

To the Ox-Hearted Men of the Range Tucson Opens Wide Its Doors

The Arizona Daily Star

TUCSON, ARIZONA, THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 19, 1920.

WEATHER for TODAY: FAIR. Arizona and New Mexico—Fair Thursday and probably Friday, no decided change in temperature.

VOL. LXV. NO. 43.

COPPER AND SILVER: Copper Price Today, 15c. Bar Silver, $1.00. Mexican Dollars, $1.00.

ON TRAINS AND AT NEWS STANDS, IS A COPY OF THE ARIZONA DAILY STAR.

WISCONSIN REPEALS THE ITALIAN QUESTION

Allied Reply to President Kept Secret in Washington But Admitted Conciliatory

Wilson Takes Stand United States as Co-Belligerent in Party to Any Agreement Made, Allies Withdrawing Ultimatum to Jugo-Slavia, Thereby Re-opening Entire Adriatic and Fiume Tangle

Washington, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—President Wilson's reply to the allied supreme council regarding the Adriatic question, which caused armament of a navy in the sea east of the Adriatic, apparently has served to re-open the whole subject to negotiation. The supreme council's reply was received today by the state department, but was withheld. The state department made no comment on the fact that it was merely understood that the allied supreme council had admitted conciliatory in its attitude in which it was understood that the allied supreme council had communicated its settlement in Fiume, in the form of an ultimatum, without the United States being a party in the agreement.

Women Urge Deporting of Reds; Treaty is Dead Issue in Senate

SHOWDOWN BY JAPS DEMAND OF RUSS REDS

Washington, Feb. 18.—General Graves, commander of the United States expeditionary force in Siberia, advised the war department today that three units of the 27th Infantry arrived in Vladivostok Feb. 17 and the last reached Manchuria about February 14. The message and recommendations are as follows: Vladivostok, January 31. (By the Associated Press)—The American force here and the Manchurian bandits are in the hands of Russian troops. American railway traffic was being arrested in Siberia were being every effort toward speedy evacuation of all Czech and American and trains from the interior were being halted toward Vladivostok.

SENATOR SMITH OPPOSES PAYING OF GRAZING FEES TO U. S. GOVT. IN ADDRESS BEFORE CATTLEMEN

Tells Arizona Cattle Growers Association That State Should Control Land Within Its Domain and Get Fees; Judge Shute of Gila Declares Against Surrender of Law by Commission

Phoenix, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Senator Smith, in his first address before the Arizona Cattle Growers Association, today urged that the state should control the land within its domain and get the grazing fees. He declared that the state should not surrender the law to a commission. He said that the state should control the land within its domain and get the grazing fees. He declared that the state should not surrender the law to a commission. He said that the state should control the land within its domain and get the grazing fees. He declared that the state should not surrender the law to a commission.

RAIL WAGES GUARANTEED SIX MONTHS

IN REVISED RAIL BILL, REPORTED TO CONGRESS

Washington, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The revised rail bill reported to congress today guarantees rail wages for six months. The bill provides for a six-month period during which the wages of rail employees will be guaranteed. The bill also provides for a six-month period during which the wages of rail employees will be guaranteed. The bill also provides for a six-month period during which the wages of rail employees will be guaranteed.

All Lovely Again; U. S. Business Firm Opens Up Offices in German City

New York, Feb. 18.—Trade with Germany has progressed rapidly since the international Maritime Commission was organized in Washington, it was announced today by the office of the company. The company, which is in charge of the maritime traffic, has opened up offices in German cities. The company, which is in charge of the maritime traffic, has opened up offices in German cities. The company, which is in charge of the maritime traffic, has opened up offices in German cities.

C. O. P. SOLONS WEEPING OVER SICK PRESIDENT

Washington, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The C. O. P. solons today wept over the sick president. The solons, who are members of the C. O. P., were seen in tears as they gathered around the president's bed. The solons, who are members of the C. O. P., were seen in tears as they gathered around the president's bed. The solons, who are members of the C. O. P., were seen in tears as they gathered around the president's bed.

Railroad Corporations Are Also Asked to Measure to Provide Return of Roads to Private Ownership on March 1

Washington, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The railroad corporations are also asked to measure to provide return of roads to private ownership on March 1. The bill provides for the return of the roads to private ownership on March 1. The bill provides for the return of the roads to private ownership on March 1. The bill provides for the return of the roads to private ownership on March 1.

PROFITTEERING THE LEAST OF SIX REASONS GIVEN FOR THE H. C. L.

Increased Wages, Increased Volume Money and Credit, Lessened Production, Increased Distribution Cost, Extravagance and Finally Profitting Blamed.

New York, Feb. 18.—Profiteering is not the least of six reasons for the high cost of living given today by the United States Federal Reserve Board. The board, in its report on the cost of living, listed six reasons for the high cost of living. The reasons are: increased wages, increased volume money and credit, lessened production, increased distribution cost, extravagance, and finally profiteering. The board, in its report on the cost of living, listed six reasons for the high cost of living. The reasons are: increased wages, increased volume money and credit, lessened production, increased distribution cost, extravagance, and finally profiteering.

Two Resolutions Introduced in House By Republicans Provide Supreme Court Power To Promulgate President Unfit

Washington, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Two resolutions were introduced in the House today by Republicans to provide the Supreme Court with power to promulgate the president unfit. The resolutions were introduced by Representative [Name]. The resolutions were introduced by Representative [Name]. The resolutions were introduced by Representative [Name].

SENATOR SMITH OPPOSES PAYING OF GRAZING FEES TO U. S. GOVT. IN ADDRESS BEFORE CATTLEMEN

Phoenix, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Senator Smith, in his first address before the Arizona Cattle Growers Association, today urged that the state should control the land within its domain and get the grazing fees. He declared that the state should not surrender the law to a commission. He said that the state should control the land within its domain and get the grazing fees. He declared that the state should not surrender the law to a commission.

SEN. SMITH ATTACKED ON HIS LABOR RECORD

Resolution of Condemnation Is Passed By Tucson Trades and Labor Council

Resolution of Condemnation Is Passed By Tucson Trades and Labor Council

NATIONAL BUILDING BOOM WILL TOTAL SIX BILLIONS THIS YEAR DESPITE TRIPLED COSTS

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Building operations in the United States during 1920 will total six billion dollars, according to a report issued today by the National Building Congress. The report states that building operations will total six billion dollars this year despite tripled costs. The report states that building operations will total six billion dollars this year despite tripled costs.

PRISONERS LIBERATED

Many prisoners, including some who had been arrested for the same reason, were today released. The prisoners, who had been arrested for the same reason, were today released. The prisoners, who had been arrested for the same reason, were today released.

BAILEY TEXAS CANDIDATE

Washington, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Bailey, Texas candidate, was today announced as the candidate for the position of [Name]. Bailey, Texas candidate, was today announced as the candidate for the position of [Name]. Bailey, Texas candidate, was today announced as the candidate for the position of [Name].

TREATY GOES INTO FINAL ECLIPSE

Washington, Feb. 18.—The peace treaty went into eclipse today in the senate. With private negotiations for a compromise already quieted, the leaders found no one ready to speak on the senate floor and it was agreed that the subject would not be taken up during the day at all.

PINNING A MEDAL ON THE School Teacher

Every one of us knew what the three words meant. You betcha we did. And where did we learn them? From our school teachers. Education has a great deal to do with the progress of our country. The school teacher is the one who is responsible for the progress of our country. The school teacher is the one who is responsible for the progress of our country.

NEW YORK REPUBLICANS WILL BE UNINSTRUMENTED

Elmer Rice to Be One of U. S. P. National Convention

New York, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—New York Republicans will be uninstrumented at the national convention. Elmer Rice will be one of the speakers at the national convention. Elmer Rice will be one of the speakers at the national convention.

HUN SHIPS THORN IN SIDE OF U. S.

Washington, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The Hun ships are a thorn in the side of the United States. The Hun ships are a thorn in the side of the United States. The Hun ships are a thorn in the side of the United States.