

In Loving Memory of

Adeline Costa

December 21, 1924 – May 16, 2026

Adeline Costa, 101, passed away on May 16, 2026, in Manteca, California. She was born on December 21, 1924, in New Bedford, Massachusetts, to Joseph and Delfina Serpa.

Adeline enjoyed volunteer work while her children were young, and in later years she dedicated her time to Tracy Interfaith Ministries. A devoted member of the Catholic faith, she was active in her parish communities in both Tracy and Angels Camp.

An avid reader throughout her life, Adeline's love of books never waned. Less than six months ago, she insisted on keeping many of her books because she might want to read them again. She also enjoyed needlepoint and tackling 1,000-piece jigsaw puzzles. Above all, she cherished time spent with family and friends, both young and old.

She is survived by her daughters, Nancy Hall of Manteca, California, and Dori Weinkauf of Boston, Massachusetts; her brother, Joseph Serpa; her grandchildren, Brooke Blandford (Scott), Jordan Hall (Renee), Abigail Hall, Logan Weinkauf (Danielle), Heather Marchini (Angelo), and Jeffrey Costa (Alyson); her great-grandchildren, Jenna Nelson, Ella McCracken, Lyla Blandford, Seth Hall, Blake Hall, Annette Marchini, Colton Marchini, Olivia Weinkauf, Thomas Weinkauf, Parker Weinkauf, and Gray Costa; and her great-great-granddaughter, Chloe Nelson.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 50 years, Manuel Costa; her son, Michael Costa; and her sons-in-law, Thomas Weinkauf and Steven Hall.

Adeline leaves behind a large extended family, a stack of unread novels, and an unfinished jigsaw puzzle—a fitting reminder of a life filled with curiosity, faith, service, and love.

A Memorial Mass will be held at a later date.
