

Place Network Investigation locations

Tucson police are working with city departments and outside agencies on a violence reduction strategy that focuses on interrupting crime networks in specific neighborhoods while also providing services to and engaging residents.

Tucson currently has PNIs in place in three parts of town: the north side's Oasis Apartments at 2550 N. Dodge Blvd.; the south side's Rancho del Mar Apartments at 6200 S. Campbell Ave.; and on the east side, Tierra Sol Apartments at 7450 E. 22nd St.
