Will go down as in history...

The american people have found out about the deep state and treasonous behavior of their corrupt government and took a fucking stand.

We took our capital
back.

The United states took a stand a majority peacefully pushed back lot lines of Security and persisted through rubber bullets, chemical sprays, baton beating, physical resistance and doors.

And occupied the Capitol building in Washington since the British.

Hundreds of years ago.
Count politicians were having a meeting where despite concrete evidence
have IGNORED the U.S.
Peoples voices.

So the people brought themselves to their house and took it back.

Causing the politicians to run so FAST from their seats. They left things behind that will add to their demise & unvet their lives.

Will waste more time a week of a lifetime.

Despite the unequivocal evidence of election fraud. Deep state people who are financially compensated and in bed literally with communist countries. have been sworn in to the United States presidency.
