PHOENIX, March 11.—With only about 1 1/2 hours to go until its payroll closes, the legislature finds itself in a jam with much of the legislation still unacted upon.

The senate recessed the agreement to be passed after the adjournment of the legislature. It is expected that the senate will reconvene on Monday, March 18, to begin its session.

PHOENIX, March 11.—The legislature today adjourned for the day, with the senate recessing until Monday, March 18.

PHOENIX, March 11.—Gov.
Clegg today announced that he will sign the bill which authorizes the state to purchase the Arizona National Guard.

Defense Jobs Slowed
In Walkout Troubles

Several Arms Plants Closed and Others May Be Shut Down as Result of Union Actions Which Call Men Away From Work

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Strikes in widely separated industrial areas continued yesterday to slow down work on some national defense materials.

A walkout of 120 AFL building laborers on construction of a $12,000,000 small arms ammunition plant in St. Louis, Mo., caused a stoppage of work among carpenters, electricians and steam boiler men.

Phase as Winter Relaxes its Grip

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LONDON, March 11.—(AP)—The fleet and the RAF—Britain's mightiest arms of war—were ready to strike for victory in the developing battle of the Atlantic with the vast supply of weapons now expected from the United States, official informants declared publicly and privately today.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—It is not "any good enough" to bring reply to Herbert Hoover's relative plans to administer the state hospital, after amending it to remove the element of a military weapon of war? It is a plausible question.
