FAMOUS MOTION PICTURE
STARS FOR THE CHILDREN

PARTICULAR WOMEN.

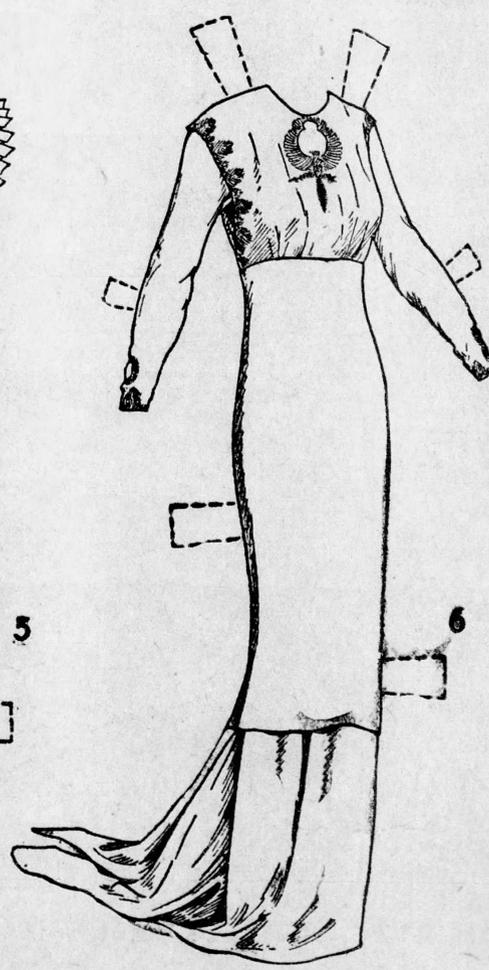

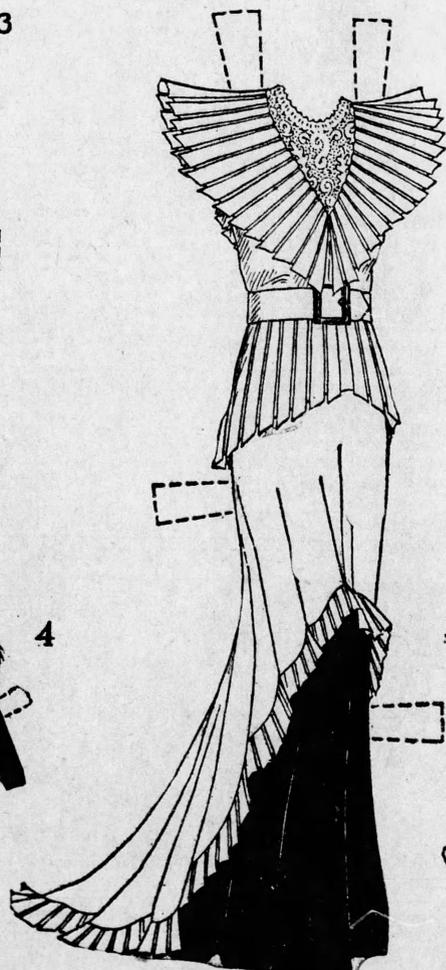

Claudette Colbert is unquestionably one of the most popular stars of the screen and last year she was given the Academy Award for the finest performance of 1934. Her outstanding success in "It Happened One Night" "Cleopatra", "The Gilded Lily", another four star picture, added to her laurels. Here she is shown in gowns from her personal wardrobe and a selection of those worn in her latest picture, "The Bride Comes Home", by Paramount.

1. This simple satin blouse with sport collar is worn with skirt of dark blue French Flannel
2. Beige Kasha cloth and saffles form this charming ensemble. With it Miss Colbert wears brown antelope gloves cuffed in sable. Accessories are also in brown.
3. This lovely daytime frock is of heavy green crepe. Simplicity is its keynote and its only decorations are the white ruffled chiffon collar and two-toned buttons.
4. For formal afternoon wear, this beautiful coat, lavishly trimmed in silver fox, is most appropriate.
5. An unusual dinner dress of straw colored taffeta. The collar and tunic are broad flat pleats and the flaring skirt lends a graceful note.
6. Symbolical embroidery is the highlight of this modern hostess gown of raspberry crepe. Note the scarab motif at the throat and wrists.
7. For dinner wear, Miss Colbert chooses this lovely black net creation with long puff sleeves, square collar and long circular skirt.
