the loving mother of Sherrian Morris, Melanie Noble, and Lynn Lindly. She was a proud grandmother to five grandchildren and a joyful great-grandmother to ten great-grandchildren. Her family was her greatest accomplishment and deepest pride.

As the matriarch of her family, Sue was a steady source of strength, wisdom, and love. She guided generations with grace, resilience, and unwavering devotion. Her legacy lives on not only in the community she helped build, but in the hearts and values of the family she nurtured so faithfully.

She will be remembered for her commitment to family, her dedication to her community, and the quiet strength that defined her long and beautiful life.

In lieu of flowers donations to the Boys & Girls Club of Tracy is appreciated.

Celebration of life to be announced at a later time.
