

VENISON DINNER IS SERVED BY STEWART

Guns Arranged as Tripod Decorated With Belts Is the Unique Centerpiece

A "venison dinner" was the delicious feast which Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stewart of the Cabinet Cafe provided for a number of their gentlemen friends last evening at 8:30 o'clock. Covers were laid for 40 and the splendid dinner was enjoyed by everyone.

Venison prepared in various ways was the feature of the dinner. The deer was one of a number killed in the Rincons by a party including Mr. Stewart, Gene Pease and Seely Starr, and the guns of the party, arranged to form a tripod and decorated with cartridge belts and hunting knives, formed the centerpiece of the table. Jokes and hunting stories were the order of the evening and at the close of the dinner the health of the health and hostess was drunk.

The menu was as follows:

Celery	Potato salad.
Roast venison	Fried venison.
Venison a la Mulligan.
Mash potatoes	Fried Sweet Potatoes
French Peas	Venison gravy
Hot Biscuit, Bread and Butter
Chocolate Pudding	Black Coffee.
Claret	Rainier Beer
Cigarettes.
