In 1946 his parents brought him to Tracy, California where he attended Tracy High School. He worked for Ortega Brothers doing field and farm work and for the Railroad before enlisting in the Army in 1954. He became an American Citizen to proudly serve his country. Alex worked at the Tracy Defense Depot for 34 years and retired in 1993. While working at the Depot, Alex was always working a second job or a side job. He worked at Blackies & Ruby's Drapes and Upholstery and with Agustin Ramirez doing construction. Alex was truly a man of all trades, always working to provide for his family and his mom.

In 1961 Alex met the love of his life, Consuelo Cordova. They were married on May 27, 1962 and had four children; Luis, Armando, Mariaelena "Nena", and Elsa.

Alex enjoyed spending time with family. He would take his children on outings every Sunday and later he with his wife, would take his grandchildren camping at Manteca Water Slides and to Great America every summer. Alex was always doing construction and/or masonry, not only on his own house but for friends and family. Many people complimented him on his house with the gold lions and his beautiful garden. You could always find him outside tending to or watering his many plants or just talking to one of his many friends that happened to be passing by. He loved carpentry and whittling wood. He was a devoted parishioner of Saint Bernard's Catholic Church.

Alex is survived by his children, Luis A. Rodriguez (Nery) of Manteca, Armando M. Rodriguez (Carmen) of Stockton, Mariaelena "Nena" Serrato (Gil), Elsa Rodriguez both of Tracy; nine grandchildren, Frances Rodriguez, Alex Rodriguez (Lauren), Melissa Alvarado (Julian), Samantha Ancrile (Anthony), Gilbert Serrato Jr. (Alex), Lisette Rodriguez (Marco), Natalie LaMadrid (Chris), Mariah Rodriguez, Tammy Serrato; seventeen great grandchildren plus one on the way; several nieces, nephews, cousins and God children, all of whom he adored.
