

Title 42 expulsions at the southern Arizona border

While more than 43% of migrants apprehended at the southern Arizona border in the first half of fiscal year 2022 were expelled from the country under the public health policy Title 42, the number of times that policy was used was markedly greater in the Tucson Sector.

