DELEGATION TO ENTER PROTEST AGAINST BILLS

Yuma Officials Are Set To Appear Before Committee

INCOME - THREATENED

Three-Day Wait, Physical Examinations Would Be Required

By BENJAMIN COHEN
PHOENIX, Feb. 1.—(Special)—Yuma county officials went to keep their own counsel and will arrive tomorrow to talk to legislators on two private bills which would require three-day marriage licenses and pre-marital physical examinations. Among those in the party will be Judge W. M. Ingham and Marcel Egan, chairman of the board of supervisors.

The bills are a threat to the $1 million dollar income hotels, saloons, casinos, and other amusements. The county issued 22,000 permits for a total income of only 300 to Yuma county residents. Most of the others were from California, which has a three-day license law.

See H. H. Blake, Yuma, said that the bill will have a beneficial effect on Arizona, which has some more revenue from non-resident couples. That revenue will be used to pay for the state's share of the federal income tax. The bill also would require three-day marriage licenses and pre-marital physical examinations. Among those in the party will be Judge W. M. Ingham and Marcel Egan, chairman of the board of supervisors.
