

WEATHER
Maximum Temp., P. 42-45
Minimum Temp., P. 32-35

VOL. 94 NO. 99

FOURTEEN PAGES

TUCSON, ARIZONA, TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 9, 1935

FOURTEEN PAGES

PRICE FIVE CENTS

The Arizona Daily Star

ADOLPH S. OCHS, PUBLISHER, DIES IN CHATTANOOGA

Took Picturesque Old Route and Made It One of Greatest Papers. Stricken in CAFE. Began as Printer's Devil, First Publication Was Directory.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 8.—(AP)—Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the New York Times, who died today in a heart attack, started as a printer's devil more than a half century ago. He started in the city where he started in the publishing business. He was 77 years old. Stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage in a downtown restaurant at Chattanooga, Tenn., he died at 10:30 p. m. Mr. Ochs, one of the divisors and chief organizers of the Hearst and Armstrong groups, came here in 1886 to take over the old Standard. From that time he was in the city with relatives. He had been in ill health for some time. He had two years ago had a cerebral hemorrhage in the head and two years ago had a cerebral hemorrhage in the head.

Publisher Dies

ADOLPH S. OCHS

CITY MAY SAVE ORNDORFF HOTEL

A definite movement to preserve the old Orndorff hotel as a historical landmark was started last night when representatives of the chamber of commerce presented a proposal for the purchase of the property to the city council. According to the proposed plan, the 30 year old building would be preserved as a permanent historical landmark and would house the offices of the chamber of commerce and other civic organizations. The plan was approved by the city council, and the city will purchase the property for $150,000. The plan is to purchase the property for $150,000. The plan is to purchase the property for $150,000.

BABSON FEARFUL OF TRADE TREND IF TAXES GO ON

Sees Two or Three Good Years Ahead, and Then Look Out! SENSES REVOLUTION. Dole, Inflation, Rebellion Normal Steps as History Reveals Trend.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—General Robert E. Lee surrounded his third, straggling little army to Lind. Gen. U. S. Grant at Appomattox. A contemporary artist reproduced the scene in the lithograph above. Here, today, the weary veterans who look past in the war between the states, only about 20,000 survive. Of the surviving veterans, 14,475 were high schoolers and 5,533 were privates. In 1931 the United States had 2,833,222 Confederate veterans and their widows, 193,332,000.

Veterans Dwindle Rapidly as Seven Decades Pass

There's Gold and Lots of It But No Water in Quijotoas. Covered Wells With 50 Veters in Center of One of Richest Districts in State If It Only Could Get That Underground River, Says Colonel Munsy.

LUEDORFF, 70, TO BE HONORED. Even Hinder Causes Praise To Man Who Refuses Him Support.

$4,880,000,000 IS SIGNED BY FDR ON BOARD TRAIN

President Immediately Gives Cash to CCC and Direct Relief Group TO SET UP BOARD. Divides Benefits Into Four Groups; Hopkins to Continue as Head.

EN ROUTE WITH PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, April 8.—(AP)—As he sped northward, President Roosevelt today signed the $4,880,000,000 work relief bill into law and took initial steps toward the spending of the biggest single appropriation in the nation's history. The bill was signed by President Roosevelt in the White House. The bill was signed by President Roosevelt in the White House.

There's Gold and Lots of It But No Water in Quijotoas

Covered Wells With 50 Veters in Center of One of Richest Districts in State If It Only Could Get That Underground River, Says Colonel Munsy.

RUBBER MAKERS CONTINUE VOTE

Will Count Ballots on Strike Wednesday, U. S. May Intervene.

DEWEY THURLO HELD ON ROBBERY CHARGE

PHOENIX, April 8.—(AP)—Dewey Thurlo, who was released from prison last year, was back in the state prison today on a charge of robbery. He was arrested Saturday by sheriff deputies in a subject in a burglary that netted only seven cents. It involved the theft of a sign register from a service station.

MEN OF CIVIL WAR FADE FAST

Bloodiest Conflict of History Ended 70 Years Ago Today.

CHARLES R. GAY TO HEAD STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Charles R. Gay, former head of the New York Stock Exchange, has been named to head the market. He will take over the position on May 1. He will take over the position on May 1.

SMITH, HOOVER TALK FOR SALVATIONISTS

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith and J. Edgar Hoover today talked with representatives of the Salvation Army. They discussed the needs of the organization and ways to help them. They discussed the needs of the organization and ways to help them.

Criticism of NRA Piles Up; Early Court Test Probable

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—The NRA's constitutionality was questioned today by a federal court in New York. The court is expected to rule on the case in the next few days. The court is expected to rule on the case in the next few days.

10 RAILROADERS KILLED IN WRECK

SACRAMENTO, April 8.—(AP)—At least 10 Southern Pacific railroad workers were killed and several others injured today in a head-on collision between a passenger train and a freight train. The accident occurred near Sacramento, California.

Kidnaper Claims Promise of Victim to Help Stop Hanging

NEW YORK, April 8.—(AP)—A kidnaped man today claimed that he had promised the victim to help stop a hanging. The man was released from custody today. The man was released from custody today.

ROOSEVELT'S TRAIN STRIKES EMPTY AUTO

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL EN ROUTE, April 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's train today struck an empty auto in a narrow-gauge crossing. The train was delayed for a few minutes. The train was delayed for a few minutes.

STATE ACCOUNTANTS TO MEET THURSDAY

PHOENIX, April 8.—(AP)—The Arizona State Accountants Association will meet today in Phoenix. The meeting will discuss the current state of the profession. The meeting will discuss the current state of the profession.

HATCH ASKS LONGER RELIEF FOR MINERS

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—Senator Hatcher today asked for longer relief for miners. He proposed a bill to extend the relief program. He proposed a bill to extend the relief program.

GALLON AND HALF IS HIS SUPPLY OF CORN

OAKLAHOMA CITY, April 8.—(AP)—A farmer who had applied for an emergency feed and seed loan was told today by a government official that he had only a gallon and a half of corn left. The farmer was told that he had only a gallon and a half of corn left.