Border Patrol was contacted reference the traffic stop reference Ticket #T2591.

NARRATIVE:

On 10/06/15, at approximately 1626 hours, I was in the Foothills District of Pima County on patrol from Curtis Road and La Cholla Boulevard. I observed a vehicle make a wide turn from Curtis Road to head northbound on La Cholla Boulevard. The vehicle was a white Volkswagon.

I conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle at La Cholla Boulevard and River Road. There was a male subject who identified himself to me with a Mexico driver's license as Leonardo Guzman-Garcia. I ran a wants and warrants check on the driver. He came back unwanted through our jurisdiction and others reference the driver's license when he handed the driver's license to me. He also provided me with insurance and registration on the vehicle.

In looking at previous law enforcement contacts back in July of 2015 he had contact with the Oro Valley Police Department where he was subsequently detained by the Border Patrol. He was cited for having no license in that report. The report advised that he never received a license in any jurisdiction and did not have any license on him at the time of the traffic stop with the Oro Valley Police Department.

I looked at the Mexico driver's license. It said that it was permanent, but below it had an expiration date that appeared to be expired.

I made a few phone calls to see if I could identify if the driver's license was actually real or fictitious. Ultimately, I contacted the Border Patrol reference the individual because the driver advised me that he was not in the country legally.

The Border Patrol was contacted and they responded to the incident location. They took custody of the male subject who identified himself as Leonardo Guzman-Garcia. The driver's license that he provided me appeared that the symbols in the top left-hand corner and the bottom of the ID looked like it may have been placed in. There was a bar code on the back of the ID that appeared to be cut off. The ID's corners were splitting. It appeared that it was very cheaply made or fictitious. It also did not have a date of birth for Leonardo with the ID.

I provided the ID to the Border Patrol after I took photographs of the ID. They advised me that they would cite him for having fictitious documents if needed.

The vehicle was left at the scene. A female subject named Cynthia Vergara arrived on scene. The male subject who identified himself as Leonardo Guzman-Garcia said she could take custody of the vehicle. His registration and insurance were left in the vehicle. The keys were also in the vehicle. The vehicle was left with Cynthia at the driver's request.

While on scene, an activist for immigrants arrived. He was standing by videotaping the Border Patrol and myself. He requested that I speak with him in regards to my contact with the male subject who identified himself as Leonardo Guzman-Garcia. I advised him that I had no comment reference the contact with the subject. I told him it was public record and he could lookup the information if he chose and request a copy of the police report.

After the Border Patrol cleared the scene that concluded my involvement.
