Wild West Lives Again In Tucson

By JUDY DONOVAN
The festive spirit traditional to the great American sport of rodeo takes over the town today as the 42nd annual Fiesta de los Vaqueros opens four days of exciting pageantry.

This morning at 10 the annual Rodeo Parade will begin moving up South Fifth Avenue, past the reviewing stands overlooking the line. About 15,000 spectators are expected to jam the downtown streets and high vantage points for a look at the world's longest all-horse parade.

More than $25,000 in prize money will tempt the rodeo contestants this year, as some of the top name cowboys risk their necks to entertain the crowd with horse and bull riding, roping, wrestling and tying.

According to Bert Humphrey of the Rodeo Parade Committee, the parade offers a field day for camera fans.

Here to capture the latest of the parade is the contingent of Indians from the Pima-Maricopa Reservation. St. John's Indian School—40 dancers representing Southern tribes in their native dress. The Mexican Chamber of Commerce, with its Mexican dancers from the State of Nayarit.

Complementing the visual spectacle will be music of the University of Arizona, 20-piece marching band and the marching bands of all high schools and surrounding area high schools.

Diagnoses of herdsmanship the west is so proud of will be represented by the Pima County Sheriff's posse and Cochise County Sheriff's posse, carrying the flag of the 48 states, as well as Canada and Mexico, the University of Arizona Cowboys' team of steeple-chased cowboys, and dozens of individual riders in cowboy and western attire.

Boys Old, a University code who was crowned Rodeo Queen at last night's Rodeo Dance will appear in the parade in a white and gold brocade western suit.

Contestants in the rodeo parade will vie for prizes donated by local merchants and business firms who support the annual event.

At Reuther's Orders

GM Workers To End Strike

DETROIT (AP) — Under orders from United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther, rebellion leaders of a striking unit this Wednesday night agreed to return to work, ending the threat of a boycott of all 500,000 General Motors workers.

President Robert Hall of striking Local 549 of Mansfield, Ohio, emerged from a five-hour session with the UAW's International Executive Board and said his union has agreed to a hard order to return to the job.

The strike of approximately 2,700 stamping plant workers at Mansfield had threatened to shut off the entire automobile production of General Motors nationwide string of factories.

Hall said he would call a meeting of his local for next Thursday to report on his session with the UAW high council, which was reported to have brought Local 549 to a showdown on the work return issue.

A GM spokesman said that without a settlement the district could force the company to lay off 12,000 workers at 17 plants in 14 states by the end of second-shift operations Wednesday night. This included 20 assembly plants and 46 related plants.

Leaders of the defiant local arrived at UAW Territory House headquarters in late afternoon and were called into an immediate closed-door session.

Following a meeting with Hall and some 30 of his members, the executive board of the local said it was "in a position to return to work," according to a spokesman. "At a show cause hearing called by the day after the opening 18."

Panel Votes To Seat Powell

Only Punishment: Censure And Fine
By CARL F. LEUBSDORF
WASHINGTON (AP) — A select House committee reached a unanimous agreement late Wednesday on a recommendation that Adam Clayton Powell be censored, censured and docked a portion of his pay.

Although Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., told reporters after another long day's meeting that "we are still deliberating this matter," it was learned that all but a few members had been agreed on.

The principal punishment the group plans to recommend to the House is that Powell be forced to pay back government funds he allegedly converted to his own use. This is expected to be in the neighborhood of $20,000.

It was also reported that the committee had agreed to remove all of Powell's seniority, which would put him at the bottom of the list among all members of the House. It was unclear if this would also mean he would have to give up his New York Building office. Only senior members are entitled to suites in the Rayburn Building.

Rep. Claude D. Pepper, D-Fla., still proclaiming he favors Powell's expulsion from the House, told reporters he plans to urge the report recommending Powell be censured and fined.

Color confirmed that the committee's recommendations will be unanimous. Every member will sign the report, he said. The report is expected to contain a section spelling out the committee's position that the House should not accept the resignation of Powell.

Harriman Reveals

Vietnam Peace Getting Closer

Differences Between Hanoi, VC Cited; Southern Reds Afraid Of Domination

WASHINGTON—Ambassador-at-Large W. Averell Harriman said Wednesday he saw indications that peace in Vietnam is getting closer.

Harriman, named by President Johnson to serve as a filtering private comments available to the State Department, said there are signs the North Vietnamese leaders are "coming around to the point where they may be willing to talk" about a settlement of the war.

Harriman suggested the alleged find an opening by offering potential differences between Hanoi and the Viet Cong. He noted that elements within the Viet Cong had indicated a shift in their position.

He said the Viet Cong's position on the war has changed in the past year — especially in the last two months.

During this period, State Department and White House officials have privately acknowledged that Hanoi has been interpreting an offer to enter into talks with the United States as a sign of weakness.

Harriman's comments were made in a news conference after he returned from a trip to the North Vietnamese capital, Hanoi.

Ma Van Bo, the North Vietnamese representative in Paris, indicated that his government's position on the war had changed in the past year.

PHOENIX—Any nation that can spend over $30 billion a year on the moon can make the investments to put a man on the moon.

That was the theme of a speech by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to a crowd of 1,500 Democratic Party workers here Wednesday.

Leaving no stone of the Great Society unfinished in his 79-minute address, Humphrey said America is now in the midst of a great renaissance.

The vice president said the administration is seeking to build a "state in which every body is self-sustaining," not a body that is dependent on the state.

Ferrie's Arrest Was 'Imminent'

By BILL CRIDER

NEW ORLEANS, La. (U) — David W. Ferrie, an important and strange figure in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, was found dead in bed Wednesday, Garrison told a news conference.

The apparent suicide of David Ferrie ended the life of a man who, in my judgment, was one of history's most important individuals. Garrison told a news conference.

Crowder Nicholas Chetta said Ferrie's death was due to a ruptured blood vessel in the brain, but that further tests were being made.

Garrison said Ferrie, a pilot, had been under constant observation and his information "had been in the hands of the FBI."

"Evidence developed by our office had long since confirmed that he was involved in events surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy."

"Because of this, at a meeting of my home 102 morning, we had reached a decision to arrest him early next week. Apparently we waited too long."

Dr. Chetta said a note was found in the dining room of Ferrie's cluttered apartment which said, in part:

"To leave this life, for me, is a great privilege. I find nothing in this life is desirable and no other than what I find in this life."

The coroner said Ferrie, about 45, was born with a weak heart and had been in the hospital for several years.

No drugs were found in the apartment except pills for treatment of rheumatoid arthritis, Dr. Chetta said. He added that stress could have caused the weak blood vessel to "blow."

Ferrie was arrested here for questioning within 72 hours after the assassination, when he returned from a trip to Texas. An informant had linked him to Lee Harvey Oswald, named as the assassin.

"We thought it peculiar that a man would undertake a trip to South Texas when everyone else was watching television," said Garrison.

Ferrie, who had private investigating and listed himself as a psychologist, had complained that Garrison had him "pegged as the primary plot to assassinate President John F. Kennedy."

He called it a "big job."

The New Orleans district attorney, in an investigation that started last October, has been trying to prove that a conspiracy was hatched here that "convinced the assassin of President John F. Kennedy."

Red Army Units Turn On Maoists, Arrest 1,000

TOKYO, Thursday (AP) — Units of the Red Chinese Army have turned on followers of Mao Tse-tung, killing two and arresting nearly 1,000 in Hunan Province, Japanese reports from Peking said today.

This development came in the midst of speculation that Mao was shifting strategy under certain conditions in his approach to China's violent power struggle.

Kyodo News Service's correspondent in the Chinese capital said all newspapers reported that supporters of President Lin Biao-chi, jailed by the army, were carrying out "hit" missions, the sick Marxist phrase for assassination and torture.

(Another source said.)

Oswald killed anybody in Dallas on that day."
