

Special "University Week" Edition

The Arizona Daily Star

TUCSON, ARIZONA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 18, 1917

Today's Theatrical Offerings
OPERA HOUSE—Tilda, Mrs. Broadway—Cora, Kismet, Young Pina—Cyril Root.

Weather Forecast for Today
N. N.—Wed., Thurs., Sat., cooler, but not so much as yesterday.
A.—Wed., Thurs., Sat., fair, the same.
T. U. S. C. N. S. W. M. S. S. S. S.

GERMANS 20 MILES OF GERMAN LINE

Germans Pay Oregon Against Carranza

FIRST LINE OF GERMAN POSITIONS TAKEN BY BONILLAS

Reports of Plot by Mexican War Minister Denied by Consul, Attributing Them To Editor—Enemy Of Obregon—Wilson Addresses Mexican Diplomat

(By Associated Press) EL PASO, April 17.—A reliable American who arrived at the border from Mexico City today by way of Dallas and Tucson, said he had heard unverified rumors here of a plot for a "counter-revolution" on or before May 1, when General Carranza would be inaugurated. The general, he said, was a part of a general movement to have Carranza's office and name removed from Carranza's name and to have Carranza's name removed from Carranza's name...

Latins 'Fire' Envoy Who Are Germans

German Minister Seeks to Soothe Argentine; Carranza Seizes British-Owned Railroad

PORTO ALEGRE, Brazil, April 17.—A mob attacked 370 German houses tonight, here down German flags, and smashed the windows. Afterward contributors of the German Emperor were nailed to the walls.

IMPORTANT VILLAGE OF TUBERDINE TAKEN; COUNTERS PUT DOWN

Neville's Forces in Snow Storm Carry 10 Miles of First Line Positions Between Soissons and Rheims Then Storm Seven-Mile Fortified Ridge; 2500 Additional Prisoners Taken and Enemy Casualties are Heavy in Battle Attending Capture of Fortified Auberville Saient—Wounded Prisoners Taken Monday Total 11,000.

(By Associated Press) PARIS, April 17.—Continuing their terrific attack against the German positions between Soissons and Rheims today, the French carried German first-line positions over many miles of front, captured powerfully organized heights, occupied the important village of Auberville and on this part of the front, about two miles in extent, took more than 2500 prisoners.

REVENUE BILL HAS PASSED BOTH HOUSES, BUT CHANGES MAKE CONFERENCE NECESSARY BEFORE WILSON'S SIGNATURE MAKES IT FINAL

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The administration bill passed by both houses today, but changes make it necessary to hold a conference before the president's signature makes it final.

DESTROYER SAYS U-BOAT ATTACKED IT

(By Associated Press) BOSTON, April 17.—The war was brought to the attention of the public today when the United States destroyer Smith reported by radio that an enemy submarine had fired unsuccessfully at the ship 200 miles south of New York at 1:30 this morning.

WILSON PLANS TO SMOKE OUT ANTI-DRAFT MEN

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—President Wilson today announced his intention to "smoke out" anti-draft men.

TRAINING CAMPS FOR OFFICERS AUTHORIZED

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The War Department today authorized the establishment of training camps for officers.

GERMANS' UTMOST POWER FAILS TO HALT RESISTIBLE FRENCH LINE

(By Associated Press) PARIS, April 17.—The German line today was held by the French line, which was described as "resistible."

GERMAN WAR MINISTER DENIES TORPEDO LAUNCHED AT HIM WAS BIG FISH; NO OFFICIAL STATEMENT

(By Associated Press) BOSTON, April 17.—The war minister today denied the report that a torpedo had been launched at him.

GOOD BOOTS TAKEN FROM BOTTLES WITH NEEDLE BOOTING SUBSTITUTED

(By Associated Press) EL PASO, April 17.—When 1000 sets of issued whitties were sent to government agents here today, it was discovered that many of them were "good boots" taken from bottles with needles.

FIRST 10,000 WILL BE OFFICERS

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The first 10,000 men to be trained for the war will be officers.

WILL ABOLISH TITLES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The War Department today announced its intention to abolish titles.

WILL ABOLISH TITLES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The War Department today announced its intention to abolish titles.

WILL ABOLISH TITLES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The War Department today announced its intention to abolish titles.

WILL ABOLISH TITLES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The War Department today announced its intention to abolish titles.

WILL ABOLISH TITLES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The War Department today announced its intention to abolish titles.

WILL ABOLISH TITLES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The War Department today announced its intention to abolish titles.

WILL ABOLISH TITLES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The War Department today announced its intention to abolish titles.