

David Lee Jacobe

June 6, 1941 ★ December 2, 2025

David Lee Jacobe, a long-time resident of Tracy, California, and a proud United States Air Force veteran, passed away peacefully at home on December 2, 2025, at the age of 84.

Born in Syracuse, New York, David was the son of Ray Doubleday and Florence Morce Kingsley Jacobe.

He graduated from Fabius High School. Immediately after high school, David joined the United States Air Force, serving for over 20 years. His service took him to various bases, both stateside and overseas. Upon retiring from the Air Force, he spent time in Atlanta, Georgia, working for Lockheed Martin. He later moved to the San Francisco Bay Area, where he worked for Nummi in Fremont before retiring fully in 2008.

David was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather.

He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Trish Jacobe; son, Rick; daughter-in-law Carolyn, and grandsons Stephen and Matt; several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ray Doubleday and Florence Morce; stepfather, George Whitten; sister, Ruth Burlingham; brothers, Leland, Lester, Robert, and Donald Jacobe.

David was a true lover of nature, caring for a variety of animals and plants, including dogs, cats, and birds. He especially enjoyed making cuttings of his plants to share with friends and neighbors.

David will be interred with full military honors at the Sacramento Valley National Cemetery in Dixon, California.
