

KLAN DISGRACE TO U. S., SAYS BUSINESS MAN

Underhanded Acts of Terror Unlawful and Is Menace to Society

John B. Ryland, of the firm of Ryland & Zipp, said:

"The Ku Klux Klan is a disgrace to any country or community and degrading in its influence. Their underhanded acts of terrorism, which are inspired by sinister motives, are absolutely unlawful. It has been said that it has done good in the past in many ways, but that period has passed and it is now a menace to society.

"I have no sympathy with the organization whatsoever."
