CODE BLUE ALERT

ATLANTIC COUNTY OFFICE OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

The National Weather Service (NWS) predicts the following weather conditions within Atlantic County in the next 24 to 48 Hours.

Conditions: Temperatures will reach 25 degrees Fahrenheit or lower without precipitation or 32 degrees Fahrenheit or lower with precipitation; or wind-chill temperature will be zero degrees or less for a period of two hours or more.

This Alert is intended for Municipalities with a documented population of at least ten (10) "at risk individuals." "At risk Individual means an individual living outdoors, on the streets, in the parks or in poorly insulated settings, and who is at risk for weather-related exposure and possible death."

The Atlantic County Office of Emergency Management has declared a Code Blue Alert. This Alert indicates the above conditions may exist within your Municipality within the next 24 to 48 Hours. Please review the NWS prediction for your Municipality. Review your plans and take all actions necessary to protect this vulnerable population.

This alert is issued as of:

Start Date: December 20, 2019 Time: 6PM End Date: December 22, 2019

(Note: this alert will expire when the weather conditions above no longer exist in your Municipality on the End Date of this alert.)

Approved: Jake Lees, Deputy Coordinator Date: December 20, 2019
