Mr. Huckelberry has authorized and directed me to send the following letter of resignation to you:

Dear Chair Bronson: I hereby resign as the Pima County Administrator in order to concentrate my full efforts on the recovery of my health. However, I am not resigning from Pima County. Pima County has a bright and prosperous future with many opportunities and unlimited potential for everyone. After I have recovered, I will be available to assist the County Administrator's office and Board of Supervisors in achieving those opportunities and that future.

It has been a great honor to have served as County Administrator. I am proud of the many accomplishments of the Board of Supervisors, the Deputy County Administrators in my office, and all County employees. Pima County's response to the Covid-19 Pandemic became the model for many other jurisdictions nationwide.

Thank you for the opportunity to have served the people of our great community.

Charles H. Huckelberry
