

Southbound weapon seizures at Arizona ports of entry

The number of weapons headed into Mexico and seized by U.S. customs officials skyrocketed in 2021, likely because there are more attempts to smuggle weapons into Mexico, and officials are better at intercepting them. Also, the amount of ammunition seized continues to increase.

