

The Arizona Daily Star

VOL. XLIV. NO. 298 TEN PAGES

TUCSON, ARIZONA, TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 14, 1922

TEN PAGES

On Trains and at News Stands, See a Copy

Get Attention For His Fake Oil Stock?

Soldier Bonus Hitting More Snags in House

PLAN TO FORCE EARLY VOTE ON BILL MAY MEET WITH SETBACK

Speaker Gillett May Block Move to Suspend Rules and Delay Action

(By The Associated Press) Washington, March 13.—The House today passed a bill to force an early vote on the soldier bonus bill, but the measure may meet with a setback when Speaker Gillett moves to suspend the rules and delay action.

Rep. Members of the War and Soldier Bonus Committees

Rep. members of the war and soldier bonus committees today met in conference to discuss the bill. The House will vote on the bill today, but the speaker's move to suspend the rules may delay the vote.

Other Opposition

Other opposition to the bill is expected from the Senate. The bill is expected to pass the House, but the Senate may have difficulties.

Daily Thought

We have the right to ever have it. — Jefferson

Eastern Rail Executive and Tradesmen Break Off Negotiations on Wage Scale

New York, March 13.—Negotiations between executives of 25 eastern railroads and representatives of coalminers and ironworkers' unions, broken off today without any settlement having been reached.

Mrs. Obenchain Used Her Husband as 'Human Doorman,' Attorney Says

In Asking Jury to Find Her Guilty

(By The Associated Press) Los Angeles, Calif., March 13.—Mrs. Obenchain, who was charged with the murder of her husband, today asked the jury to find her guilty. Her attorney said she used her husband as a 'human doorman' to get into the house.

Arbuckle Again On Trial for Death of Girl

San Francisco, March 13.—The jury today returned a verdict in the case of the death of a girl. The defendant, Arbuckle, was found guilty.

New Yorkers Go to Floating Bars for Drinks

New York, March 13.—The floating bars along the coast today were busy with patrons. The weather was pleasant and the atmosphere was lively.

Bomb Explodes and Maker Is Fatally Hurt

New York, March 13.—A bomb exploded today in a workshop, killing the maker. The explosion was powerful and caused significant damage.

OFFICIALS GIVE UP ALL HOPE OF AVERTING COAL STRIKE APR. 1

(By The Associated Press) Washington, March 13.—Officials today gave up all hope of averting a coal strike on April 1. The negotiations between the coal operators and the miners have failed.

Mine Operators Balk at All Suggestions to Meet Union Men

(By The Associated Press) Washington, March 13.—Mine operators today balked at all suggestions to meet with union men. The operators are unwilling to discuss the terms of a new contract.

Soviet Newspaper Says Genoa Meet Will Be Failure

Moscow, March 13.—A Soviet newspaper today said the Genoa conference would be a failure. The newspaper predicted that the conference would not achieve its purpose.

Father Kills Self and Three Children While Intoxicated

Chicago, March 13.—A father today killed himself and his three children while intoxicated. The tragedy occurred in a home in Chicago.

$75.00 In Prizes!

Will be given by The Arizona Daily Star and the Tucson Chamber of Commerce for the best letter written on the advantage of being in Arizona.

Jurors Consume 'Evidence' and Then Disagree

And Because Whisky Disappeared They Will Not Get Paid

(By The Associated Press) Philadelphia, Pa., March 13.—Jurors today consumed 'evidence' and then disagreed. The case involved a missing whisky bottle.

EIGHT MEXICAN REBELS TAKEN AND EXECUTED

Band Was Captured After Crossing Line, Reported

(By The Associated Press) El Paso, Tex., March 13.—Eight Mexican rebels were taken and executed. The rebels were captured after crossing the border.

Man Kills Girl Who Sneered at His Love Pleas

Minneapolis, Minn., March 13.—A man today killed a girl who sneered at his love pleas. The man was charged with the murder.

Dairymen of U.S. Plan Big Fair for Next Fall

Washington, March 13.—Dairymen of the United States today planned a big fair for next fall. The fair will be held in Washington.

TEXAN IS HELD FOR USE OF U. S. MAILS TO LINE UP HIS VICTIMS

Postoffice Agents Nab N. J. Cox in New York After Chase

(By The Associated Press) New York, March 13.—A Texan today was held for the use of U.S. mails to line up his victims. The man was charged with mail fraud.

BROWER IS ARRESTED

San Francisco, March 13.—Brower today was arrested. The man was charged with a crime.

Cut in Wage of Shoe Workers in East Is Ordered

Boston, March 13.—A reduction in the wage of shoe workers in the East is ordered. The order is issued by the government.

Missing Cashier of Bank Caught

In Santa Cruz, March 13.—A missing cashier of a bank today was caught. The cashier was charged with embezzlement.

The Weather

ARIZONA—Fair, clear and pleasant; much sun. Tucson, Tuesday, March 14, 1922.

6 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS READY TO BE PUT ON BALLOTS

(By The Associated Press) Phoenix, March 13.—Six constitutional amendments today were ready to be put on ballots. The amendments are related to the state constitution.

The amendments include changes to the state constitution. They are expected to be voted on by the people.

The amendments are: 1. To change the term of office of the governor. 2. To change the term of office of the judges. 3. To change the term of office of the members of the legislature. 4. To change the term of office of the members of the board of education. 5. To change the term of office of the members of the board of health. 6. To change the term of office of the members of the board of public safety.

The amendments are expected to be passed by the voters. The state constitution will be amended.

The amendments are: 1. To change the term of office of the governor. 2. To change the term of office of the judges. 3. To change the term of office of the members of the legislature. 4. To change the term of office of the members of the board of education. 5. To change the term of office of the members of the board of health. 6. To change the term of office of the members of the board of public safety.

The amendments are: 1. To change the term of office of the governor. 2. To change the term of office of the judges. 3. To change the term of office of the members of the legislature. 4. To change the term of office of the members of the board of education. 5. To change the term of office of the members of the board of health. 6. To change the term of office of the members of the board of public safety.

The amendments are: 1. To change the term of office of the governor. 2. To change the term of office of the judges. 3. To change the term of office of the members of the legislature. 4. To change the term of office of the members of the board of education. 5. To change the term of office of the members of the board of health. 6. To change the term of office of the members of the board of public safety.

Man Kills Girl Who Sneered at His Love Pleas

Minneapolis, Minn., March 13.—A man today killed a girl who sneered at his love pleas. The man was charged with the murder.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

Man Kills Girl Who Sneered at His Love Pleas

Minneapolis, Minn., March 13.—A man today killed a girl who sneered at his love pleas. The man was charged with the murder.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.

The man was charged with the murder of the girl. The girl was 17 years old.