

Narda Jane Moreno

July 30, 1968 ~ April 16, 2026

Narda Jane Moreno, 57, passed away peacefully on April 16, 2026, in Pleasanton, California. Born in San Jose, California, Narda lived a life marked by generosity, kindness, and a deep commitment to helping others. She was a resident of Oakland, California.

A graduate of Stagg High School in Stockton, California, Narda built a successful career as a Medical Coding Specialist and obtained many professional designations. Her dedication and entrepreneurship were matched only by her compassionate spirit. She was known for her charitable efforts, including cooking gourmet meals for the hungry in Oakland and donating clothing and other essentials to those in need.

Narda is survived by her devoted partner of over eleven years, Michael Osterberg JD of Oakland, California; her children Kristy Meservy (Levi), Carolyn Farley, Haley Roach, and Daniel Roach (Kalina); and her grandchildren Lexi Meservy, Alivia Mitchell, Natasha Mitchell, Hunter Mitchell, and Riley Meservy. She also leaves behind her mother, Jane Moreno. She was predeceased by her father, Manuel Moreno. She is also survived by her brothers Armand Moreno (Jonell), Aaron Moreno (Rebecca), and Timothy Moreno (Robert Presto); as well as nieces and nephews Dennis Moreno (Lela), Sarah Moreno, Ariana Lynn (Josh), and Michael Moreno.

Narda's love extended beyond her human connections to her cherished fur babies, Pixie and Kiki.

A private service will be held to honor her memory. Her generous heart left an indelible mark on all who knew her. May Narda's legacy of kindness continue to inspire those she touched during her lifetime.
