

Proposed Becton, Dickinson and Co. ethylene oxide sterilization facility

The Pima County Department of Environmental Quality is conducting a public outreach process for a medical equipment sterilization center at Kolb and Valencia. The center would emit small amounts of ethylene oxide, a carcinogenic gas.

